A Critical Appraisal of Karl Olivecrona's Legal Philosophy Torben Spaak,2014-06-17 This book offers a critical appraisal of Karl Olivecrona s legal philosophy Based on Olivecrona s critique of the view that law has binding force the analysis of the concept and function of a legal rule and the idea that law is a matter of organized force the book argues that Olivecrona s legal philosophy is a unique contribution to twentieth century legal philosophy It shows how Olivecrona s philosophy can be used in the assessment of contemporary theories of law such as those put forward by Hart Raz Dworkin and Alexy In addition the book argues that Olivecrona s various discussions of theories defended by key people in the history of legal and political philosophy are highly interesting contributions They not only increase our understanding of the legal and political philosophy of previous generations but also enhances our insight into legal philosophical questions that remain with us today

A Scientific Theology: Nature Alister E.

McGrath,2001 A Scientific Theology is a groundbreaking work of systematic theology in three volumes Nature Reality and

Theory Written by one of the world s best known theologians these volumes together represent the most extended and systematic exploration of the relation between Christian theology and the natural sciences yet produced Thoroughly ecumenical this will be a significant work for Catholic Orthodox Protestant and evangelical readers The work is marked throughout by a sustained and critical engagement with the history and philosophy of the natural sciences and by a passionate commitment to the legitimacy of theology as an academic discipline The Routledge Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophy Dermot Moran,2008-10-27 Featuring twenty two chapters written by leading international scholars this major publication covers all the key figures and movements from Frege to Derrida and philosophy of language to feminist philosophy Platonistic and Disenchanting Theories of Ethics Hugh Storer Chandler,2007 Original Scholarly Monograph Consciousness and the Existence of God J.P. Moreland,2010-04-26 In Consciousness and the Existence of God JP Morelandargues that the existence of finite irreducible consciousness or its regular law like correlation with physical states provides evidence for the existence of God Considering Searle s contingent correlation O Connor s emergent necessitation and Nagel s mysterian naturalism Moreland concludes that these versions of naturalism should be rejected in favor of what he callsthe Argument from Consciousness The Blackwell Companion to Natural Theology William Lane Craig,J. P. Moreland,2012-02-27 With the help of in depth essays from some of the world s leading philosophers The Blackwell Companion to Natural Theology explores the nature and existence of God through human reason and evidence from the natural world Provides in depth and cutting edge treatment of natural theology s main arguments Includes contributions from first rate philosophers well known for their work on the relevant topics Updates relevant arguments in light of the most current state of the art philosophical and scientific discussions Stands in useful contrast and opposition to the arguments of the new atheists The Routledge Companion to Religion and Science James W. Haag,Gregory R. Peterson,Michael L. Spezio,2012-03-12 The field of religion and science is one of the most exciting and dynamic areas of research today This Companion brings together an outstanding team of scholars to explore the ways in which science intersects with the major religions of the world and religious naturalism The collection provides an overview of the field and also indicates ways in which it is developing Its multicultural breadth and scientific rigor on topics that are and will be compelling issues in the first part of the twenty first century and beyond will be welcomed by students and scholars alike

Darwin's Pious Idea Conor Cunningham,2010-12-03 According to British scholar Conor Cunningham the debate today between religion and evolution has been hijacked by extremists on one side stand fundamentalist believers who reject evolution outright on the opposing side are fundamentalist atheists who claim that Darwin s theory rules out the possibility of God Both sides are dead wrong argues Cunningham who is at once a Christian and a firm believer in the theory of evolution In Darwin s Pious Idea Cunningham puts forth a trenchant compelling case for both creation and evolution drawing skillfully on an array of philosophical theological historical and scientific sources to buttress his arguments A Naturalistic

Epistemology Hilary Kornblith, 2014 This volume collects thirteen papers by Hilary Kornblith on the theme of naturalistic epistemology. These papers present Kornblith's own version of a naturalistic epistemology together with critical discussion of alternative approaches including work on foundationalism, the coherence theory of justification, internalism and externalism, social epistemology, the role of intuitions in philosophical theorizing, epistemic normativity and the ways in which philosophical theories may be informed by empirical considerations.

On What It Is Nenad Miscevic, Thomas J. Spiegel, Tamás Paár, Vítor Hirschbruch, Schwartz, Tamás Hankovszky, Tolgahan Toy, Serdal Tümkaya, Adrienne Gálosi, Botond Csuka, Ádám Smrcz, Bence Péter Marosán, Ferenc Takó, Ádám Tamás Tuboly, Josef Ehrenmüller, 2017-01-14 When the world in which philosophers need to work and on which they ought to reflect starts changing rapidly asking questions about the nature of her discipline becomes especially pressing for the philosopher. When new scholarly disciplines pop up radically restructuring the academic world problems concerning the place of philosophy among other disciplines need to be addressed. When new kinds of problems enter the world and the public consciousness philosophers have to be able to tell whether their conceptual tools make them suitable to deal with them. And when the very purpose and nature of academic research and scholarship transforms due to technological, social and economical advancements philosophy has to redefine its place in academia and society.

Philosophical Methodology: The Armchair or the Laboratory? Matthew Haug, 2013-07-31 What methodology should philosophers follow? Should they rely on methods that can be conducted from the armchair? Or should they leave the armchair and turn to the methods of the natural sciences such as experiments in the laboratory? Or is this opposition itself a false one? Arguments about philosophical methodology are raging in the wake of a number of often conflicting currents such as the growth of experimental philosophy, the resurgence of interest in metaphysical questions and the use of formal methods. This outstanding collection of specially commissioned chapters by leading international philosophers discusses these questions and many more. It provides a comprehensive survey of philosophical methodology in the most important philosophical subjects: metaphysics, epistemology, philosophy of language, philosophy of mind, phenomenology, philosophy of science, ethics and aesthetics. A key feature of the collection is that philosophers discuss and evaluate contrasting approaches in each subject offering a superb overview of the variety of methodological approaches both naturalistic and non-naturalistic in each of these areas. They examine important topics at the heart of methodological argument including the role of intuitions and conceptual analysis, thought experiments, introspection and the place that results from the natural sciences should have in philosophical theorizing. The collection begins with a fascinating exchange about philosophical naturalism between Timothy Williamson and Alexander Rosenberg and also includes contributions from the following philosophers: Lynne Rudder Baker, Matt Bedke, Greg Currie, Michael Devitt, Matthew C. Haug, Jenann Ismael, Hilary Kornblith, Neil Levy, E.J. Lowe, Kirk Ludwig, Marie McGinn, David Papineau, Matthew Ratcliffe, Georges Rey, Jeffrey W. Roland, Barry C. Smith, Amie L. Thomasson, Valerie Tiberius, Jessica Wilson and David W. Smith.
