

Of Brendan Behan's thrilling and explosive Borstal Boy, see us write:

"... dynamic, high-spirited, funny, tender, compassionate, and intelligent... Mr. Behan is an gifted storyteller. He is a highly sensitive, craftsmanlike, accomplished writer."

John Wicks in the New York Times

"... remarkable and marvellous... the voice of a man who will not be killed."

Cathie Ward

"When you want to notice the first letter words, you become aware that behind them is a disconcerting immediacy and the awareness of an author, and at the end you are left with an impression that is... satisfying and inspiring."

Frank O'Connor in the Chicago Tribune

"The book is written without great literary pretensions; it is far less likely than has been assumed, it is not quite as funny as the author imagines, and without doubt is the most important book of its kind to be published this century."

Eric Partridge

"... surely every one who has been troubled with such a common-sense understanding of prison and discipline..."
