Nature Animated:

The Idea of Nature in Disney Animation David S. Whitley, 2008 David Whitley's compelling study complicates our understanding of the classic Disney canon by focusing on the way images of the natural world are mediated within popular art for children. He examines a range of Disney's feature animations from Snow White to Finding Nemo to show that even as the films communicate the central ideologies of their times they also express the ambiguities and tensions that underlie these dominant values.

Nature Mathematized W. R. Shea, 1983 These remarks preface two volumes consisting of the proceedings of the Third International Conference on the History and Philosophy of Science of the International Union of History and Philosophy of Science. The conference was held under the auspices of the Union, The Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada and the Canadian Society for History and Philosophy of Science. The meetings took place in Montreal, Canada, 25-29 August 1980, with Concordia University as host institution. The program of the conference was arranged by a Joint Commission of the International Union of History and Philosophy of Science consisting of Robert E. Butts (Canada), John Murdoch (U.S.A.), Vladimir Kirsanov (U.S.S.R.) and Paul Weingartner (Austria). The Local Arrangements Committee consisted of Stanley G. French (Chair, Concordia), Michel Paradis (treasurer, McGill), Franyois Duchesneau (Universite de Montreal), Robert Nadeau (Universite du Quebec a Montreal) and William Shea (McGill University). Both committees are indebted to Dr. G. R. Paterson, then President of the Canadian Society for History and Philosophy of Science, who shared his expertise in many ways. Dr. French and his staff worked diligently and efficiently on behalf of all participants. The city of Montreal was, as always, the subtle mixture of extravagance, charm, warmth and excitement that retains her status as the jewel of Canadian cities. The funding of major international conferences is always a problem.

Animating Film Theory Karen Redrobe, 2014-03-21 Animating Film Theory provides an enriched understanding of the relationship between two of the most unwieldy and unstable organizing concepts in cinema and media studies: animation and film theory. For the most part, animation has been excluded from the purview of film theory. The contributors to this collection consider the reasons for this marginalization while also bringing attention to key historical contributions across a wide range of animation practices, geographic and linguistic terrains and historical periods. They delve deep into questions of how animation might best be understood, as well as how it relates to concepts such as the still, the moving image, the frame, animism and utopia. The contributors take on the kinds of theoretical questions that have remained underexplored because, as Karen Beckman argues, scholars of cinema and media studies have allowed themselves to be constrained by too narrow a sense of what cinema is. This collection reanimates and expands film studies by taking the concept of animation seriously. Contributors: Karen Beckman, Suzanne Buchan, Scott Bukatman, Alan Cholodenko, Yuriko Furuhashi, Alexander R. Galloway, Oliver Gaycken, Bishnupriya Ghosh, Tom Gunning, Andrew R. Johnston, Hervé Joubert, Laurencin Gertrud Koch, Thomas LaMarre, Christopher P. Lehman, Esther Leslie, John MacKay, Mihaela Mihailova, Marc Steinberg, Tess Takahashi.

The Spirit of Modern Republicanism Thomas L. Pangle,1990-10-15 Pangle reexamines the moral philosophy of the Founding Fathers and finds that at the heart of the Framers republicanism was a dramatically new vision of civic virtue religious faith and intellectual life rooted in an unprecedented commitment to private and economic liberties and that this commitment represented a departure from both the classical and biblical traditions He challenges those who explain 18th century political thought exclusively in terms of historical circumstances Calvinistic faith or economic and social ideology He develops a new interpretation of John Locke s moral and political philosophy arguing that Locke s greatest political and rhetorical achievement was in transforming the God of the Bible into the God of reason and nature and shows Locke s influence on the Framers thought ISBN 0 226 64540 1 22 50 Man and the Biosphere: Kenneth M.
