

Ode to Newfoundland

- When sun rays crown thy pine clad hills,
And summer spreads her hand,
When silvern voices tune thy rills,
We love thee, smiling land.

We love thee, we love thee,
We love thee, smiling land.

As loved our fathers, so we love,
Where once they stood, we stand;
Their prayer we raise to Heaven above,
God guard thee, Newfoundland

God guard thee, God guard thee,
God guard thee, Newfoundland

Ode To Newfoundland:

The First Canadian Allen R. Wells, 2014-01-27 William Lyon Mackenzie King served all of Canada as Prime Minister. He was Canada's longest serving Prime Minister and for all other Commonwealth countries too. His successive governments created the Canadian Welfare state and the place we once held in the world. King strove for the social cushion of a united, autonomous and prosperous country. A lifetime later, all Canadians still benefit from his initiative and skill. King's life followed the Social Gospel in the political world and in the pioneering study of industrial relations. His work, relatives and friends' successes and disappointments are presented as you have never encountered them before. , Imagined Nations David Williams, 2003-03-24 In Imagined Nations David Williams explores works by authors such as Alistair MacLeod, Michael Ondaatje and Timothy Findley, examining the ways in which these writers show how our sense of time and space and our sense of personal and national identities have been altered by changes in modes of communication. He discusses how they have dramatized a series of shifts from the oral clan to the nation of the book, Alistair MacLeod from print nationalism to radio confederacy, Wayne Johnston and from print stasis to an electronic space of flows, Michael Ondaatje. Some writers have resisted the threat of filmic images to print formed communities, Timothy Findley, Guy Vanderhaeghe, while others have sought release from the prison of print, Hubert Aquin, or attempted to infiltrate cyberspace in the border war against globalization, William Gibson. Building on the work of Harold Innis, Williams joins other Canadians such as Marshall McLuhan, Ronald Deibert and Gerald Friesen in extending and clarifying our understanding of the way differing media environments predispose us to imagine unique forms of political community. Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books Doris Gebel, United States Board on Books for Young People, 2006-05-25 This annotated bibliography, organized geographically by world region and country, describing nearly 700 books representing 73 countries, is a valuable resource for librarians, teachers and anyone else seeking to promote international understanding through children's literature. It is the third volume sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People. The first, Carl M. Tomlinson's Children's Books from Other Countries 1998, is a compendium of international children's literature with annotations of both in and out of print books published between 1950 and 1996. Susan Stan's The World Through Children's Books 2002 was the second and it included books published between the years 1997 and 2000. Crossing Boundaries includes international children's books published between 2000 and 2004, as well as selected American books set in countries other than the United States. Editor Doris Gebel has compiled an important tool for providing stories that will help children understand our differences while simultaneously demonstrating our common humanity. Follow Your Bliss Donald Hodder, 2017-12-19 Dr. Donald Hodder has woven tales of joy and sorrow, humour and fulfillment into this interesting memoir. He practised family medicine for over forty-five years, all of it in his native Newfoundland. During his career, he kept many notebooks detailing his experiences. These became the foundation for this book. In studied prose and lilting verse, with integrity and compassion, he interlaces autobiographical material with social commentary on people and happenings in his life He witnessed a broad spectrum of human conditions the mundane the miraculous the physical the psychological and the social He feels immensely honoured to have shared in the most intimate aspects of daily life with thousands of patients for so long He is at times absolutely serious skillfully witty and hilariously funny You are invited to sit at his table of memories and be entertained enlightened and enriched Enjoy
