poetry working class poetry and 9 11 poetry as forms of testimony Rowland argues that testamentary poetry requires a different approach to traditional ways of dealing with poems due to the pressure of the metatext the original traumatic events the poems demands for the hyper attentiveness of the reader and a paradox of identification that often draws the reader towards identifying with the poet s experience but then reminds them of its sublimity He engages with the work of a diverse range of twentieth century authors and across the literature of several countries even uncovering new archival material The study ends with an analysis of the poetry of 9 11 engaging with the idea that it typifies a new era of testimony where global secondary witnesses react to a proliferation of media images This book ranges across the literature of several countries cultures and historical events in order to stress the large variety of contexts in which poetry has functioned productively as a form of testimony and to note the importance of the availability of translations to the formation of literary canons

The Astronaut Maker Michael Cassutt, 2018-08-01 One of the most elusive and controversial figures in NASA's history, George W. S. Abbey was called the Dark Lord, the Godfather and UNO (short for unidentified NASA official). He was said to be secretive, despotic, a Space Age Machiavelli. Yet Abbey had more influence on human spaceflight than almost anyone in history. His story has never been told until now. The Astronaut Maker takes readers inside NASA to learn the real story of how Abbey rose to power from young pilot and wannabe astronaut to engineer, bureaucrat and finally director of the Johnson Space Center. During a thirty-seven year career, mostly out of the spotlight, he oversaw the selection of every astronaut class from 1978 to 1987, deciding who got to fly and when. He was with the Apollo 1 astronauts the night before the fatal fire in January 1967. He was in mission control the night of the Apollo 13 accident and organized the recovery effort. Abbey also led NASA's recruitment of women and minorities as space shuttle astronauts and was responsible for hiring Sally Ride. Written by Michael Cassutt, the coauthor of the acclaimed astronaut memoirs DEKE and We Have Captured and informed by countless hours of interviews with Abbey and his family, friends, adversaries and former colleagues, The Astronaut Maker is the ultimate insider's account of ambition and power politics at NASA.
