Simultaneously Markel delves into the mysterious health symptoms Darwin developed combing the literature to emerge with a cogent diagnosis of a case that has long fascinated medical historians The result is a colorful portrait of the man his friends and enemies and his seminal work which resonates to this day

Out There Somewhere Simon J. Ortiz,2022-08-30 He has been out there somewhere for a while now a poet at large in America Simon Ortiz one of our finest living poets has been a witness participant and observer of interactions between the Euro American cultural world and that of his Native American people for many years In this collection of haunting new work he confronts moments and instances of his personal past and finds redemption in the wellspring of his culture A writer known for deeply personal poetry Ortiz has produced perhaps his most personal work to date In a collage of journal entries free verse poems and renderings of poems in the Acoma language he draws on life experiences over the past ten years recalling time spent in academic conferences and writers colonies jails and detox centers to convey something of the personal and cultural history of dislocation As an American Indian artist living at times on the margins of mainstream culture Ortiz has much to tell about the trials of alcoholism poverty displacement But in the telling he affirms the strength of Native culture even under the most adverse conditions and confirms the sustaining power of Native beliefs and connections With our hands we know the sacred earth With our spirits we know the sacred sky Like many of his fellow Native Americans Ortiz has been out there somewhere Portland and San Francisco Freiburg Germany and Martinique away from his original homeland culture and community Yet as these works show he continues to be absolutely connected socially and culturally to Native identity We insist that we as human cultural beings must always have this connection he writes because it is the way we maintain a Native sense of existence Drawing on this storehouse of places times and events Out There Somewhere is a rich fusion taking readers into the heart and soul of one of today's most exciting and original American poets

Pet Projects Elizabeth Young,2019-12-17 In Pet Projects Elizabeth Young joins an analysis of the representation of animals in nineteenth century fiction taxidermy and the visual arts with a first person reflection on her own scholarly journey Centering on Margaret Marshall Saunders a Canadian woman writer once famous for her animal novels and incorporating Young's own experience of a beloved animal's illness this study highlights the personal and intellectual stakes of a pet project of cultural criticism Young assembles a broad archive of materials beginning with Saunders's novels and widening outward to include fiction nonfiction photography and taxidermy She coins the term first dog voice to describe the narrative technique of novels such as Saunders's Beautiful Joe written in the first person from the perspective of an animal She connects this voice to contemporary political issues revealing how animal fiction such as Saunders's reanimates nineteenth century writing about both feminism and slavery Highlighting the prominence of taxidermy in the late nineteenth century she suggests that Saunders transforms taxidermic techniques in surprising ways that provide new forms of authority for women Young adapts Freud to analyze literary representations of mourning by and for animals and she examines how Canadian writers including Saunders use animals to explore race ethnicity and national identity Her wide ranging investigation incorporates twenty first as well as nineteenth century works of literature and culture including recent art using taxidermy and contemporary film Throughout she reflects on the tools she uses to craft her analyses examining the state of scholarly fields from feminist criticism to animal studies With a lively first person voice that highlights experiences usually concealed in academic studies by scholarly discourse such as detours zigzags roadblocks and personal experience this unique and innovative book will delight animal enthusiasts and academics in the fields of animal studies gender studies American studies and Canadian studies Report Botanical Society and Exchange Club of the British Isles, 1928 List of members
