Wake Up Counselors! William L. Fibkins, 2013-06-20 Providing individual and group counseling for secondary school students was once a major priority for secondary school counselors However many guidance programs have abandoned this role and counselors have become quasi administrators who spend most of their time scheduling students for classes managing mandated testing programs resolving discipline issues and advising students on college admissions Counseling students on personal and well being issues takes up a very small part of the time In many school districts social workers student assistance counselors and school psychologists have taken over the counseling duties Critical issues are now causing school leaders to consider reorganizing school guidance staff so there is a cadre of counselors trained and charged with the mission of providing individual and group counseling for troubled teens First the number of troubled teens arriving at the schoolhouse door looking for help has exploded Second budget cuts have eliminated or drastically curtailed many of the services of social workers student assistance counselors and psychologists The result Many once open doors for help are now closed and schools counseling services are failing many students parents and educators in need of intervention This book provides a new model in which well trained counselors can once again regain their historic role in counseling troubled teens
