Near Eastern Culture Society:

Near Eastern Culture and Society Theodore Cuyler Young, 2017-03-14 Eleven scholars present a broad survey of Arabic Islamic culture and society in the Near East Art literature science philosophy religion politics international relations and social problems are considered Originally published in 1966 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Near Eastern Culture and Society Theodore Cuyler Young, 1951 Ancient Near Eastern History and Culture William H. Stiebing Jr., 2016-07 This introduction to the Ancient Near East includes coverage of Egypt and a balance of political social and cultural coverage Organized by the periods kingdoms and empires generally used in Near Eastern political history the text interlaces social and cultural history with the political narrative This combination allows students to get a rounded introduction to the subject of Ancient Near Eastern history An emphasis on problems and areas of uncertainty helps students understand how evidence is used to create interpretations and allows them to realize that several different interpretations of the same evidence are possible This introduction to the Ancient Near East includes coverage of Egypt and a balance of political social and cultural coverage Music in Religious Cults of the Ancient Near East John Arthur Smith, 2020-11-09 Music in Religious Cults of the Ancient Near East presents the first extended discussion of the relationship between music and cultic worship in ancient western Asia The book covers ancient Israel and Judah the Levant Anatolia Mesopotamia Elam and ancient Egypt focusing on the period from approximately 3000 BCE to around 586 BCE This wide ranging book brings together insights from ancient archaeological iconographic written and musical sources as well as from modern scholarship Through careful analysis comparison and evaluation of those sources the author builds a picture of a world where religious culture was predominant and where music was intrinsic to common cultic activity Bronze Age Tell Communities in Context: An Exploration Into Culture, Society and the Study of European Prehistory. Part 1 Tobias L. Kienlin, 2015-07-31 This study challenges current modelling of Bronze Age tell communities in the Carpathian Basin in terms of the evolution of functionally differentiated hierarchical or proto urban society under the influence of Mediterranean palatial centres Near Eastern Tribal Societies During the Nineteenth Century Eveline van der Steen, 2014-10-14 This volume provides an in depth study of tribal life in the Near East in the 19th century exploring how tribes shaped society economy and politics in the desert as well as in villages and towns Until the First World War Near Eastern society was tribally organized Particularly in the Levant and the Arabian peninsula where the Ottoman empire was weak large and powerful tribes such as Anaze Beni Sakhr and Shammar interacted and competed for control of the land the people and the economy The main sources for this study are travel accounts of 19th century adventurers and explorers Their travels on horseback on camel or on foot opened a fascinating window on a world with an ideology that was fundamentally different from their own often Victorian background One chapter is dedicated to oral traditions in the region from heroic epics to short poems which lets the tribes and tribe members themselves speak giving a voice to the tribal frame of mind Evidence of tribal organization as a driving force in society can be found in documents and sometimes in the archaeological record from the Bronze Age onwards While a straight comparison between ancient and subrecent tribal communities is fraught with difficulties and must be treated with caution a better understanding of 19th century tribal ethics and customs provides useful insights into the history and the power relations of a more distant past At the same time it may help us understand some of the underlying causes for the present conflicts afflicting the region

Jesus and Gospel Traditions in Bilingual Context Sang-Il Lee, 2012-04-26 Most historical Jesus and Gospel scholars have supposed three hypotheses of unidirectionality geographically the more Judaeo Palestinian the earlier modally the more oral the earlier and linguistically the more Aramaized the earlier These are based on the chronological assumption of the earlier the more original These four long held hypotheses have been applied as authenticity criteria However this book proposes that linguistic milieus of 1st century Palestine and the Roman Near East were bilingual in Greek and vernacular languages and that the earliest church in Jerusalem was a bilingual Christian community The study of bilingualism blurs the lines between each of the temporal dichotomies The bilingual approach undermines unidirectional assumptions prevalent among Gospels and Acts scholarship with regard to the major issues of source criticism textual criticism form criticism redaction criticism literary criticism the Synoptic Problem the Historical Jesus provenances of the Gospels and Acts the development of Christological titles and the development of early Christianity There is a need for New Testament studies to rethink the major issues from the perspective of the interdirectionality theory based on bilingualism

Europe & The Near East: The Presence And Absence Of Metals Professor Jack R. Goody, 2012-01-01 Europe and the Near East The Presence and Absence of Metals queries the assumption of the earlier advantage of the West in attaining industrialization Professor Goody contends that the Near East an area which includes the Middle East started what archaeologists call civilization with the Bronze Age developing its own renaissance and extension of trade influencing Europe However it was always handicapped by the absence of iron and coal And it was the plentiful exploitation of these in Britain with the help of German metallurgists that made way for the industrial revolution in Europe rather than any Protestant ethic which represents a Europeanist point of view
