School Based Clinics And Other Critical Issues In Public Education:

School Based Clinics Barrett L. Mosbacker, 1987 The Facts on Sex Education John Ankerberg, John Weldon, 2011-05-04 Skillfully documents the data for parents the values neutral philosophy of education Planned Parenthood abstinence based programs that work In an age when sex can maim kill parents teachers pastors must learn to evaluate sex education programs and respond in an informed effective manner Critical Issues in American Health Care Delivery and Financing Policy, 1991 School-based Clinics that Work Jane Konhaus Martin, 1994 Waves of Rancor Robert L. Hilliard, Michael C. Keith, 2016-07-01 The airwaves in America are being used by armed militias conspiracy theorists survivalists the religious right white supremacists neo Nazis and other radical groups to reach millions with their messages of hate and fear Waves of Rancor examines the origin nature and impact of right wing electronic media including radio television cable the internet and even music CDs Hearing on the Impact of Health Care Reform on Schools United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Select Education and Civil Rights, 1994 These hearing transcripts present testimony concerning the impact of proposed health care reforms on American elementary and secondary schools The hearing focused on how the proposed Health Security Act would affect and benefit schools and how American schools can assist in realizing the objectives of the Act Much of the testimony was presented by Clinton Administration officials and representatives of education and health organizations who support the act Testimony was heard from 1 U S Surgeon General M Joycelyn Elders 2 Thomas W Payzant assistant secretary for elementary and secondary education U S Department of Education 3 the head of the New York s United Federation of Teachers union 4 the secretary treasurer of the National Education Association 5 the vice president of the National School Boards Association 6 an associate school district superintendent 7 the director of the Vermont Department of Maternal and Child Health 8 the executive director of the National School Health Education Coalition 9 the executive director of the National Association of State Boards of Education 10 the American Heart Association 11 the American Association of University Women 12 a professor from George Washington University and 13 a doctor MDM Black Education Willy DeMarcell Smith, Eva Wells Chunn, 2017-07-28 This highly focused collection of papers commissioned by the National Urban League offers a candid and courageous portrait of black education in transition This is a period as the editors note in their opening remarks that is characterized by a huge shift from federal responsibility for minority education to authority and autonomy being lodged at the local government level Further many institutions that once worked well no longer do so Many ambitious social programs and policies that originally promised much have been abandoned have failed or just faded away Pivotal to these times and changes is the question of the extent to which the American educational system has been or still is capable of being responsive to incorporating and even instigating equity and excellence for black Americans This volume asks the hard questions is the educational system geared up for the maintenance of anything other than mainstream values can it adapt to minority youth requirements when why and how do educational policies of majorities and minorities clash How are priorities to be established on the basis of wealth or need The legal statutes and administrative enforcement of equal educational opportunities are explored in depth and with a deep compassion for all parties involved Schools and the Health of Children Jennie J. Kronenfeld,2000 With school budgets seeming to be inexorably contracting and with welfare reform looming the future of school health programs is both important and uncertain Jennie Jacobs Kronenfeld begins by clearly defining the key issues in the debate and outlining the history of school health programs She then turns to more contemporary examples of school health care delivery with a special emphasis on the Arizona model crucial due to its being the first state to go to a managed care Medicaid program Finally she theorizes on the likely future of school health care in the light of proposed changes to Medicaid and other welfare initiatives Schools and the Health of Children will be of great interest to scholars and professionals in the area of public health educational administration as well as social work and public policy Resources in Education ,2001-04 Community Schools in Action Joy G. Dryfoos,Jane Quinn,Carol

Barkin,2005-03-24 A community school differs from other public schools in important ways it is generally open most of the time governed by a partnership between the school system and a community agency and offers a broad array of health and social services It often has an extended day before and after school features parent involvement programs and works for community enrichment How should such a school be structured How can its success be measured Community Schools in Action Lessons from a Decade of Practice presents the Children s Aid Society s CAS approach to creating community schools for the 21st century CAS began this work more than a decade ago and today operates thirteen such schools in three low income areas of New York City Through a technical assistance center operated by CAS hundreds of other schools across the country and the world are adapting this model Based on their own experiences working with community schools the contributors to the volume supply invaluable information about the selected program components They describe how and why CAS started its community school initiative and explain how CAS community schools are organized integrated with the school system sustained and evaluated The book also includes several contributions from experts outside of CAS a city superintendent an architect and the director of the Coalition for Community Schools Co editors Joy Dryfoos an authority on community schools and Jane Quinn CAS s Assistant Executive Director of Community Schools have teamed up with freelance writer Carol Barkin to provide commentary linking the various components together For those interested in transforming their schools into effective child and family centered institutions this book provides a detailed road map For those concerned with educational and social policy the book offers a unique example of research based action that has significant implications for our society Strategy Development Workshop for Public Education on Weight an Obesity, September 24-25, 1992 ,1994

The Politics of Youth, Sex, and Health Care in American Schools Marvin D Feit,Barbara A Rienzo,2014-04-04 Examine school based health clinics and the political considerations and strategies that can help them succeed The Politics of Youth Sex and Health Care in American Schools reveals the history and political dynamics involved in building and sustaining an important innovation in the way health care services are delivered to America s youth the school based health clinic These clinics provide vital health services including crucial yet controversial reproductive services to youth In addition to analyzing the nature and extent of the political barriers facing school based clinics this vital book describes the strategies that have proven most effective in overcoming them This essential book begins with an overview of the existing literature on the history and provision of health care for youth Then it presents the results of a study that utilized a two pronged approach a nationwide survey of clinic administrators supplemented with aggregate data and intensive case studies of five representative locales By combining the quantitative data from the national survey with the more qualitative information gleaned from the case study field work The Politics of Youth Sex and Health Care in American Schools can deliver broad yet accurate generalizations as well as detailed interpretation of the authors findings This informative and insightful volume explores the ways that school based health clinics SBHCs have evolved confronted opposition and grown day to day issues that SBHCs face including inadequate funding lack of parental involvement unsupportive teachers and schools staffing training issues cultural issues and more sources of opposition to SBHCs including fundamentalist Protestants Black Evangelicals Catholics and conservative parent groups ways to establish successful school health care reforms issues and recommendations for SBHCs in the future To date there have been very few empirical studies of the politics of school health or of the provision of sexuality related health services for youth The greatest depth and breadth of information you can find on the subject is here in The Politics of Youth Sex and Health Care in American Schools Global Clinical Legal Education Jeff Giddings,2025-01-28 This book explores the distinctive nature of clinical legal education in a range of global contexts The emergence of law school based clinical legal education has been recognised as a major innovation in modern legal education At its best it integrates the academic rigour of university based learning with the practical ethical and social justice insights that come from structured work with clients This book examines what makes clinic different from other aspects of legal education and how it differs from experiential learning in other disciplines particularly in its emphasis on social justice It provides an analysis of various models that support student learning in community settings from 66 contributors across the globe Learning goals teaching methods focus areas forms of student involvement engagement with lawyers and the challenges faced are all identified as important in giving clinical legal education its local flavour Exploring the role of technology in clinic and the significant growth in technology based clinics the book reviews the ways in which clinics harness technology to serve diverse client communities and extend the global reach of clinical legal education particularly in light of the ongoing COVID 19 pandemic This book will be of particular interest to researchers in the fields of clinical legal education and the use of emerging technologies in legal education

Handbook of Health Promotion and Disease Prevention James M. Raczynski, Ralph J. DiClemente, 2013-11-11 The idea for this volume developed when we were co teaching our introductory master s level course in the Department of Health Behavior at the UAB School of Public Health a core course for all masters of public health students in the school regardless of the department in which they enrolled or the focus of their studies Hence in the course we sought to provide both students in our department as well as those who might not ever again take a health behavior course with an overview that would both truly represent the field and substantially provide educational research and public health practice benefits This was and continues to be a challenge with the diversity of students specializing in fields that include not only health behavior but also bio statistics environmental health sciences epidemiology health care organization and policy international health and maternal and child health The course that we taught attempted to provide the students with an overview of some of the important health promotion and disease prevention theories methods and policy issues while reviewing applications of these theories and methods to promoting health and preventing disease through a variety of channels for a variety of disease outcomes and among a variety of populations Since no one text provided this variety of readings we depended on readings and guest lectures
