of Lewes that the three Scenes first appeared in John Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine 1 He submitted the first story The Sad Fortunes of the Reverend Amos Barton on 6 November 1856 At first it appeared anonymously at Lewes insistence I am not at liberty to reveal the veil of anonymity even as regards social position Be pleased therefore to keep the whole secret Public and professional curiosity was not to be suppressed however and on 5 February 1857 the author's identity was revealed to Blackwood's Whatever may be the success of my stories I shall be resolute in preserving my incognito and accordingly I subscribe myself best and most sympathising of editors Yours very truly George Eliot For the settings of the stories Eliot drew on her Warwickshire childhood Chilvers Coton became Shepperton Arbury Hall became Cheverel Manor and its owner Sir Roger Newdigate Sir Christopher Cheverel Nuneaton became Milby Shepperton Church described in detail in The Sad Fortunes of the Reverend Amos Barton is recognisably that at Chilvers Coton Further the scandal attached to the curate of Chilvers Coton whose wife was an intimate friend of the young Mary Ann Evans mother became the story of Amos Barton Likewise Janet's Repentance was largely based on events that took place in Nuneaton when the young Mary Anne Evans was at school and which were recounted to her by her friend and mentor Maria Lewis Mr Tryan is an idealised version of the evangelical curate John Edmund Jones who died when Evans was aged twelve the Dempsters seem to have been based on the lawyer J W Buchanan and his wife Nancy Tryan's main area of concern Paddiford Common hardly recognisable as a common at all is similarly based on a real life location Stockingford

George Eliot and Nineteenth-Century Psychology Michael Davis,2016-12-05 In his study of Eliot as a psychological novelist Michael Davis examines Eliot s writings in the context of a large volume of nineteenth century scientific writing about the mind Eliot Davis argues manipulated scientific language in often subversive ways to propose a vision of mind as both fundamentally connected to the external world and radically isolated from and independent of that world In showing the alignments between Eliot s work and the formulations of such key thinkers as Herbert Spencer Charles Darwin T H Huxley and G H Lewes Davis reveals how Eliot responds both creatively and critically to contemporary theories of mind as she explores such fundamental issues as the mind body relationship the mind in evolutionary theory the significance of reason and emotion and consciousness Davis also points to important parallels between Eliot s work and new and future developments in psychology particularly in the work of William James In Middlemarch for example Eliot demonstrates more clearly than either Lewes or James the way the conscious self is shaped by language Davis concludes by showing that the complexity of mind which Eliot expresses through her imaginative use of scientific language takes on a potentially theological significance His book suggests a new trajectory for scholars exploring George Eliot s representations of the self in the context of science society and religious faith
