Scandinavian Immigrant Literature:

Scandinavian Immigrant Literature Christer Lennart Mossberg, 1981 Literature, Language, and Multiculturalism in Scandinavia and the Low Countries Wolfgang Behschnitt, Sarah De Mul, Liesbeth Minnaard, 2013-11-05 Literature Language and Multiculturalism in Scandinavia and the Low Countries presents a ground breaking comparative approach to the study of multicultural literature Focusing on the development of migration literature in Sweden Denmark Flanders and the Netherlands the volume argues that the political and institutional preconditions for the development of multicultural literatures are still given within the frame of the nation state As a consequence both the field of migration literature and the multi lingual quality of literary texts are shaped differently in each state and in each language area The volume delineates the development of multicultural literature in Scandinavia and the Low Countries as a function of the specific language situations in these countries as well as the various political institutional and discursive contexts This book not only offers a comprehensive theoretical and methodological analysis of multilingualism and multicultural literature but also provides overviews sketching the discourse on multiculturalism language and the development of the literary field in Sweden Denmark the Netherlands and Flanders Besides it presents a broad range of in depth analyses of selected literary texts from each of these countries A Literary History of the American West Western Literature Association (U.S.), 1987 Literary histories of course do not have a reason for being unless there exists the literature itself This volume perhaps more than others of its kind is an expression of appreciation for the talented and dedicated literary artists who ignored the odds avoided temptations to write for popularity or prestige and chose to write honestly about the American West believing that experiences long known to be of historical importance are also experiences that need and deserve a literature of importance

Contemporary French and Scandinavian Crime Fiction Anne Grydehøj, 2021-07-05 This book offers a study of Danish Norwegian Swedish and French crime fictions covering a fifty year period From 1965 to the present both Scandinavian and French societies have undergone significant transformations Twelve literary case studies examine how crime fictions in the respective contexts have responded to shifting social realities which have in turn played a part in transforming the generic codes and conventions of the crime novel At the centre of the book s analysis is crime fiction s negotiation of the French model of Republican universalism and the Scandinavian welfare state both of which were routinely characterised as being in a state of crisis at the end of the twentieth century Adopting a comparative and interdisciplinary approach the book investigates the interplay between contemporary Scandinavian and French crime narratives considering their engagement with the relationship of the state and the citizen and notably with identity issues class gender sexuality and ethnicity in particular Rethinking National Literatures and the Literary Canon in Scandinavia Dag Heede, Anne Heith, Ann-Sofie Lönngren, 2015-10-19 The literary field and canon in the Nordic countries are under constant negotiation and transformation with various alternative literatures having evolved alongside the majority literatures of these nations in recent decades These new phenomena constructed around perspectives regarding language ethnicity sexuality gender and social class have been categorised as migration minority and queer literatures Rethinking National Literatures and the Literary Canon in Scandinavia highlights these literatures and their histories roles and impacts on both the literary establishment and post modern societies in the Nordic region It also discusses how the constructions of national literary canons today are challenged by the influence of various critical perspectives including postcolonial theories and queer indigenous ethnic literary and gender studies On a broader level the book showcases the position literature has in the building of national identities in Nordic nation states and in the process demonstrates that the plurality of perspectives in literary studies has the potential to question the fundamentals of the literary canon canon formations national self understanding and identity The book is composed of nine articles authored by literary scholars in Finland S pmi Sweden and Denmark It addresses issues such as methodological nationalism in literary scholarship the uses of concepts such as transnational and immigrant literature the ways in which traditional S mi features are employed in contemporary S mi poetry postcolonial representations in Nordic literature and the ways that political processes of Othering are made visible in contemporary literature s uses of traditional Scandinavian folklore Read together these articles provide an overview of some of the challenges and changes in Nordic literature today

The Western Home Orm Øverland, 1996 The Western Home A Literary History of Norwegian America is a history of American literature It is different from other histories of American literature in that the language of the writers and their readers was not English There have been studies of American authors who have used languages such as French German Spanish or Swedish but this is the first comprehensive history of any literature written and read in the United States in another language than English Indeed most histories of American literature are based on the theory that English is the only American literary language Such a theory however dismisses the fact that English has in periods been a minority language in many areas In this book American literature is the literature of people who are American by choice or by birth regardless of the language they may have used This book demonstrates that Norwegian has indeed been an American literary language and that many of the American writers in this language deserve our attention

Images of America in Scandinavia, 1998 The subject of Images of America in Scandinavia the first comprehensive study of its kind is as multifaceted complex and overwhelming as America or the United States itself It concerns the nature and function reality and fiction of such images in Denmark Norway and Sweden past and present The book is intended to be a source of solid information as well as a starting point for further inquiries into its cultural territory Part of its focus is on images of America rooted in printed sources but in addition general surveys of other cultural signs of America in the Scandinavian countries present a broader picture and provide some of the background for the predominantly literary images Issues such as government and politics popular and vanguard music and art and socio cultural institutions intermittently come to the fore Framing the volume s three pairs of national surveys is an introductory chapter which addresses the entire subject from a bird s eye view and a concluding chapter which by contrast delves into the cross fire of sentiments defining people whose images of America are both American and Scandinavian The discussion of America as perceived in Scandinavia sheds new light on intriguing inter Scandinavian cultural distinctions and borderlines Countless books and articles methods and theories have been devoted to the study of national and cultural identity Still the exchanges between such identities and the images they engender so indispensable for the participants in a global culture remain clouded by many misconceptions Images of America in Scandinavia whose editors and authors all have Scandinavian backgrounds will contribute an improved understanding of the cultural interplay between Scandinavia and the United States of America

Nordic Literature Steven P. Sondrup, Mark B. Sandberg, Thomas A. DuBois, Dan Ringgaard, 2017-12-15 Nordic Literature A comparative history is a multi volume comparative analysis of the literature of the Nordic region Bringing together the literature of Finland continental Scandinavia Sweden Norway Denmark and S pmi and the insular region Iceland Greenland and the Faroe Islands each volume of this three volume project adopts a new frame through which one can recognize and analyze significant clusters of literary practice This first volume Spatial nodes devotes its attention to the changing literary figurations of space by Nordic writers from medieval to contemporary times Organized around the depiction of various scapes and spatial practices at home and abroad this approach to Nordic literature stretches existing notions of temporally linear nationally centered literary history and allows questions of internal regional similarities and differences to emerge more strongly The productive historical contingency of the North as a literary space becomes clear in this close analysis of its literary texts and practices
