School Among The Ruins Poems 2000 2004:

The School Among the Ruins: Poems 2000-2004 Adrienne Rich, 2006-01-17 Trust Rich a clarion poet of conscience to get the fractured timbre of the times just right Booklist starred review In this new collection Adrienne Rich confronts dislocations and upheavals in the United States at the beginning of the twenty first century The title poem in a young schoolteacher's voice evokes the lessons that children Not of course here learn amid violence and hatred when the whole town flinches blood on the undersole thickening to glass Usonian Journals 2000 intercuts faces and conversations building to a dystopic utopic vision Throughout these fierce and musical poems Rich traces the imprint of a public crisis on individual experience personal lives bent by collective realities language itself held to account Adrienne Rich's Later Poetry Alec Marsh, 2024-12-12 Reorienting understandings of Adrienne Rich's later work through her interest in Marx and Marxist politics this book engages with this overlooked part of her oeuvre through considerations of issues such as race nationhood and gender From 1983 onward after she visited revolutionary Nicaragua until the end of her life Rich's political vision can best be described as Marxist Humanist Until recently very little attention has been paid to Rich's interest in Marx there is no in depth treatment of the effect of Marx's humanistic philosophy on Rich's later work or even on her unwavering but altered dedication to Women's Liberation This book fills this gap showing how Rich's discovery of Marx's humanism affected her poetry In doing so it makes a significant intervention into debates about the direction of American poetics and argues powerfully for a greater consciousness of political engagement through poetry Later Poems Adrienne Rich, 2013 Presents a selection of poetry that draws from twelve volumes of the late author's published work as well as a manuscript posthumously left behind

Adrienne Rich Amy Sickels, 2013 Contains a biography of American poet Adrienne Rich and includes information on her academic life her influences how she disappeared from the world of poetry and her role as a feminist and activist Includes chronology and bibliography "Catch if you can your country's moment" William S. Waddell, 2009-05-05 The eight essays in this collection explore the work of Adrienne Rich one of America's most significant living writers and a poet and a public intellectual with a substantial audience both inside and outside the academy Taken together the essays argue for a shift in the perceived center of gravity of Rich's career from the passionate and eloquent poems of a largely personal feminist awakening from the mid 60s to the early 80s to the equally if differently passionate and eloquent poems of a more broadly public re imagination of our country and its history beginning with her work of the mid 1980s Rich has remained committed to the reconstruction of poetry's place in public as well as private life nationally and globally From varied perspectives accessible to the common reader as well as the specialist the collection addresses Rich's negotiation of the boundary between these public and private spheres and the potential of poetry as a revolutionary medium and alternate epistemology a means as the title expresses it of recovery and regeneration Rich has aimed always as the last lines of her poem Planetarium 1968 have it at the relief of the body and the reconstruction of the mind and this collection works to describe her effort to extend the reach of that healing motive across a continent and a culture In these eight keenly executed essays edited by William Waddell we see Rich finally removing those asbestos gloves once used to handle sizzling political topics Critics in this volume show Adrienne Rich struggling barehanded with changing poetic strategies complex new subject positions and the relations of power and cultural practice in the constitution of history Transformative cartographer of words and perceptions Rich as Waddell argues outlines a method for redefining American space remapping North American culture for the marginalized the repressed and the resistant Waddell's collection celebrates the polyphony of politics and aesthetics in Rich's work shaping for the reader an ethical discourse intensively visible for the first time in volumes such as An Atlas of the Difficult World Poems 1988 1991 but equally present throughout Rich's prose and poetry Mary Lynn Broe Caroline Werner Gannett Professor Rochester Institute of Technology

The Art of Twentieth-Century American Poetry Charles Altieri, 2008-04-15 Written by a leading critic this invigorating introduction to modernist American poetry conveys the excitement that can be generated by a careful reading of modernist poems Encourages readers to identify with the modernists sense of the revolutionary possibilities of their art Embraces four generations of modernist American poets up through to the 1980s Gives readers a sense of the ambitions the disillusionments and the continuities of modernist poetry Includes close readings of particular poems which show how readers can use these works to connect with what concerns them

The Power of Adrienne Rich Hilary Holladay, 2025-04-15 A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice A comprehensive biography of one of the most acclaimed poets of her generation and a face of American feminism New York Times A major American writer thinker and activist Adrienne Rich 1929 2012 transformed herself from a traditional Radcliffe educated lyric poet and married mother of three sons into a path breaking lesbian feminist author of forceful uncompromising prose as well as poetry In doing so she emerged as an architect and exemplar of the feminist movement breaking ranks to denounce the male dominated literary establishment and paving the way for women writers to take their places in the cultural mainstream Drawing on a wealth of unpublished materials including Rich's correspondence and in depth interviews with many people who knew her Hilary Holladay provides a vividly detailed full dimensional portrait of a woman whose work and life continue to challenge and inspire new generations

The Creative Crone Sylvia Henneberg, 2010 Henneberg shows how these writers offer radically different but richly complementary strategies for breaking the silence surrounding age Rich provides an approach to aging so strongly intertwined with other political issues that its complexity may keep us from immediately identifying age as one of her chief concerns On the other hand Sarton's direct treatment of aging sensitizes us to its importance and helps us see its significance in such writings as Rich's

Meanwhile Rich's efforts to politicize age create stimulating contexts for Sarton's work Henneberg explores elements of these writers individual poems that develop themes of aging including imagery and symbol the construction of a persona and the uses of rhythms to reinforce the themes She also includes analyses of their fiction and nonfiction works and draws ideas from age studies by scholars such as Margaret Morganroth Gullette Kathleen Woodward and Thomas Cole From publisher description Why Write Poetry? Jeannine Johnson, 2007 Poets have long been defending poetry in prose and essays by Sidney Shelley and others are a familiar and important part of the Anglo American literary tradition This book identifies and examines a related genre the verse defense of poetry which shares the same impulse that has led to the composition of prose essays namely the desire to protect poetry from its detractors and to promote its value as a vital human endeavor In the last century or so this impulse to engage questions of poetry's value in poems has become increasingly widespread and it has dominated the careers of at least five poets H D Wallace Stevens W H Auden Adrienne Rich and Geoffrey Hill Though these poets espouse very different aesthetic principles they like many of their contemporaries have repeatedly turned to apology in their verse At first glance this seems an odd gesture given that the readers and writers of poetry are those who least need convincing of poetry's worthiness But questioning poetry in verse is a form of lyric introspection that is productive and well suited for a modern poet characterized as one of indifference defense helps these authors make a claim for poetry's cultural relevance as well as for its private profit Jeannine Johnson is a Preceptor in Expository Writing at Harvard University The Best American Poetry 2005 David Lehman, Paul Muldoon, 2007-11-01 This eagerly awaited volume in the celebrated Best American Poetry series reflects the latest developments and represents the last word in poetry today Paul Muldoon the distinguished poet and international literary eminence has selected from a pool of several thousand published candidates the top seventy five poems of the year The all consuming interests of American poetry are the all consuming interests of poetry all over writes Muldoon in his incisive introduction to the volume The Best American Poetry 2005 features a superb company of artists ranging from established masters of the craft such as John Ashbery Adrienne Rich and Charles Wright to rising stars like Kay Ryan Tony Hoagland and Beth Ann Fennelly With insightful comments from the poets elucidating their work and series editor David Lehman's perspicacious foreword addressing the state of the art The Best American Poetry 2005 is indispensable for every poetry enthusiast Discourses That Matter Maria José Canelo, 2013-10-03 How can English and American Studies be instrumental to conceptualizing the deep instability we are presently facing How can they address the coordinates of this instability such as war terrorism the current economic and financial crisis and the consequent myriad forms of deprivation and fear How can they tackle the strategies of de humanization invisibility and the naturalization of inequality and injustice entailed in contemporary discourses This anthology grew out of an awareness of the need to debate the role of English and American Studies both in the present context and in relation to the so called demise of the Humanities Drawing on Judith Butler's rethinking of materiality as the effect of power in her study Bodies That Matter 1993 we locate this collection of essays at the crossroads of discourse and power while we expect the work collected here to highlight the ability of discourses to materialize in or as truth and as such to support or decry particular constituencies Discourses therefore matter to us as products and vehicles of power relations that can be subject to the analytical and interpretative tools of English and American Studies Our idea was to challenge especially young scholars to position their research concerning the ability of their fields to be discourses that matter in the case in point to be critical practices that make an active intervention in current debates By focusing on matters such as language as witness to the world representations of gender race and ethnicity performative discourses exceptionalism and power and interculturality these essays pursue the chance to deepen enlarge and question both literary and cultural phenomena their established critical readings and the strategies deployed in representations Finally English and American Studies in the present collection demonstrate their affiliation to the Humanities by exploring the numerous possibilities offered by their discourses their ability to foster critical thought allowing us to think for and outside ourselves their capacity to test argue and question and their profound imaginative potential

Selected Poems: 1950-2012 Adrienne Rich, 2018-09-11 Sixty years of poems from pioneering writer activist and intellectual Adrienne Rich the Blake of American letters Nadine Gordimer Adrienne Rich was the singular voice of her generation bringing discussions of gender race and class to the forefront of poetical discourse This generous selection from all nineteen of Rich's published poetry volumes encompasses her best known work the clear sighted and passionate feminist poems of the 1970s including Diving into the Wreck Planetarium and The Phenomenology of Anger and offers the full range of her evolution as a poet From poems leading up to her feminist breakthrough through bold later work such as North American Time and Calle Visi n Selected Poems celebrates Rich's prophetic vision as well as the inventiveness that shaped her enduring art

Epic Events Sasha-Mae Eccleston, 2024-12-17 An analysis of ancient Greek and Roman works alongside contemporary literature exploring how these classics shape our understanding of the politics of time in America Ancient Greek and Roman cultures have been privileged as authoritatively timeless throughout American history American leaders capitalize on this privilege when during periods of crisis they allude to these cultures to offer relief to reestablish trust in the status quo and to promote national unity Analyzing texts that also draw on ancient Greek and Roman material to respond to these crises Sasha Mae Eccleston explains how contemporary authors and artists have questioned calls for unity that homogenize disparate experiences and ignore systemic inequality Their engagements with the temporalities of the ancient material reveal how time structures membership in the national community Reading for example Seneca's drama Medea Homer's epics and the verses of Sappho alongside Jesmyn Ward's novel Salvage the Bones or the poetry of Ocean Vuong and Juliana Spahr Eccleston examines the temporal politics of major events and everyday life in the United States Epic Events shows how ancient works that seem to insulate audiences from disaster can actually alert them to the frightening hierarchization of American life Eccleston skillfully weaves together analyses of ancient material and contemporary texts that range from memorials visual art and literature to speeches and public health declarations to bring questions of race class and gender into dialogue with time in thoughtful nuanced and original ways
