Nature And Technology In The World Religions:

Nature and Technology in the World Religions Peter Koslowski, 2001-11-30 This third volume in the series titled A Discourse of the World Religions addresses the question of the relationship to nature and the interpretation of technology in the world religions posed at the World Exposition EXPO 2000 in Hanover Germany June 22 23 2000 Contains 13 contributions written by international theology philosophy and religion scholars addressing topics including creation as cosmotheandric reality in Christianity the relationship to nature and technology in Judaism Christianity and Islam and naturalism and humanism in creation and construction in Hinduism Lacks a subject index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Nature and Technology in the World Religions P. Koslowski, 2013-06-29 Technology and the control of nature have arisen from the endeavor to reduce the neediness of human life Since this reduction is also the goal of religions there is a necessary proximity between religion and technology The relationship of humans to nature and technology is an object of religious doctrine and ethics in all of the world's religions The interpretations and the norms of the treatment of nature in economy and technology but also the veneration of nature in nature mysticism and its elevation in cult and sacrament are forms of expression of the relationship to nature in religions The development of the modern control of nature through technology appears to be connected to the biblical commission to rule over nature Buddhism and Hinduism however also interpret technology and human control of nature Technological power raises the question of how the normativeness of the created order intended by religion's concept of creation relates to the human freedom to reshape creation What answers do religions give to the question of the humane form of technology and the limits to technological power and human control of nature Leading scholars of Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism and Buddhism have created with this volume a first hand source of information which enables the reader to gain a better understanding of these five world religions and their teachings on nature and technology Nature and Technology in the World Religions P. Koslowski, 2014-01-15 Philosophy Bridging the World Religions P. Koslowski, 2013-04-18 This is the fifth and last volume of the EXPO Discourses of the World Religions World Exposition EXPO 2000 Hannover Germany The series aims at a deeper understanding of the similarities and differences between Hinduism Buddhism Judaism Christianity and Islam in their theological and philosophical propositions It sees in philosophy a bridge between the religions and a means to overcome religious hostility and fundamentalism and to further the dialogue of the religions The Origin and the Overcoming of Evil and Suffering in the World Religions P. Koslowski, 2013-03-14 All religions face the challenge of explaining in view of God's goodness the existence of evil and suffering in the world They must develop theories of the origin and the overcoming of evil and suffering The explanations in Buddhism Christianity Hinduism Islam and Judaism of evil and suffering and their origin as well as these world religions theories of how to overcome evil and suffering differ from one another but are also similar in many respects The human person is always considered to be the origin of evil and also to be the focus of aspirations to be able to overcome it The conviction that evil and suffering are not original and can be overcome is characteristic of and common to the religions The explanations of the origin of evil are closely related to the explanations of the continuation and propagation of evil in human persons in nature and in our technology and culture that have been developed in the religions in Christianity for example as the doctrine of original sin Finally the world religions are concerned with how to cope with suffering and offer guidance for overcoming evil and suffering Leading scholars of five world religions Buddhism Islam Christianity Judaism and Hinduism have created with this volume a first hand source of information which enables the reader to gain a better understanding of these religions central teachings about the origin and the overcoming of evil and suffering

Progress, Apocalypse, and Completion of History and Life after Death of the Human Person in the World

Religions P. Koslowski, 2013-03-09 The soul is so closely connected to life that one cannot think that it could ever be separated from life and consequently be mortal Therefore it can only be immortal This argument from Plato's Phaedo for the immortality of the soul exhibits both a great strength and a great weakness Its strength is that it is difficult for anyone to think that the soul could ever exist without life Its weakness is first that not all religions accept a soul that remains the same as the center of the person thus one speaks for instance in Buddhism of a soulless theory of the human being and second that what is true does not depend on what we can think but on what we recognize in experience and thought The religions believe in the existence of a power that can work contrary to our experience that the soul in death is not separated from life How the religions believe they can establish this continued life after death and how faith in this life is related in the religions to the interpretation of history its progress its apocalyptic end and its eschatological completion and transfiguration is the theme of this book In the culture of the West in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries faith in the secular progress of the technological control of nature and the economic organization of society was the enemy of faith in the immortality of the soul

Technofutures, Nature and the Sacred Celia Deane-Drummond, Sigurd Bergmann, Bronislaw Szerszynski, 2016-03-03 The capacity of human beings to invent construct and use technical artifacts is a hugely consequential factor in the evolution of society and in the entangled relations between humans other creatures and their natural environments Moving from a critical consideration of theories to narratives about technology and then to particular and specific practices Technofutures Nature and the Sacred seeks to arrive at a genuinely transdisciplinary perspective focusing attention on the intersection between technology religion and society and using insights from the environmental humanities It works from both theoretical and practical contexts by using newly emerging case studies including geo engineering and soil carbon technologies and breaks open new ground by engaging theological scientific philosophical and cultural aspects of the technology religion nature nexus Encouraging us to reflect on the significance and place of religious beliefs in dealing with new technologies and engaging critical theory common in sociological political and literary discourses the authors explore the implicit religious claims embedded in technology

Nature, Technology, and Society Victor Ferkiss, 1994-11 Traces cultural attitudes toward the environment and technology across the span of human civilization While all human societies have enlisted technologies to control nature the last hundred years have witnessed the technological exploitation and destruction of natural resources on an unprecedented scale As environmental groups and the scientific community sound the alarm about deforestation global warming and ozone depletion the obvious question arises how did we get where we are today In Nature Technology and Society Victor Ferkiss sets out to answer this central question arguing that we cannot escape from our present environmental predicament unless we understand the ideas which have created it Ferkiss asks the basic questions concerning humans and their relationship to the environment He traces cultural attitudes towards the environment from early mankind to the present day This fascinating book is distinctive both in its comprehensiveness and in its attempt to place side by side influential thinkers and movements with varied views on these issues

World Religions, True Beliefs and New Age Spirituality Xavier William, 2005-12 Humans tend to think and react in predetermined ways to trigger words trigger situations and rituals though the trigger and the reaction may have no apparent or logical interrelationships whatsoever Seeing through such conditioned responses is the aim and purpose of this work Thanks to our long gestation period human beings are the most conditioned of animals Though conditioning is very useful in most situations for example in learning how to dress some conditioning like racism warps our minds and leads to avoidable conflicts and conflagrations Author Xavier William believes that this distorted or warped conditioning is evident in many aspects of ordinary life including Economics and politics Ethics morals and values Religions and Superstitions Traditions and taboos Alternate medicines Environmental issues Sex and family relationships World Religions True Beliefs And New Age Spirituality seeks to decondition and dewarp our minds from harmful doctrines dogmas and Parental and ethnic conditioning In so doing William argues that violence and bloodshed can be significantly reduced or even eradicated By employing clear think and self talk techniques human beings can steer clear off the ruts of habitual or rhythmic thinking With the rare insights in World Religions True Beliefs And New Age Spirituality people from seemingly incompatible ethnic backgrounds can build win win relationships and a better world for all

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Nature Laura Hobgood, Whitney A. Bauman, 2018-05-17 Divided into four parts Earth Air Fire and Water this book takes an elemental approach to the study of religion and ecology It reflects recent theoretical and methodological developments in this field which seek to understand the ways that ideas and matter minds and bodies exist together within an immanent frame of reference The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Nature focuses on how these matters materialize in the world around us thereby addressing key topics in this area of study The editors provide an extensive introduction to the book as well as useful introductions to each of its parts The volume s international contributors are drawn from the USA South Africa Netherlands Norway Indonesia and South Korea and offer a variety of perspectives voices cultural settings and geographical locales This handbook shows that human concern and engagement with material existence is present in all sectors of the global community regardless of religious tradition It challenges the traditional methodological approach of comparative religion and argues that globalization renders a comparative religious approach to the environment insufficient

Religion and Transhumanism Calvin Mercer, Tracy J. Trothen, 2014-11-17 Should technology be used to improve human faculties such as cognition and longevity This thought provoking dialogue between transhumanism and religion examines enhancement technologies that could radically alter the human species Transhumanism or human enhancement is an intellectual and cultural movement that advocates the use of emerging technologies to change human traits Although they may sound like science fiction the possibilities suggested by transhumanism are very real and the questions they raise have no easy answers If these enhancements especially major ones like the indefinite extension of healthy human life become widely available they would arguably have a more radical impact on humankind than any other development in history This book comprises essays that explore transhumanism and the issues that surround it addressing numerous fascinating questions posed by scholars of religion from various traditions How will immortality or extreme longevity change our religious beliefs and practices How might pharmaceuticals enhance spiritual experiences Will post human technologies be available to all persons or will a superior post human race arise to dominate the human species The discussions are as intriguing as the future they suggest
