Ramsey Campbell Gary William Crawford, 2013-12-05 As the author of more than two dozen novels and hundreds of short stories as well as essays reviews and columns Ramsey Campbell is one of the most prolific writers in the field of horror literature The consistently high level of quality in his work has resulted in every major award that weird fiction has to offer including the Grand Master Award of the World Horror Convention the Lifetime Achievement Award of the Horror Writers Association and the Living Legend Award of the International Horror Guild Strangely though relatively little criticism has been written about Campbell In Ramsey Campbell Critical Essays on the Modern Master of Horror Gary William Crawford has assembled a collection of articles that examine the work of one of weird fiction's most revered writers These essays look at a number of elements that characterize Campbell's stories and novels including comparisons to H P Lovecraft who was an early inspiration Campbell's modern variations of Gothic fiction his concept of evil religious subtext in his fiction and how adversities Campbell has faced have shaped his life and his work In all these essays pay homage to Campbell's painstaking craftsmanship and show that there is much to be mined in his fiction Because Campbell is so important in the genre of horror literature this book serves as a much needed affirmation of his work It will be of interest to scholars of supernatural fiction in general but also to devoted fans of this major figure in weird fiction

A Feeling of Wrongness Joseph Packer, Ethan Stoneman, 2018-11-01 In A Feeling of Wrongness Joseph Packer and Ethan Stoneman confront the rhetorical challenge inherent in the concept of pessimism by analyzing how it is represented in an eclectic range of texts on the fringes of popular culture from adult animated cartoons to speculative fiction Packer and Stoneman explore how narratives such as True Detective Rick and Morty Final Fantasy VII Lovecraftian weird fiction and the pop ideology of transhumanism are better suited to communicate pessimistic affect to their fans than most carefully argued philosophical treatises and polemics They show how these popular nondiscursive texts successfully circumvent the typical defenses against pessimism identified by Peter Wessel Zapffe as distraction isolation anchoring and sublimation They twist genres upend common tropes and disturb conventional narrative structures in a way that catches their audience off guard resulting in belief without cognition a more rhetorically effective form of pessimism than philosophical pessimism While philosophers and polemicists argue for pessimism in accord with the inherently optimistic structures of expressive thought or rhetoric Packer and Stoneman show how popular texts are able to communicate their pessimism in ways that are paradoxically freed from the restrictive tools of optimism A Feeling of Wrongness thus presents uncharted rhetorical possibilities for narrative making visible the rhetorical efficacy of alternate ways and means of persuasion Writing Short Stories Ailsa Cox,2007-05-07
