Rebirth Of The Alpha Luna Queen LiliBeth, 2024-08-14 Ever since she faced her own death Eden Rae has been a heartbroken shadow of the werewolf leader she once was Maybe this is why she rebirths again and again searching for revenge Her soul can't find peace until all those who scold her torn her and in the end killed her will be punished Nothing will stop her from making pay those who stole her future her heritage her life Nothing but why with every new rebirth everything seems more intense And why every time she comes back the bond mate she neglected comes around stronger and stronger The Moon Goddess sent her back to make justice isn't she Or is something else Chapter 1 Kill Her Eden's POV Eden Don't be stupid You think dressing up like a bitch will make me accept you as my MATE A cold voice entered my mind Immediately afterwards I felt a basin of water poured over me and a coolness enveloped me but I still couldn't open my eyes I was so alienated by it all I shouldn't have felt anything because I was dead Dead in my mating ritual which was caused by my husband in conjunction with his MATE As confused as I was I could hear that it wasn't my asshole husband's voice The voice was so clear it wasn't like in a dream Did I come back to life No Impossible there has never been a case like this in the history of werewolves Then who was he Suddenly some painful and unbearable memories entered my mind Flashback Look at them Mark laughs as he grabs my chin and forces me to watch my parents' heads hanging on the walls of our packhouse I am the daughter of Patrick and Isabelle Rae former alpha of Silver Moon Pack and now I am kneeling in front of my boyfriend and my bestfriend Just a moment ago they killed my parents That was so easy Hannah says coming closer to Mark and I feel sick seeing that she is placing her arms around his waist Look Markey she says kissing his earlobe She is shocked she laughs in my nose Should we tell her how stupid she was or let her continue being stupid Yeah how stupid To have trusted these demons by mistake We have been together since we were fifteen Mark tells me Hannah is my fated mate but she being a beta and I being just an omega I couldn't offer her the life she deserves he said as if that was normal But you can my dear friend You were born with so much By what right Hannah said with wide eyes I never knew she was so jealous of me But it doesn't matter she has nothing now does she Honey Markey put his arm around her to comfort her and continued to say What a pity that you are the only DAUGHTER of Alpha Rae you can't inherit Silver Moon Pack Only your mate can So that's what it was all about from the beginning to take over the pack And the whole image is now in front of my mind All his beautiful words He fooled me he and Hannah played me I am on my knees with a sword at my neck and I can't jump at him and kill him but the rage I feel in my chest is growing and growing more and more with every single word he utters Why don't you say anything Do you want to know more Marks mocks me and he signals to Damian Hannah's brother to come closer Tell her Mark commands him as if he already is the Alpha of Silver Moon Pack Tell her how we fooled her And he caresses the top of my head but only for a second because in the next one he pushes me making me fall to the ground You can't blame us for that you know It's all thanks to your own stupidity Damian says Hannah would be a better Luna than you are She would never lose her independence for the sake of a man Just look at you Eden he laughs You are a disgrace It is your fault that your parents died Their blood is on your hands

The Ephemeral History of Perfume Holly Dugan, 2011-09-14 In contrast to the other senses smell has long been thought of as too elusive too fleeting for traditional historical study Holly Dugan disagrees arguing that there are rich accounts documenting how men and women produced consumed and represented perfumes and their ephemeral effects She delves deeply into the cultural archive of olfaction to explore what a sense of smell reveals about everyday life in early modern England In this book Dugan focuses on six important scents incense rose sassafras rosemary ambergris and jasmine She links these smells to the unique spaces they inhabited churches courts contact zones plague ridden households luxury markets and pleasure gardens and the objects used to dispense them This original approach provides a rare opportunity to study how early modern men and women negotiated the environment in their everyday lives and the importance of smell to their daily actions Dugan defines perfume broadly to include spices flowers herbs animal parts trees resins and other ingredients used to produce artificial scents smokes fumes airs balms powders and liquids In researching these Renaissance aromas Dugan uncovers the extraordinary ways now largely lost that people at the time spoke and wrote about smell objects ambered civited expired fetored halited resented and smeeked or were described as breathful embathed endulced gracious halited incensial odorant pulvil redolent and suffite A unique contribution to early modern studies The Ephemeral History of Perfume is an unparalleled study of olfaction in the Renaissance a period in which new scents and important cultural theories about smell were developed Dugan s inspired analysis of a wide range of underexplored sources makes available to scholars a remarkable wealth of information on the topic Perfume on the Page in Nineteenth-Century France Cheryl

Krueger,2023-06-26 Despite long standing assertions that languages including French and English cannot sufficiently communicate the experience of smell much of France s nineteenth century literature has gained praise for its memorable evocation of odours As French perfume was industrialized democratized cosmeticized and feminized in the nineteenth century stories of fragrant scent trails aligned perfume with toxic behaviour and viewed a woman s scent as something alluring but also something to be controlled Drawing on a wealth of resources Perfume on the Page in Nineteenth Century France explores how fiction and related writing on olfaction meet permeate and illuminate one another The book examines medical tracts letters manuscripts posters print advertisements magazine articles perfume manuals etiquette books interviews and encounters with fragrant materials themselves Cheryl Krueger explores how the olfactory language of a novel or poem conveys the distinctiveness of a text its unique relationship to language its style and its ways of engaging the reader its signature scent Shedding light on the French perfume culture that we know today Perfume on the Page in Nineteenth Century France follows the scent trails that ultimately challenge us to read perfume and literature in new ways Sacred

Scents in Early Christianity and Islam Mary Thurlkill,2016-07-26 Medieval scholars and cultural historians have recently turned their attention to the question of smells and what olfactory sensations reveal about society in general and holiness in particular Sacred Scents in Early Christianity and Islam contributes to that conversation explaining how early Christians and Muslims linked the sweet smell of sanctity with ideals of the body and sexuality created boundaries and sacred space and imagined their emerging communal identity Most importantly scent itself transgressive and difficult to control signaled transition and transformation between categories of meaning Christian and Islamic authors distinguished their own fragrant ethical and theological ideals against the stench of oppositional heresy and moral depravity Orthodox Christians ridiculed their stinking Arian neighbors and Muslims denounced the reeking corruption of Umayyad and Abbasid decadence Through the mouths of saints and prophets patriarchal authors labeled perfumed women as existential threats to vulnerable men and consigned them to enclosed private space for their protection as well as society's At the same time theologians praised both men and women who purified and transformed their bodies into aromatic offerings to God Both Christian and Muslim pilgrims venerated sainted men and women with perfumed offerings at tombstones indeed Christians and Muslims often worshipped together honoring common heroes such as Abraham Moses and Jonah Sacred Scents begins by surveying aroma's quotidian functions in Roman and pre-Islamic cultural milieus within homes temples poetry kitchens and medicines Existing scholarship tends to frame scent as something available only to the wealthy or elite however perfumes spices and incense wafted through the lives of most early Christians and Muslims It ends by examining both traditions' views of Paradise identified as the archetypal Garden and source of all perfumes and sweet smells Both Christian and Islamic texts explain Adam and Eve's profound grief at losing access to these heavenly aromas and celebrate God's mercy in allowing earthly remembrances Sacred scent thus prompts humanity's grief for what was lost and the yearning for paradisiacal transformation still to come

Eden's Endemics Elizabeth Callaway, 2020-08-04 In the past thirty years biodiversity has become one of the central organizing principles through which we understand the nonhuman environment Its deceptively simple definition as the variation among living organisms masks its status as a hotly contested term both within the sciences and more broadly In Eden's Endemics Elizabeth Callaway looks to cultural objects novels memoirs databases visualizations and poetry that depict many species at once to consider the question of how we narrate organisms in their multiplicity Touching on topics ranging from seed banks to science fiction to bird watching Callaway argues that there is no set generally accepted way to measure biodiversity Westerners tend to conceptualize it according to one or more of an array of tropes rooted in colonial history such as the Lost Eden Noah's Ark and Tree of Life imagery These conceptualizations affect what kinds of biodiversities are prioritized for protection While using biodiversity as a way to talk about the world aims to highlight what is most valued in nature it can produce narratives that reinforce certain power differentials with real life consequences for conservation projects Thus the choices made when portraying biodiversity impact what is visible what is visceral and what is unquestioned common sense about the patterns of life on Earth

Scents and Sensibility Catherine Maxwell, 2017-10-20 This lively accessible book is the first to explore Victorian literature through scent and perfume presenting an extensive range of well known and unfamiliar texts in intriguing and imaginative new ways that make us re think literature's relation with the senses Concentrating on aesthetic and decadent authors Scents and Sensibility introduces a rich selection of poems essays and fiction exploring these texts with reference to both the little known cultural history of perfume use and the appreciation of natural fragrance in Victorian Britain It shows how scent and perfume are used to convey not merely moods and atmospheres but the nuances of the aesthete or decadent's carefully cultivated identity personality or sensibility A key theme is the emergence of the olfactif the cultivated individual with a refined sense of smell influentially represented by the poet and critic Algernon Charles Swinburne who is emulated by a host of canonical and less well known aesthetic and decadent successors such as Walter Pater Edmund Gosse John Addington Symonds Lafcadio Hearn Michael Field Oscar Wilde Arthur Symonds Mark Andr Raffalovich Theodore Wratislaw and A Mary F Robinson This book explores how scent and perfume pervade the work of these authors in many different ways signifying such diverse things as style atmosphere influence sexuality sensibility spirituality refinement individuality the expression of love and poetic creativity and the aura of personality dandyism modernity and memory A coda explores the contrasting twentieth century responses of Virginia Woolf and Compton Mackenzie to the scent of Victorian literature
