Re-thinking Renaissance Objects Peta Motture, Michelle O'Malley, 2011-09-07 Inspired by research undertaken for the new Medieval Renaissance Galleries at the Victoria and Albert Museum Re thinking Renaissance Objects explores and often challenges some of the key issues and current debates relating to Renaissance art and culture Puts forward original research including evidence provided by an in depth study arising from the Medieval Renaissance Gallery project Contributions are unusual in their combination of a variety of approaches but with each paper starting with an examination of the objects themselves New theories emerge from several papers some of which challenge current thinking Blessed be Our Table Neil Paynter,2003 This book of graces and reflections integrates thankfulness with a burning passion for justice both of which are central to our relationship with a bountiful provider God with the whole creation with each other and with our brothers and sisters throughout the world who because of greed and injustice will not receive their daily bread This work invites us to pray and recommit ourselves to act for justice each time we join in the simple sharing of a meal It is also very much a celebration of food of diversity of community and sharing of creator and creation The graces in this book are from a wide range of contributors from Iona Community members associates and friends from other religious communities and houses of welcome from humanitarian organisations from different faiths and traditions The Petals of a Kansas Sunflower Melvin D.
