Oeuvres Completes Tome 6:

Literary Medicine: Brain Disease and Doctors in Novels, Theater, and Film J. Bogousslavsky, S.

Dieguez, 2013-03-07 Classical and modern literature is full of patients with interesting neurological cognitive or psychiatric diseases often including detailed and accurate descriptions which suggests the authors were inspired by observations of real people In many cases these literary portrayals of diseases even predate their formal identification by medical science Fictional literature encompasses nearly all kinds of disorders affecting the nervous system with certain favorites such as memory loss and behavioral syndromes There are even unique observations that cannot be found in scientific and clinical literature because of the lack of appropriate studies Not only does literature offer a creative and humane look at disorders of the brain and mind but just as authors have been inspired by medicine and real disorders clinicians have also gained knowledge from literary depictions of the disorders they encounter in their daily practice This book provides an amazing and fascinating look at neurological conditions patients and doctors in literature and film in a way which is both nostalgic and novel

Doubts and Directions in Translation Studies Yves Gambier, Miriam Shlesinger, Radegundis Stolze, 2007 Like previous collections based on congresses of the European Society of Translation Studies EST this volume presents the latest insights and findings in an ever changing ever challenging domain The twenty six papers carefully chosen from about 140 presented at the 4th EST Congress offer a bird's eye view of the most pressing concerns and most exciting vistas in Translation Studies today The editors' final choices reflect a focus on quality of approach originality of topic and clarity of presentation and aim at capturing the most salient developments in the contemporary theory methodology and technology of TS As always in EST the themes covered relate to translation as well as interpreting They include discussion of a broad range of text types and skopoi and a diversity of themes such as translation universals translation strategies translation and ideology perception of translated humor translation tools etc Many of the papers force us to take a fresh look at seemingly well established paradigms and familiar notions while also making recourse to work being done in other disciplines Semiotics Linguistics Discourse Analysis Contrastive Studies

The Thought Awaits Us All Daniela Calabrò, 2024-10-25 This volume shows how Nancy was able to deconstruct the founding sign of all metaphysics and all transcendence by redefining the concepts of existence corporeality and community opening them up to the disclosure of the outside to the exception of the world It draws on the work of the Italian philosopher Roberto Esposito and includes a dialogue between Nancy and Esposito The overcoming of the modern perspective is covered by Descartes and Hegel who are analyzed in light of Nancy This text proposes a deconstruction of the Western tradition in its philosophical aesthetic and political registers and conveys a new ontology that breaks with the categories of the One and the Multiple the Universal and the Particular in order to identify the relationship between the plural and the singular and understand what it means to be together to be in common to be in the world It is suitable for scholars researchers and students of philosophy and comparative literature

Marquis de Sade and

Continental Philosophy Lauwaert Lode Lauwaert,2019-03-21 He might be best known for sex and violence but Lode Lauwaert shows that the Marquis du Sade sits at a crossroads of surprisingly disparate branches of western culture abstract art Tom and Jerry gnosticism Kant's moral philosophy romanticism scholasticism stoicism and more To explore these links Lauwaert reads six interpretations of Sade in French postwar philosophy looking specifically at Pierre Klossowski Maurice Blanchot Georges Bataille Jacques Lacan Roland Barthes and Gilles Deleuze Lauwaert shows how these interpretations of de Sade can be read as a lively introduction to a postmodern way of thinking that is often considered inaccessible but which dominated the French intellectual scene after the Second World War

Tristan Tzara and Mário de Andrade's Journeys from Ethnography to the Avant-Garde Nefeli Zygopoulou,2021-05-14 This book presents a comparative study of Tristan Tzara 1896 1963 and Mário de Andrade 1893 1945 analysing their contributions to oral language traditions and to the body of criticism on modernism This is the first work to offer an analysis of Tzara's posthumously published prose Personnage d'insomnie and the first in the English language that explores de Andrade's libretto for the opera Caf as well as other examples of their poetry and prose The Romanian Jewish poet and writer Tzara later a naturalised French citizen became a central figure in the European avant garde from 1916 when he took part in the Dada Movement Mário de Andrade the Brazilian poet writer and musicologist of mixed origins was a contemporary of Tzara and a similarly central figure in the 1922 São Paulo Modern Art Week that defined Brazilian Modernism Both emerged from very different backgrounds but they followed a parallel creative path This book discusses their research and adaptation of various language manifestations ethnopoetics and folk traditions that led them to the creation of distinct and individual styles The historical and socio political events of the late 1930s would later prompt both authors to develop militant poetics Through chronologically compatible case studies the reader will discover that Tzara and de Andrade alongside their playful language actively criticised cultural imperialism and advocated against hate Journeys can be physical and intellectual they can crisscross leave traces and overlap This book takes the reader from two starting points a small Romanian town in the foothills of the Carpathians and a two storey house in an unusually tranquil street in São Paulo Brazil to the heart of the twentieth century avant garde As it shows Tristan Tzara and Mário de Andrade traversed borders and geographical points and their poetics meet in Mozambique Parisian cafés and Bantu chants

The Chinese Gazette in European Sources Nicolas Standaert,2022-01-31 The Chinese gazette as a publicly available government publication was distributed in a variety of formats since the twelfth century Little is known however about its form and content before 1800 By looking at China from the periphery this study shows how European sources offer a unique way of expanding the knowledge about the gazette of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Its interconnected history illustrates how the Chinese gazette as translated by European missionaries became a major source for reflections on state and society by Enlightenment thinkers It thus joined a global public much earlier than so far assumed
