she is certainly not feeble or idle. She has built a splendid vegetable garden from scratch on the rooftop of her Chengdu apartment building. She collects thrown away produce to feed her animals or make compost for the garden. She waters weeds and shows the neighborhood kids how to care for her plants with love, patience and pride. Come harvest time, Granny gathers her fresh produce and cooks up a delicious feast for her friends and family. She even sends them off with extra bags of goodies so people can make their own yummy healthy meals at home. Debut author/illustrator Tang Wei creates a love letter to an indomitable grandma of the city inspired by her own childhood and a beloved relative. Combining a fun rhythmic text reminiscent of Chinese folk nursery rhymes with earthy vibrant colored pencil drawings, Wei shows how one person can create a beautiful green space in the heart of the concrete jungle and bring together an entire community. P R A I S E This heartwarming tale is one to share and treasure. BookPage starred. In this exquisite debut inspired by her childhood and a precious elder, Wei lovingly cultivates a picture book that captures Chengdu, the capital city of Sichuan province, with expressionistic folk art and vibrant textured colored pencil illustrations. Readers with a green thumb will admire Granny's passion for giving back to the community while living happily and healthily in green spaces. Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books starred. Chicken Soup for the Grandma's Soul Jack Canfield, Mark Victor Hansen, 2012-08-07

Young, 2011-10-13 Throughout the story, Christine continues to show her undying unconditional love for Rose as family gossip, jealousy and criticism split them apart. Christine shares a deep connection with her daughter, Rose, by relating Rose to her flowers that she loves so much. As time goes on and Christine begins to age, she realizes all she has is her flowers and her family. Christine will hold on until the end, hoping to see Rose and not matter what the family says, Christine never gives up on her hope for Rose as she tries to do all that she could to make Rose close to her again. In the end, Christine struggles for her life and fights until the end as her dying wish goes to her grave. The content is also hilarious.
