Michael A. Gathercole, 1833 Communication Research Measures II Rebecca B. Rubin, Alan M. Rubin, Elizabeth E. Graham, Elizabeth M. Perse, David Seibold, 2010-04-26 Expanding and building on the measures included in the original 1994 volume Communication Research Measures II: A Sourcebook provides new measures in mass interpersonal, instructional, and group/organizational communication areas and highlights work in newer subdisciplines in communication including intercultural, family, and health. It also includes measures from outside the communication discipline that have been employed in communication research. The measures profiled here are the best of the best from the early 1990s through today. They are models for future scale development as well as tools for the trade and they constitute the main tools that researchers can use for self-administered measurement of people's attitudes, conceptions of themselves, and perceptions of others. The focus is on up-to-date measures and the most recent scales and indexes used to assess communication variables. Providing suggestions for measurement of concepts of interest to researchers inspiring students to consider research directions not considered previously and supplying models for scale developers to follow in terms of the work necessary to produce a valid and reliable measurement instrument in the discipline, the authors of this key resource have developed a significant contribution toward improving measurement and providing measures for better science. Protest, Repression and Political Regimes Sabine C. Carey, 2009-01-13 This book explores and tests different theories of how governments respond to dissent and how dissidents respond to repression using extensive empirical data and detailed studies on Latin America and Africa. Letters to a

Strawser, Stephanie A. Outlines of best practices and suggestions for application are provided based on the most recent data and corresponding literature. The Supreme Court and McCarthy-Era Repression Robert M. Lichtman, 2012-08-15 In this volume attorney Robert M Lichtman provides a comprehensive history of the U S Supreme Court s decisions in Communist cases during the McCarthy era Lichtman shows the Court s vulnerability to public criticism and attacks by the elected branches during periods of political repression The book describes every Communist related decision of the era none is omitted placing them in the context of political events and revealing the range and intrusiveness of McCarthy era repression In Fred Vinson s term as chief justice 1946-53 the Court largely rubber stamped government action against accused Communists and subversives After Earl Warren replaced Vinson as chief justice in 1953 however the Court began to rule against the government in Communist cases choosing the narrowest of grounds but nonetheless outraging public opinion and provoking fierce attacks from the press and Congress Legislation to curb the Court flooded Congress and seemed certain to be enacted The Court's situation was aggravated by its 1954 school desegregation decision Brown v Board of Education which led to an anti Court alliance between southern Democrats and anti Communists in both parties Although Lyndon Johnson's remarkable talents as Senate majority leader saved the Court from highly punitive legislation the attacks caused the Court to retreat with Felix Frankfurter leading a five justice majority that decided major constitutional issues for the government and effectively nullified earlier decisions Only after August 1962 when Frankfurter retired and was replaced by Arthur Goldberg did the Court again begin to vindicate individual rights in Communist cases its McCarthy era was over Demonstrating keen insight into the Supreme Court's inner workings and making extensive use of the justices' papers Lichtman examines the dynamics of the Court's changes in direction and the relationships and rivalries among its justices including such towering figures as Hugo Black Felix Frankfurter Earl Warren William O Douglas and William J Brennan Jr The Supreme Court and McCarthy Era Repression One Hundred Decisions tells the entire story of the Supreme Court during this unfortunate period of twentieth century American history The Politics of Human Rights Sabine C. Carey, Mark Gibney, Steven C. Poe, 2010-10-14 Human rights is an important issue in contemporary politics and the last few decades have also seen a remarkable increase in research and teaching on the subject This book introduces students to the study of human rights and aims to build on their interest while simultaneously offering an alternative vision of the subject Many texts focus on the theoretical and legal issues surrounding human rights This book adopts a substantially different approach which uses empirical data derived from research on human rights by political scientists to illustrate the occurrence of different types of human rights violations across the world The authors devote attention to rights as well as to responsibilities neither of which stops at one country's political borders They also explore how to deal with repression and the aftermath of human rights violations making students aware of the prospects for and realities of progress Communication Research Measures III Elizabeth E. Graham, Joseph P. Mazer, 2019-09-20 Building on the measures included in the original 1994 volume and subsequent 2009 volume Communication Research Measures III A Sourcebook extends its coverage of measurement issues and trends across the entire communication discipline Volume III features entirely new content and offers an assessment of new measures in mass interpersonal instructional group organizational family health and intercultural communication and highlights work in emergent subdisciplines in communication including social media and new communication technologies sports communication and public relations The best of the best from 2009 through today the profiled research measures in Volume III serve as models for future scale development and constitute the main tools that researchers can use for self administered measurement of people's attitudes conceptions of themselves and perceptions of others This book is ideal for undergraduate and graduate courses that emphasize quantitative research methods measurement and or survey design across communication studies disciplines Scale Gerald Adler, Timothy Brittain-Catlin, Gordana Fontana-Giusti, 2013-01-11 Scale
