Kinsella,2022-05-31 Epochs ago a tribe prophesized that foreigners would plunder and dominate their land The prophecy also warned that if the foreign aggressors did not atone for their sins of cruelty theft and murder they would suffer from great fire and destruction After five centuries of brutal occupation a relentless virus with mysterious origins challenges the rulers Will the repercussions of the invisible invader force the occupiers to make amends for their atrocities or will the rulers be forced to suffer the prophesized conflagration A Nation Within Ezra Rosser,2021-10-07 In A Nation Within Ezra Rosser explores the connection between land use patterns and development in the Navajo Nation Roughly the size of Ireland or West Virginia the Navajo reservation has seen successive waves of natural resource based development over the last century grazing and over grazing oil and gas uranium and coal yet Navajos continue to suffer from high levels of unemployment and poverty Rosser shows the connection between the exploitation of these resources and the growth of the tribal government before turning to contemporary land use and development challenges He argues that in addition to the political challenges associated with any significant change external pressures and internal corruption have made it difficult for the tribe to implement land reforms that could help provide space for economic development that would benefit the Navajo Nation and Navajo tribal members
