Bureau of American Ethnology,1886 More Than Curiosities Susan L. Meyn,2001-01-01 Beginning in the 1920s anthropologists traders and other admirers of traditional Native American cultures appalled by the degradation of fine crafts into tourist trinkets began cultivating a fine arts market for indigenous textiles jewelry ceramics and basketry In More Than Curiosities Susan Labry Meyn explores how this grassroots revival led to the founding of the Indian Arts and Crafts Board in 1935 Meyn demonstrates how the Board and its activities such as development and marketing of quality arts and crafts targeted loan programs and the creation of artisans cooperatives not only aided in the development of a source of sustained income for Native artists but also were pivotal in overcoming the larger Euro American indifference toward Native culture

Under the leadership of René Hanoncourt the Board facilitated cross cultural understanding and provided the mechanisms that allowed Native American artists to revive traditional practices and adapt them to an Anglo market. Meyn's novel study will become an invaluable contribution to scholars of the period artists and anyone interested in Native American studies.

Encyclopedia of Nevada Indians Donald Ricky, 2000-01-01 There is a great deal of information on the native peoples of the United States which exists largely in national publications. Since much of Native American history occurred before statehood there is a need for information on Native Americans of the region to fully understand the history and culture of the native peoples that occupied Nevada and the surrounding areas. The first section contains an overview of early history of the state and region. The second section contains an A to Z dictionary of tribal articles and biographies of noteworthy Native Americans that have contributed to the history of Nevada. The third section contains several selections from the classic book A Century of Dishonor which details the history of broken promises made to the tribes throughout the country during the early history of America. The fourth section offers the publisher's opinion on the government dealings with the Native Americans in addition to a summation of government tactics that were used to achieve the suppression of the Native Americans. Here Come the Navaho! Ruth Murray Underhill, 1966 United States Educational, Scientific and Cultural Motion Pictures and Filmstrips Suitable and Available for Use Abroad U.S. National Commission for UNESCO.
