School For Rape The Burmese Military:

School for Rape Betsy Apple, 1998 Account of the Burmese military and sexual violence Myanmar (Burma) since the 1988 Uprising Andrew Selth, 2022-01-24 Updated by popular demand this is the fourth edition of this important bibliography It lists a wide selection of works on or about Myanmar published in English and in hard copy since the 1988 pro democracy uprising which marked the beginning of a new era in Myanmar s modern history There are now 2 727 titles listed They have been written edited translated or compiled by over 2 000 people from many different backgrounds These works have been organized into thirty five subject chapters containing ninety five discrete sections There are also four appendices including a comprehensive reading guide for those unfamiliar with Myanmar or who may be seeking guidance on particular topics This book is an invaluable aid to officials scholars journalists armchair travellers and others with an interest in this fascinating but deeply troubled country Harsh Punishment Sandy Cook, Susanne Davies, 1999-12-22 A pioneering collection of personal accounts from criminal justice scholars practitioners and activists and from current and former prisoners themselves Energy, Governance and Security in Thailand and Myanmar (Burma) Adam Simpson, 2016-04-29 Across the world states are seeking out new and secure supplies of energy but this search is manifesting itself most visibly in Asia where rapid industrialisation in states such as China and India is fomenting a frantic scramble for energy resources Due to entrenched societal inequities and widespread authoritarian governance however the pursuit of national energy security through transnational energy projects has resulted in devastating impacts on the human and environmental security of local populations These effects are particularly evident in both Thailand and Myanmar Burma which located at the crossroads of Asia are increasingly engaged in the cross border energy trade Based on extensive fieldwork and theoretical analysis this ground breaking book proposes a new critical approach to energy and environmental security and explores the important role that both local and transnational environmental movements are playing in the absence of effective and democratic governments in providing activist environmental governance for energy projects throughout the region By comparing the nature of this activism under two very different political regimes it delivers crucial theoretical insights with both academic and policy implications for the sustainable and equitable development of the South s natural resources The Rohingya Crisis Manzoor Hasan, Syed Mansoob Murshed, Priya Pillai, 2022-12-30 This edited volume addresses the broader aspects of the political and social landscape human rights violations accountability and advocacy efforts and humanitarian challenges faced by the Rohingya from Myanmar The work brings together different voices of legal policy and international affairs experts to construct a framework which addresses the complex and nuanced issues comprising the Rohingya crisis Although there is recognition that international legal mechanisms are moving forward more quickly than anticipated these processes do not constitute standalone sustainable solutions Myanmar s myriad political social cohesion development and security challenges are likely to persist even as justice and accountability processes move forward Thus this book project is premised on the consensus that the international community should complement international justice mechanisms by looking toward creative and multi faceted approaches in addition to justice and accountability This timely contribution will be of interest to academics researchers development practitioners and human rights organizations

Maneuvers Cynthia Enloe,2000-02-01 Maneuvers takes readers on a global tour of the sprawling process called militarization With her incisive verve and moxie eminent feminist Cynthia Enloe shows that the people who become militarized are not just the obvious ones executives and factory floor workers who make fighter planes land mines and intercontinental missiles They are also the employees of food companies toy companies clothing companies film studios stock brokerages and advertising agencies Militarization is never gender neutral Enloe claims It is a personal and political transformation that relies on ideas about femininity and masculinity Films that equate action with war condoms that are designed with a camouflage pattern fashions that celebrate brass buttons and epaulettes tomato soup that contains pasta shaped like Star Wars weapons all of these contribute to militaristic values that mold our culture in both war and peace Presenting new and groundbreaking material that builds on Enloe s acclaimed work in Does Khaki Become You and Bananas Beaches and Bases Maneuvers takes an international look at the politics of masculinity nationalism and globalization Enloe ranges widely from Japan to Korea Serbia Kosovo Rwanda Britain Israel the United States and many points in between She covers a broad variety of subjects gays in the military the history of camp followers the politics of women who have sexually serviced male soldiers married life in the military military nurses and the recruitment of women into the military One chapter titled When Soldiers Rape explores the many facets of the issue in countries such as Chile the Philippines Okinawa Rwanda and the United States Enloe outlines the dilemmas feminists around the globe face in trying to craft theories and strategies that support militarized women locally and internationally without unwittingly being militarized themselves She explores the complicated militarized experiences of women as prostitutes as rape victims as mothers as wives as nurses and as feminist activists and she uncovers the maneuvers that military officials and their civilian supporters have made in order to ensure that each of these groups of women feel special and separate

Liberalism and Democracy in Myanmar Roman David,Ian Holliday,2018-11-08 Historic Myanmar elections in November 2015 paved the way for an NLD government led by Aung San Suu Kyi to take office in March 2016 and saw the country deepen its graduated transition away from authoritarian rule Nevertheless military forces that for decades dominated national politics remain privileged in a constitutional framework designed to deliver discipline flourishing democracy In August 2017 the military intensified its campaign of ethnic cleansing of Myanmar s Rohingya Muslim minority and more than 750 000 refugees fled to neighbouring Bangladesh One critical question that now confronts the fifty million people of this Southeast Asian nation is whether their push for greater democracy is strong enough to prevail over the resistance of a powerful military machine and swelling undercurrents of intolerance What are the prospects for liberal democracy in Myanmar This book addresses this question by examining historical conditions constitutionalism popular support for democracy major political actors group relations and tolerance and transitional justice To probe the meaning and purchase of key concepts it presents a rich array of evidence including eighty eight in depth interviews and three waves of surveys and survey experiments conducted by the authors between 2014 and 2018 all of which are triangulated with constitutional and legal texts and reports issued locally and globally The analysis culminates in the concept of limited liberalism which reflects an at times puzzling blend of liberal and illiberal attitudes The book concludes that a weakening of liberal commitments among politicians and citizens alike allied with spreading limited liberal attitudes casts doubt on the prospects for liberal democracy in Myanmar

For Us Surrender Is Out of the Question Mac McClelland, 2010-02-10 The human rights journalist and author of Irritable Hearts A PTSD Love Story shines a light on the Karen refugees fleeing Burma s genocide There s a civil war the world s longest running in fact raging between the Burmese government and ethnic rebels But since Burma is a country nearly shut out from the rest of the world the only footage of the carnage comes via groups of young tough booze loving refugees who run into war zones to collect it And with these refugees is where we find Mac McClelland embedded in her staggering debut For Us Surrender Is Out of the Question McClelland weaves a narrative that is part investigative journalism part popular history and part memoir of a Midwestern twenty something girl living with refugee activists on the Burma Thailand border Driven by the community McClelland is illegally aiding a small group of brave young men and women For Us Surrender Is Out of the Question is an urgent and fascinating look at a weary conflict told by a bright new voice Alternately poignant and raucous angry and heartbreaking McClelland s reporting is very much from the ground up far livelier than we will ever get from the average foreign correspondent Adam Hochschild New York Times bestselling author Any reporting on the notoriously under documented Burmese war is critical reading a page turner like this one is not to be missed San Francisco Magazine Gritty informed passionate McClelland s gonzo sensibility big heart and keen eye for weird details bring this tale of inhuman cruelty and human resilience vividly alive Gary Kamiya cofounder of Salon

Romancing Human Rights Tamara C.

Ho,2015-01-31 When the world thinks of Burma it is often in relation to Nobel laureate and icon Aung San Suu Kyi But beyond her is another world one that complicates the overdetermination of Burma as a pariah state and myths about the high status of Southeast Asian women Highlighting and critiquing this fraught terrain Tamara C Ho s Romancing Human Rights maps Burmese women as real and imagined figures across the twentieth century and into the twenty first century More than a recitation of on the ground facts Ho s groundbreaking scholarship the first monograph to examine Anglophone literature and dynamics of gender and race in relation to Burma brings a critical lens to contemporary literature film and politics through the use of an innovative feminist queer methodology She crosses intellectual boundaries to illustrate how literary and gender analysis can contribute to discourses surrounding and informing human rights and in the process offers a new voice in the debates about representation racialization migration and spirituality Romancing Human Rights demonstrates how Burmese women break out of prisons both real and discursive by writing themselves into being Ho assembles an eclectic archive that includes George Orwell Aung San Suu Kyi critically acclaimed authors Ma Ma Lay and Wendy Law Yone and activist Zoya Phan Her close readings of literature and politicized performances by women in Burma the Burmese diaspora and the United States illuminate their contributions as authors cultural mediators and practitioner citizens Using flexible polyglot rhetorical tactics and embodied performances these authors creatively articulate alter native epistemologies regionally situated knowledges and decolonizing viewpoints that interrogate and destabilize competing transnational hegemonies such as U S moral imperialism and Asian militarized dictatorship Weaving together the fictional and non fictional Ho s gendered analysis makes Romancing Human Rights a unique cultural studies project that bridges postcolonial studies area studies and critical race ethnic studies a must read for those with an interest in fields of literature Asian and Asian American studies history politics religion and women s and gender studies

Crimes in Archival Form Prof. Dr. Ken MacLean,2022-03-01 Crimes in Archival Form explores the many ways in which human rights facts are produced rather than found Using Myanmar as his case study Ken MacLean examines the fact finding practices of a human rights group two cross border humanitarian agencies an international law clinic and a global NGO led campaign Foregrounding fact finding in critical yet constructive ways prompts long overdue conversations about the possibilities and limits of human rights documentation as a mode of truth seeking Such conversations are particularly urgent in an era when the perpetrators of large scale human rights violations exploit misinformation weaponize disinformation and employ outright falsehoods including deepfakes to undermine the credibility of those who document abuses and demand accountability in the court of public opinion and in courts of law MacLean compels practitioners and scholars alike to be more transparent about how human rights fact production works why it is important and when its use should prompt concern Abortion in Asia Andrea Whittaker, 2010-07-01 The issue of abortion forces a confrontation with the effects of poverty and economic inequalities local moral worlds and the cultural and social perceptions of the female body gender and reproduction Based on extensive original field research this provocative collection presents case studies from Thailand Cambodia Burma Vietnam Bangladesh Indonesia and India It includes powerful insight into the conditions and hard choices faced by women and the circumstances surrounding unplanned pregnancies It explores the connections among poverty violence barriers to access and the politics and strategies involved in abortion law reform The contributors analyze these issues within the broader conflicts surrounding women's status gender roles religion nationalism and modernity as well as the global politics of reproductive health The Burma Spring Rena Pederson, 2015-01-15 Award winning journalist and former State Department speechwriter Rena Pederson brings to light fresh details about the charismatic Nobel Peace Prize winner Aung San Suu Kyi the inspiration for Burma's now Myanmar first steps towards democracy Suu Kyi's party will be a major contender in the 2015 elections a revolutionary breakthrough after years of military dictatorship Using exclusive interviews with Suu Kyi since her release from fifteen years of house arrest as well as recently disclosed diplomatic cables Pederson uncovers new facets to Suu Kyi's extraordinary story The Burma Spring will also surprise readers by revealing the extraordinary steps taken by First Lady Laura Bush to help Suu Kyi and also how former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton injected new momentum into Burma's democratic rebirth Pederson provides a never before seen view of the harrowing hardships the people of Burma have endured and the fiery political atmosphere in which Suu Kyi's has fought a life and death struggle for liberty in this fascinating part of the world Violence Against Women in Asian Societies Linda Rae Bennett, Lenore Manderson, 2013-09-13 Violence against women is a violation of women's human rights and a priority public health issue It is endemic worldwide While much has been written about it in industrialized societies there has been relatively little attention given to such violence in Asian societies This book addresses the structural and interpersonal violences to which women are subject both under conditions of conflict and disruption and where civil society is relatively ordered It explores sexual violence and coercion domestic violence and violence within the broader community and the state avoiding sensationalised accounts of so called cultural practices in favour of nuanced explorations of violences as experienced in Cambodia Thailand

Global Perspectives on Inclusive

Teacher Education Rice, Bethany M., 2019-03-01 Inclusive teacher preparation varies greatly in format and practice yet programs grapple with the same underlying challenges which practices work and where do they work As children with disabilities are increasingly being included in schools it is essential that guidance is put into place on how best to adapt inclusive practices into the classroom and create new practices based on the cultural context Global Perspectives on

Inclusive Teacher Education summarizes existing research on inclusive practices globally while presenting emerging research and opportunities for cementing change in inclusive teacher education locally including examples of how inclusive practices are integrated in and adapted to diverse cultural contexts Covering topics that include critical pedagogy religious schooling and teacher education this publication is designed for curriculum developers instructional designers administrators higher education faculty educators policymakers and students Routledge Handbook of Masculinities, Conflict, and Peacebuilding Henri Myrtilinen, Chloé Lewis, Heleen Touquet, Philipp Schulz, Farooq Yousaf, Elizabeth Laruni, 2025-01-30 This handbook engages with and broadens current debates on men and masculinities in conflict and peacebuilding Through an expansive range of chapters across a unique array of geographical settings the volume shatters prevailing assumptions about men's relationship to conflict and its wake Situated across scholarship policy and practice the contributions offer new possibilities for a more complex and complete picture of the gendered tapestries of conflict peace and the spaces in between

The handbook combines feminist intersectional relational decolonial and queer perspectives on the conceptualisation of masculinities in conflict and peacebuilding This approach provides us with the tools to go beyond direct physical conflict related violence to examine less visible forms of violence and power as well as other ways in which masculinities interact with conflict and peace In doing so the book permits a multi faceted view of men's roles relationships vulnerabilities and non violent agencies in conflict and peacebuilding across scholarship policy and practice This book will be of much interest to students of gender masculinities peace and conflict studies and international relations Chapter 1 3 9 13 and 30 of this book
