Christological Metaphors of Wine, Water, and Bread in the Gospel of John in Relation to Their Sapiential

Background Michał Filip Powęska, 2024-12-09 When focusing on the sapiential traits in text of the Fourth Gospel it should be noted that in its images of wine water and bread connected by the common theme of eating and drinking one can see Jesus the Giver who like the Old Testament personified wisdom bestows his gifts on man Although single references to the Old Testament sapiential texts have been suggested for the Johannine images of wine water bread light and the vine no detailed study of these images as well as their juxtapositions even in the aspect of eating and drinking has been published so far The selected topic seems to be important for showing a comprehensive approach to the Johannine banquet motif in its sapiential aspect broken down into particular Johannine images which are the events related to wine water and bread It is ultimately significant to present Jesus full identity through these three metaphors referring to the personified and preexisting wisdom as described in the Old Testament sapiential literature The Liturgical Homilies of Narsai Narses (de Nisibis.), 1967 The Liturgical Homilies of Narsai Narsai, 1916 Goddesses and the Divine Feminine Rosemary Ruether, 2006-11-20 The scholarship in this book is superior revealing a depth of insight and a scope of knowledge possible only from a scholar who has lived with the concerns of feminist theology for decades Ruether is a gifted storyteller and lucidly translates complex ideas and debates This work is of the highest importance and Ruether asks the right questions at the right time The text is groundbreaking Nancy Pineda Madrid Saint Mary's College of California Ruether has provided a valuable introduction to an important feminist topic what can we know about sacred female imagery in Western culture She guides us through contemporary feminist scholarship providing engaging narrative and venturing her own interpretations Ruether calls for feminists to move beyond divisions created by our different interpretations of prehistory and work together towards our common project of a more peaceful just and ecological world Carol Hepokoski Meadville Lombard Theological School Tatian and the Jewish Scriptures Robert F. Shedinger, 2001 It has long been argued that Tatian in the production of the Diatessaron made regular reference to the Old Testament Peshitta when he came across Old Testament citations in the Gospels This book argues on the contrary that Tatian made little or no use of the Old Testament Peshitta but regularly took over the text of the Old Testament citations as he found them in the Gospel sources out of which he created his harmony Where they differ from the form of these citations in the standard Greek text tradition of the Gospels it is because in the second century Tatian had access to Gospel sources which may have varied significantly from the text of the later manuscripts on which our modern critical editions are based Thus Tatian s Diatessaron becomes a window into an early state of the Gospel texts and supports the idea that a significant amount of textual fluidity characterized the Gospel texts in the first two centuries of their transmission This study will be of interest to those working in the fields of Diatessaronic studies New Testament Textual Criticism and the history of the Syriac Church

When Aseneth Met Joseph Ross Shepard Kraemer, 2015 This is the study of an anonymous ancient work usually called Joseph and Aseneth which narrates the transformation of the daughter of an Egyptian priest into an acceptable spouse for the biblical Joseph whose marriage to Aseneth is given brief notice in Genesis Kraemer takes issue with the scholarly consensus that the tale is a Jewish conversion story composed no later than the early second century C E Instead she dates it to the third or fourth century C E and argues that although no definitive answer is presently possible it may well be a Christian account This critique also raises larger issues about the dating and identification of many similar writings known as pseudepigrapha Kraemer reads its account of Aseneth s interactions with an angelic double of Joseph in the context of ancient accounts of encounters with powerful divine beings including the sun god Helios and of Neoplatonic ideas about the fate of souls When Aseneth Met Joseph demonstrates the centrality of ideas about gender in the representation of Aseneth and by extension offers implications for broader concerns about gender in Late Antiquity

Christ in Christian Tradition Alois Grillmeier, Theresia Hainthaler, 1975 A monumental work in scope and content Alois Grillmeier s Christ in the Christian Tradition offers students and scholars a comprehensive exposition of Western writing on the history of doctrine It covers the Council of Chalcedon 451 to Gregory the Great 590 604 with Part Two focusing on the Church of Constantinople in the sixth century
