BEYOND FORGETTING

Childhood memories of the author during the WWII in the Philippines

Having lived during and after the Second World War, Frank experienced the terrors of the war and the devastations that shortly followed. It was a challenging period to the world, more so to the eye of a four-year-old child. In this book, discover how the biggest war of history affected the life of an innocent child and how the challenges made him see and appreciate the simplest things in life. This book contains the unrecorded history of WWII as it happened to the typical families of a small town on a remote island in the Philippines. From surviving the war, overcoming the poverty of the time, and completing his education with flying colors, join Frank in his unusual yet exciting journey during and after WWII. Through his experience, see how positivity, camaraderie, and resourcefulness can transform even the most challenging situations into victory and success!

Beyond The Lines Dr. M. K. Krishnamoorthy,2024-09-09 Though my forte is the creative world I used to dabble now and then as a conscious concerned critic reacting to the current events by calling a spade a spade and providing necessary inputs for progress Whilst expressing my profound gratitude and sense of appreciation wherever it s due I failed not to condemn the words and deeds of the high and mighty with equal gravity In the pious endeavour piercing through the life and death lines of constricting Chakravyuh and expanding Gyre I could perceive what is intended but not said and not only denoted but also connoted I deemed it as my bounden duty to make my fellow citizens aware of the good and bad that happen around us for further constructive action The result is a plethora of write ups on eclectic areas including some of my personal tragedies that have universal values The melange of nostalgic thoughts of my odyssey are compiled as Beyond the Lines for the perusal of the readers      Multiple Secularities Beyond the West Marian Burchardt,Monika Wohlrab-Sahr,Matthias

Lists and Catalogues in Ancient Literature and Beyond Rebecca Laemmle, Cédric Scheidegger Laemmle, Katharina Wesselmann, 2021-02-22 Lists and catalogues have been en vogue in philosophy cultural media and literary studies for more than a decade These explorations of enumerative modes however have not yet had the impact on classical scholarship that they deserve While they routinely take a limited set of ancient models as their starting point there is no comparably comprehensive study that focuses on antiquity conversely studies on lists and catalogues in Classics remain largely limited to individual texts and with some notable exceptions offer little in terms of explicit theorising The present volume is an attempt to close this gap and foster the dialogue between the recent theoretical re appraisal of enumerative modes and scholarship on ancient cultures The 16 contributions to the volume juxtapose literary forms of enumeration with an abundance of ancient non sub or para literary practices of listing and cataloguing In their different approaches to this vast and heterogenous corpus they offer a sense of the hermeneutic epistemic and methodological challenges with which the study of enumeration is faced and elucidate how pragmatics materiality performativity and aesthetics are mediated in lists and catalogues

The Semantics of Clause Linking R. M. W. Dixon, Alexandra Y. Aikhenvald, 2009-08-06 This book is a cross linguistic examination of the grammatical means languages employ to represent a set of semantic relations between clauses Professor Dixon's opening discussion is followed by fourteen case studies of languages ranging from Korean and Kham to Iquito and Ojibwe. The book's concluding synthesis is provided by Professor Aikhenvald. Beyond Politics Michael P.

Vandenbergh, Jonathan M. Gilligan, 2017-12-21 Private sector action provides one of the most promising opportunities to reduce the risks of climate change by buying time while governments move slowly or even oppose climate mitigation. Starting with the insight that much of the resistance to climate mitigation is grounded in concern about the role of government, this book draws on law, policy, social science, and climate science to demonstrate how private initiatives are already bypassing government inaction in the US and around the globe. It makes a persuasive case that private governance can reduce global carbon emissions by a billion tons per year over the next decade. Combining an examination of the growth of private climate initiatives over the last decade, a theory of why private actors are motivated to reduce emissions, and a review of viable next steps, this book speaks to scholars, business and advocacy group managers, philanthropists, policymakers, and anyone interested in climate change. Beyond the Tangled Mountain Douglas C. Percy, 1975 Connectionist Models of

Memory and Language (PLE: Memory) Joseph P. Levy, Dimitrios Bairaktaris, John Bullinaria, Paul Cairns, 2014-05-09 Connectionist modelling and neural network applications had become a major sub-field of cognitive science by the mid 1990s. In this ground-breaking book, originally published in 1995, leading connectionists shed light on current approaches to memory and language modelling at the time. The book is divided into four sections: Memory, Reading, Computation, and statistics. Speech and audition. Each section is introduced and set in context by the editors, allowing a wide range of language and memory issues to be addressed in one volume. This authoritative, advanced-level book will still be of interest for all engaged in connectionist research and the related areas of cognitive science concerned with language and memory. Brain Mapping

Arthur W. Toga, John C. Mazziotta, 2000-04-26 The sequel to Brain Mapping: The Methods covers the utilization of methods for the study of brain structure and function. Organized by systems, it presents information on the normal as well as the diseased brain. It integrates the various methodologies with appropriate usage. Historical and Religious Memory in the Ancient World Beate Dignas, R. R. R. Smith, 2012-03-15 Historical and Religious Memory in the Ancient World examines how religious and historical memory was fashioned, distorted, preserved, or erased in ancient societies and what wide-ranging effects these actions had on the historical process. The volume is interested in how memory intersects with and shapes religious traditions and cultural identities. Its twelve case studies explore different aspects of the memory layers that make up ancient history: social, religious, cultural, and looks at how these layers are represented and refracted in different contexts of the written and material remains of antiquity. The process has its beginnings in the dim pasts of ancient communities and continues in the later Greek and Roman periods where our most articulate ancient evidence lies. It is a process that continues in a different way in contemporary scholarship, which draws on selected evidence and a variety of contrasting representations. The three parts of the book vary the lens through which the impact of religious and cultural memory can be grasped. Part I looks at the commemoration of religious tradition in the context of cultural interaction Greek Roman Jewish and Christian Part II focuses on how religious identities are defined and how homogenous looking cultures engage in elaborate selective dialogue with their own past In Part III contested versions of the past are interpreted in studies of Roman historiography and of religiously motivated behaviour in late antique Asia Minor This interdisciplinary book highlights and celebrates the work of Simon Price an important thinker and pioneer in this kind of wider historical research in ancient cultures and religions
