Eileen Gray and the Design of Sapphic Modernity Jasmine Rault, 2017-07-05 The first book length feminist analysis of Eileen Gray's work Eileen Gray and the Design of Sapphic Modernity Staying In argues that Gray's unusual architecture and design as well as its history of abuse and neglect emerged from her involvement with cultures of sapphic modernism. Bringing together a range of theoretical and historical sources from architecture and design communication and media to gender and sexuality studies Jasmine Rault shows that Gray shared with many of her female contemporaries a commitment to designing spaces for sexually dissident modernity. This volume examines Gray's early lacquer work and Romaine Brooks' earliest nude paintings Gray's first built house E 1027 in relation to Radclyffe Hall and her novel The Well of Loneliness and Gray's private house Tempe nbsp Pailla with Djuna Barnes' Nightwood. While both female sexual dissidence and modernist architecture were reduced to rigid identities through mass media women such as Gray Brooks Hall and Barnes resisted the clarity of such identities with opaque non communicative aesthetics Rault demonstrates that by defying the modern imperative to publicity clarity and identity Gray helped design a sapphic modernity that cultivated the dynamism of uncertain bodies and unfixed pleasures which depended on staying in rather than coming out.

their creative endeavors In the 1940s and 50s the Americans raised the level of pictorial innovation beginning most notably with Pollock and his Jung inspired concept of action Golding makes a powerful case that at its best and most profound abstract painting is heavily imbued with meaning and content Through a blend of biography art analysis and cultural history Paths to the Absolute offers remarkable insights into how a sense of purpose is achieved in painting and how abstractionism engaged with the intellectual currents of its time Please note All images in this ebook are presented in black and white and have been reduced in size
