Hühn, Jens Kiefer, 2011-08-11 This study offers a fresh approach to the theory and practice of poetry criticism from a narratological perspective Arguing that lyric poems share basic constituents of narration with prose fiction namely temporal sequentiality of events and verbal mediation the authors propose the transgeneric application of narratology to the poetic genre with the aim of utilizing the sophisticated framework of narratological categories for a more precise and complex modeling of the poetic text On this basis the study provides a new impetus to the neglected field of poetic theory as well as to methodology The practical value of such an approach is then demonstrated by detailed model analyses of canonical English poems from all major periods between the 16th and the 20th centuries The comparative discussion of these analyses draws general conclusions about the specifics of narrative structures in lyric poetry in contrast to prose fiction The

Romantic period involves an often unacknowledged engagement with the experience of not knowing From Wordsworth and Keats to George Eliot and Charles Dickens from Henry James to Joseph Conrad from Elizabeth Bowen to Philip Roth and Seamus Heaney writers have been fascinated and compelled by the question of ignorance including their own Bennett argues that there is a politics and ethics as well as a poetics of ignorance literature's agnology its acknowledgement of the limits of what we know both of ourselves and of others engages with the possibility of democracy and the ethical and allows us to begin to conceive of what it might mean to be human This exciting approach to literary theory will be of interest to lecturers and students of literary theory and criticism Cambridge International AS and A Level Literature in English Coursebook Elizabeth Whittome, 2014-07-24 Comprehensive student friendly resources designed for teaching Cambridge International AS and A Level Literature in English syllabus 9695 This Coursebook is a comprehensive guide to the study of Literature in English at AS and A Level encouraging both the enjoyment of literature and rigorous academic study It provides a clear approach for any Literature studies syllabus and is divided into three parts Part 1 and Part 2 covering poetry prose and drama at AS and A Level respectively and Part 3 covering key skills needed to succeed in assessment It contains a range of stimulating literary material from around the world including poems and extracts from plays and prose fiction selected to include Cambridge set texts
