Remembering the Cultural Geographies of a Childhood Home Peter Hughes Jachimik, 2016-04-08 Using an innovative auto ethnographic approach to investigate the otherness of the places that make up the childhood home and its neighbourhood in relation to memory derived and memory imbued cultural geographies Remembering the Cultural Geographies of a Childhood Home is concerned with childhood spaces and children's perspectives of those spaces and consequentially with the personalised locations that make up the childhood family home and its immediate surroundings such as the garden the street etc Whilst this book is primarily structured by the author's memories of living in his own Welsh childhood home during the 1970s that is the auto ethnographic framework it is as much about living anywhere amid the remembered cultural remnants of the past as it is immersing oneself in cultural geographies of the here and now As a result Remembering the Cultural Geographies of a Childhood Home is part of the ongoing pursuit by cultural geographers to provide a personal exploration of the pluralities of shared landscapes whereby such an engagement with space and place aid our construction of cognitive maps of meaning that in turn manifest themselves as both individual and collective cultural experiences Furthermore touching upon our co habiting of ghost topologies Remembering the Cultural Geographies of a Childhood Home also encourages a critical exploration of children's spirituality amid the haunted cultural and geographical spaces and places of a house and its neighbourhood the cellar hallway parlour stairs bedroom attic shops cemeteries and so on Powys Checklist & Readers' Guide Alan Howe, 1996 Everybody's, 1928 Delineations of the North Western Division of the County of Somerset, and of Its Antediluvian Bone Caverns, with a Geological Sketch of the District John Rutter, 1829 The Universal Magazine of Knowledge and Pleasure, 1777 Pop Goes the Decade Kevin L. Ferguson, 2019-09-03 Popular culture in the 1990s often primarily reflected millennial catastrophic anxieties The world was tightening speeding up and becoming more dangerous and dangerously connected Surely it was only a matter of time before it all came crashing down Pop Goes the Decade The Nineties explains the American 1990s for all readers The book strives to be widely representative of 1990s culture including the more obvious nostalgic versions of the decade as well as focused discussions of representations of minority populations during the decade that are often overlooked This book covers a wide variety of topics to show the decade in its richness music television film literature sports technology and more It includes an introductory timeline and background section followed by a lengthy Exploring Popular Culture section and concludes with a brief series of essays further contextualizing the controversial and influential aspects of the decade This organization allows readers both a wide exposure to the variety of experiences from the decade as well as a more focused approach to aspects of the 1990s that are still resonant today Child Life, 1913 The Erosion of Childhood Lionel Rose, 2002-09-11 First published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Everybody's Magazine, 1929 Images of the British Railway Landscape David Goodyear, 2022-05-05 A collection of striking and evocative photography capturing the interplay of trains and the spaces that surround them David Goodyear's approach to railway photography has always been to capture the context of the railway within the landscape in which it finds itself The railway train itself embraces each scene providing the soul and atmosphere where it may dominate or be dominated by the landscape in which it is portrayed alongside the special manner through which it expresses its very character The landscape expresses the train as much as the train expresses the landscape The magnificence and splendor of a railway viaduct such as that at St Germans or Brunel's engineering masterpiece of the Royal Albert Bridge makes a statement of the railway within the location it is placed The train crossing the viaduct finds itself enveloped by the architecture of the viaduct and yet characterizes the very function for which the viaduct was built Steam locomotives always bring a very special sense of mood and movement to a railway landscape but a modern train can also contribute its own soul to the landscape in which the railway participates Diesel and electric trains possess their own appeal and character such as through an eye catching livery that conveys a sense of stage appearance on a scene where the aesthetic of the passing train is expressed alongside the location or architecture embracing it Inspirational scenery big skies and brooding hills or a patchwork of color in springtime fields can instill a sense of admiration for beauty in nature through which the train passes Equally expressive are sunlight and shadows and the quality of light through different seasons The author lives in an area with access to many such awe inspiring vistas to explore within Devon and Cornwall Join him on a series of journeys in this collection of his extraordinary photography The Old and Young Lands Robert C. Russell,1916 Scenes from an Erratic Life Bryan Strange,2006 Young People, Media, and Nostalgia Rodrigo Muñoz-González,2024-10-18 This book explores how Latin American young people engage with nostalgia and grasp a sense of nostalgic representations of the 1970s and 1980s through contemporary media Based on ethnographic fieldwork conducted in Costa Rica this book analyses how young audiences make sense of nostalgic representations of transnational pasts thus creating a link between media reception practices and the engagement with broader social cultural economic and political structures It also brings to the fore new insights concerning the role media has in fostering senses of national memory by highlighting the key role of everyday media engagements in comprehending the past This comprehensive empirical study will be of interest to scholars researchers and students of media and communications studies Latin American studies sociology digital culture memory studies social and cultural anthropology youth studies cultural studies and readers interested in popular culture television and cinema
