The Origin and History of Irish Names of Places Patrick Weston Joyce, 1902      Doubloons Charles Benedict Driscoll, 1930      The Stolen Village Des Ekin, 2012-10-15 In June 1631 pirates from Algiers and armed troops of the Turkish Ottoman Empire led by the notorious pirate captain Morat Rais stormed ashore at the little harbour village of Baltimore in West Cork They captured almost all the villagers and bore them away to a life of slavery in North Africa The prisoners were destined for a variety of fates some would live out their days chained to the oars as galley slaves while others would spend long years in the scented seclusion of the harem or within the walls of the Sultan's palace The old city of Algiers with its narrow streets intense heat and lively trade was a melting pot where the villagers would join slaves and freemen of many nationalities Only two of them ever saw Ireland again The Sack of Baltimore was the most devastating invasion ever mounted by Islamist forces on Ireland or England Des Ekin's exhaustive research illuminates the political intrigues that ensured the captives were left to their fate and provides a vivid insight into the kind of life that would have awaited the slaves amid the souks and seraglios of old Algiers The Stolen Village is a fascinating tale of international piracy and culture clash nearly 400 years ago and is the first book to cover this relatively unknown and under researched incident in Irish history Shortlisted for the Argosy Irish Nonfiction Book of the Year Award      Pirates Ahoy! Charles Benedict Driscoll, 1941
Treasures of Britain and Treasures of Ireland Automobile Association (Great Britain), 1972      Reflections On A Summer Sea Trevor Norton, 2010-09-30 This is the funny and touching story of a menagerie of eccentric and talented ecologists who mainly as a hobby spent forty summers at Lough Ine a stunning marine lough in a corner of Ireland where myths seep from the ground like will o the wisps and in one of the most unlikely projects in the history of science were responsible for the reinvention of marine biology Among the stars of the book are the marine creatures that occupy the lake sea urchins that won't dine unless they wear a hat otters that steal experiments and worms that will only mate by order of the moon The creatures eccentric behaviour is matched only by that of the ecologists themselves whose antics and interactions with their Irish neighbours are all lovingly described with Norton's keen eye for both the wonderful and the absurd But for all its humour the book is also a moving account of two ecologists who collaborated for forty years until their friendship came to a tragic end The book brings together all the rich flavours of Ireland the wonders of natural history and the magic of being a marine biologist just for the fun of it      Good stories, ed. by J.E.
