Maud, and other poems, with notes and an intr. by E.

Wordsworth Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson, 1899 Collected Poems Federico García Lorca, 2002-08 Poems by Modernist writer Federico García Lorca Song of Myself and Other Poems Walt Whitman, 2013-01-01 The essence of famous American poet and essayist Walt Whitman is captured in the collection Song of Myself and Other Poems. Whitman wrote in the time when Transcendentalism was fading and Realism was becoming more popular. As a result, his works encompass traits of both eras. His first work was an American epic called Leaves of Grass. He kept revising the collection until his death, issuing several editions and ultimately it contained some of the most famous poems that Whitman ever created. Song of Myself is hailed as Whitman's best and most widespread poem. In the poem, the author creates a persona that is both an individual as well as a universal voice for the people. Typical of Whitman's style, Song of Myself is written in free verse, allowing the narrator to appeal to a wide variety of readers. Also contained in the anthology Song of Myself and Other Poems are As I Ebb'd with the Ocean of Life, As a Farm Picture, and When Lilacs Last in the Dooryard Bloom'd. Lilacs was written as an elegy to President Abraham Lincoln after his assassination in 1865. The works of Walt Whitman have been alluded to in the creations of numerous other artists and will most assuredly continue to influence writers and poets for years to come.

Tales from the Cuban Empire Antonio José Ponte, 2002-09 Witty, ironic stories from the heart of the Empire, a very unexpected Cuban empire. The Poetics of Apocalypse Martha Nandorfy, 2003 Guided by the duende, liminal principle of creativity and death, Lorca represents New York as dystopia cum Armageddon, ultimately redeemed by the Blacks of Harlem and the telluric forces unleashed to retake the decadent, soulless civilization of North America. BOOK JACKET Blues and the Poetic Spirit Paul Geron, 1996-07 This is an inquiry into the blues and the mind, a study of the blues as thought. The subconscious power of the blues is examined from a poetic and psychological perspective, illuminating the blues' deepest creative sources and exploring its far-reaching influence and appeal. Like Surrealist poetry, in particular, blues communicate through highly charged symbols of aggression and desire, eros, crime, magic, night, and drugs, among others. An analysis of classic blues lyrics, along with source material from Freud and James Frazer to Breton and Marcuse, conveys the blues' major poetic function of spiritual revolt against repression. Memories of Our Future Ammiel Alcalay, 1999-12 This text features essays from Ammiel Alcalay covering Mediterranean culture, Arabic literature, the war in Bosnia, the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, the destruction of Carthage, and much more. En limpio se escribe la vida Daisy Zamora, 1992 These are poems written mostly in a time of war and rooted in the land and people of Nicaragua. Zamora draws deep portraits of women of all classes, often using her own body as a metaphor and starting point. Recalling the years of revolution and resistance to U.S. intervention, she follows the riverbed of her memories through the land of her childhood, mourns the devastation of war, and illuminates the heroic lives of ordinary men and women. Daisy Zamora was program director of clandestine Radio Sandino during the revolution and later served as vice minister of Culture in the Sandinista government. Sleeping, Sinning, Falling Mutsuo Takahashi, 1992-07 Sleeping, Sinning, Falling is a generous volume of selected and new poems written over

Fantasies of the Master Race Ward Churchill, 1998 Chosen an Outstanding Book on the Subject of Human Rights in the United States by the Gustavus Myers Center for the Study of Human Rights In this volume of incisive essays Ward Churchill looks at representations of American Indians in literature and film delineating a history of cultural propaganda that has served to support the continued colonization of Native America During each phase of the genocide of American Indians the media has played a critical role in creating easily digestible stereotypes of Indians for popular consumption Literature about Indians was first written and published in order to provoke and sanctify warfare against them Later the focus changed to enlisting public support for civilizing the savages stripping them of their culture and assimilating them into the dominant society Now in the final stages of cultural genocide it is the appropriation and stereotyping of Native culture that establishes control over knowledge and truth The primary means by which this is accomplished is through the powerful publishing and film industries Whether they are the tragically doomed noble savages walking into the sunset of Dances With Wolves or Carlos Castaneda s Don Juan the exotic mythical Indians constitute no threat to the established order Literature and art crafted by the dominant culture are an insidious political force disinforming people who might otherwise develop a clearer understanding of indigenous struggles for justice and freedom This book is offered to counter that deception and to move people to take action on issues confronting American Indians today
