Ukraine WTO accession is of special importance Ukraine records an extremely high exports to GDP ratio of over 60% almost twice the ratio for Germany The large ratio and the little diversified structure of Ukraine s imports and exports make Ukraine seriously vulnerable to external shocks resulting from changes in trade regimes Joining the WTO trade among WTO members amounting to more then 90% of world trade could reduce the risks related to external trade and Ukraine could derive substantial economic and hence welfare benefits from the membership in WTO Agricultural Policies in Transition
