Scenes From The Secret Garden Little Brown Notebook:

Murder in the Secret Garden Ellery Adams, 2016-08-02 Things really go to seed in the newest novel in the New York Times bestselling Book Retreat mysteries There is a hidden garden bordering the grounds of Jane Steward's book-themed resort a garden filled with beautiful but deadly plants such as mandrake and nightshade Tucked away behind ivy-covered walls and accessible only through a single locked door as described in the pages of Frances Hodgson Burnett's classic novel the garden is of special interest to Jane's current group of guests The Medieval Herbalists But when one of them turns up dead Jane must discover whether a member of the group has come to Storyton Hall to celebrate their passion for plant lore or to implement a particularly cruel means for murder With thousands of books at her disposal Jane believes she has the proper materials to solve this deadly problem If she's wrong however she may lose something far more precious than the contents of Storyton's secret library Write All about it Dona Herweck, Dona Rice, 1993 Voices from Captivity

Robert C. Doyle, 1994 Doyle shows that though setting and circumstances may change POW stories share a common structure and are driven by similar themes Capture incarceration isolation propaganda torture capitulation or resistance death spiritual quest escape liberation and repatriation are recurrent key motifs in these narratives Conversations with Rilke Maurice Betz, 2025-07-29 An intimate portrait of Rainer Maria Rilke's life and art in interwar Paris by his friend and translator offering unparalleled insight into the creative process A stunningly written deeply personal biography that's also a master class in the art of translation perfect for fans of Richard Holmes Lydia Davis Kate Briggs and Julian Green From walks in the Luxembourg Garden to letters describing tea with an irascible Tolstoy Rainer Maria Rilke's French translator Maurice Betz enjoyed a rare intimacy with the great poet This book inspired by their time working together on the 1st French translation of Rilke's only novel invites the reader into that friendship offering glimpses of Rilke's creative process and the glittering cultural scene of interwar Paris Betz first came to Rilke as an admirer carrying a book of his poems in his kit bag while serving as a soldier in World War I No other writer meant so much to him and Rilke would come to mean even more once their fruitful partnership began lasting until the poet's death in 1926 Together they spent the spring and summer of 1925 editing Betz's translation of The Notebooks of Malte Laurids Brigge a painstaking process interrupted by companionable walks through the streets of Paris and vivaciously told anecdotes from the poet's starry social world This elegant and poignant look at the great writer's final years drawn from Betz's memories and the letters Rilke sent from his travels across Europe provides a portrait of a brilliant mind an evocation of a lost world and a testament to an enduring friendship Artful Dodgers Marah Gubar, 2010 In this account of the golden age of children's fiction Gubar redefines the phenomenon known as the cult of the child She looks at the works of Lewis Carroll Frances Hodgson Burnett and J M Barrie contending that they reject the simplistic child of nature paradigm in favour of one based on the child as an artful collaborator Madness, Art, and Society Anna Harpin, 2018-01-19 How is madness experienced treated and represented

How might art think around and beyond psychiatric definitions of illness and wellbeing Madness Art and Society engages with artistic practices from theatre and live art to graphic fiction charting a multiplicity of ways of thinking critically with rather than about non normative psychological experience It is organised into two parts Structures psychiatrists institutions treatments illuminates the environments figures and primary models of psychiatric care reconsidering their history and contemporary manifestations through case studies including David Edgar s Mary Barnes and Milos Forman s One Flew Over the Cuckoo s Nest Experiences realities bodies moods promblematizes diagnostic categories and proposes more radically open models of thinking in relation to experiences of madness touching upon works such as Richard Kelly s Donnie Darko and Duncan Macmillan s People Places and Things Reading its case studies as a counter discourse to orthodox psychiatry Madness Art and Society seeks a more nuanced understanding of the plurality of madness in society and in so doing offers an outstanding resource for students and scholars alike
