Near Eastern Jewelry Maurice Dimand, Hannah E. McAllister, 1940-11-07 This picture book was composed in 1940 to display choice pieces from the Museum's Near East jewelry collection. Along with its array of photographs, the assembling curators have provided an introductory essay on the history and cultures that surround each of these carefully crafted ornaments, as well as the techniques used to produce them. Near Eastern Jewelry Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Maurice Sven Dimand, H. Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair, C. H. Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus, the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World. The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011. This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies. Library Catalog Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). This Handbook includes fifty chapters written by experts from a variety of disciplines: archaeology, including classical, near eastern, and Islamic; ancient history; anthropology; art history; data and network science; epigraphy; and historiography. Together, these chapters shed a fresh light on the vast regions that made up Hellenistic and later Roman Syria and the Near East. The material and written evidence from the region is considered side by side with historical sources, as well as scientific data coming out of archaeological science and network science, and shows how new knowledge about the region can be brought to the forefront of current literature on the subject. The dynamic, volatile, diverse, and culturally rich regions that this volume focuses on have left an abundant cultural heritage, and in many places, these regions are under constant threat. In this Handbook, knowledge about the newest research on a myriad of these regions, sites, and locations is highlighted together with overviews of the centuries-long history of research. The Handbook is essential for students, scholars, and the archaeologically inclined reader and constitutes the definitive collection of current research in the field. The Ancient Near East James B. Pritchard, 2021-12-07 Two classic illustrated anthologies now combined in one convenient volume.

James Pritchard's classic anthologies of the ancient Near East have introduced generations of readers to texts essential for understanding the peoples and cultures of this important region. Now these two enduring works have been combined and integrated into one convenient and richly illustrated volume with a new foreword that puts the translations in context. With more than 130 reading selections and 300 photographs of ancient art, architecture, and artifacts, this volume provides a stimulating introduction to some of the most significant and widely studied texts of the ancient Near East, including the Epic of Gilgamesh, the Creation Epic, Enuma elish, the Code of Hammurabi, and the Baal Cycle. For students of history, religion, the Bible, archaeology, and anthropology, this anthology provides a wealth of material for understanding the ancient Near East. Represents the diverse cultures and languages of the ancient Near East: Sumerian, Akkadian, Egyptian, Hittite, Ugaritic, Canaanite, and Aramaic, in a wide range of genres: Historical texts, Legal texts and treaties, Inscriptions, Hymns, Didactic and wisdom literature, Oracles and prophecies, Love poetry, and other literary texts, Letters. New foreword puts the classic translations in context. More than 300 photographs document ancient art, architecture, and artifacts related to the texts. Fully indexed. Arts & Decoration, 1914. A Companion to the Hellenistic and Roman Near East Ted Kaizer, 2022-01-06. Discover a comprehensive and cross-disciplinary handbook exploring several sub-regions and key themes, perfect for a new generation of students. A Companion to the Hellenistic and Roman Near East delivers the first complete handbook in the area of Hellenistic and Roman Near Eastern history. The book is divided into sections dealing with interdisciplinary source material, each with a great deal of regional variety and engaging with several key themes. It integrates discussions of the classical Near East with the typical undergraduate teaching syllabus in the Anglo-Saxon world. All contributors in this edited volume are leading scholars in their field, with a combination of established researchers and academics and emerging voices. Contributors hail from countries across several continents and work in various disciplines, including Ancient History, Archaeology, Art History, Epigraphy, Numismatics, and Oriental Studies. In addition to furthering the integration of the Levantine lands in the classical periods into the teaching canon, the book offers readers the first comprehensively structured Companion and edited handbook on the Hellenistic and Roman Near East. Extensive regional and sub-regional variety in the cross-disciplinary source material. A way to compensate for the recent destruction of monuments in the region and the new generation of researchers' inability to examine these historical stages in person. An integration of the study of the Hellenistic and Roman Near East with traditional undergraduate teaching syllabi in the Anglo-Saxon world. Perfect for undergraduate history and classics students studying the Near East. A Companion to the Hellenistic and Roman Near East will also earn a place in the libraries of graduate students and scholars working within Near Eastern studies, as well as interested members of the public with a passion for history. Women's Lives in Biblical Times Jennie R.
