Of Minds And Hearts:

A Transformed Mind and Heart Joseph Breault, 1978 What should Christians expect of each other Can a Christian judge another Christian How should we give correction This book draws on the wealth of insight from Scripture Christian tradition secular authorities and the experience of modern Christian communities to portray an open trusting loyal attitude that is vulnerable and compassionate as a foundation to build strong relationships The author's analysis includes the thought of the Desert Fathers Thomas Aquinas and Bernard Lonergan to understand the problems that stifle relationships

Preaching to Head and Heart Thomas R. Swears, 2019-11-26 Preachers have long been faced with two options On the one hand they can appeal to their congregations intellects teaching them the substance of the faith from the pulpit On the other they can seek to stir their hearers emotions wooing or warning them with the gospel Usually we reserve these two forms of preaching for different tasks or audiences If you are preaching an evangelistic message to the unchurched then your preaching style will draw more heavily on the emotional aspects If you are leading the faithful into a deeper grasp of the Christian message then you will more likely draw on the intellectual components of preaching While most preachers know that the choice between the head and the heart is a false one they often don't know how to bring the two together effectively In this book Thomas Swears offers detailed practical advice on how to preach to both head and heart He shows how both emotions and intellect function any time one tried to convey meaning from the pulpit regardless of the kind of message one is preaching Without abandoning the conventional wisdom on evangelistic vs teaching sermons he nonetheless insists that preaching with integrity in which the Word is truly embodied will always involve the whole person and personality of both the preacher and the congregation

Boundaries of Toleration Alfred Stepan, Charles Taylor, 2014-02-11 How can people of diverse religious historical ethnic and linguistic allegiances and identities live together without committing violence inflicting suffering or oppressing each other Western civilization has long understood this dilemma as a question of toleration yet the logic of toleration and the logic of multicultural rights entrenchment are two very different things In this volume contributors suggest we also think beyond toleration to mutual respect practiced before the creation of modern multiculturalism in the West Salman Rushdie reflects on the once mutually tolerant Sufi Hindu culture of Kashmir Ira Katznelson follows with an intellectual history of toleration as a layered institution in the West and councils against assuming we have transcended the need for such tolerance Charles Taylor advances a new approach to secularism in our multicultural world and Akeel Bilgrami responds by urging caution against making it difficult to condemn or make illegal dangerous forms of intolerance The political theorist Nadia Urbanati explores why the West did not pursue Cicero's humanist ideal of concord as a response to religious discord The volume concludes with a refutation of the claim that toleration was invented in the West and is alien to non Western cultures

The Irish Ecclesiastical Record, 1926 The Language of the Kingdom and Jesus Jacobus Liebenberg, 2001 This study interprets Jesus parables and the sayings tradition regarding the Kingdom of God from a cognitive linguistic understanding of metaphor It also shows what contribution the theory of metaphor can make when the parables and aphorisms are studied in research on the historical Jesus The metaphoric nature and polyvalency of the parables and aphorisms of the Jesus tradition undermine their value for research on the historical Jesus The author doubts whether the parables and sayings of the Jesus tradition can be employed to reconstruct the historical Jesus An

Authentic Liturgy Nathaniel Marx,2020-12-15 2021 Catholic Media Association Award honorable mention award in liturgy Authenticity is a value difficult to define but impossible to ignore in contemporary life The desire for authentic experience pervades art music food dating marketing and politics Worship is no exception Vatican documents megachurch websites pastors and liturgy planners all make competing claims to offer the genuine article But what makes liturgy authentic What distinguishes real celebration from artificial spectacle heartfelt prayer from empty ritualism a living tradition from both stagnation and gimmickry Can today's Christians perform the liturgy so that it is not a mere performance but a sincere offering of their whole selves In this book Nathaniel Marx argues that the defining characteristic of authentic liturgy is harmony Authentic liturgy happens when the minds of participants are in tune with their voices The call for worshipers to harmonize their inward and outward offerings of prayer is discernible in the Bible in the history of Christian prayer and in diverse efforts to invigorate communal worship today Marx's argument unfolds the meaning of this call to authentic worship through a provocative and wide ranging study incorporating scriptural exegesis liturgical history anthropology of ritual and philosophy of action He argues that authenticity is not a modern buzzword but an ancient virtue essential to worshiping in a spirit of communion God's People Count Carl Barrett,2023-10-17 We are undoubtedly living in a society and culture that is growing stranger by the day creating more distance between others minute by minute It seems that people are living in their own little bubbles and silos more than ever with no interest in connecting with people effectively And it is evident that the rise of the digital age is affecting people mentally and emotionally leading to voidness and isolation and a sense of hopelessness and helplessness Billions of people are connecting with an unproductive device in their hands when it should be the word of God There is no spiritual value when we allow the things of this world to consume our lives more than God's divine nature Do we really think anything will improve in our homes communities churches schools country and globally if we're not grounded and connected in the Truths of his word We must realize that connecting with humans physically emotionally and spiritually is how God designed us Just like our Creator wants a relationship with you and me he wants us to bond with others so they can also see the experience of his abundant blessings and goodness in our lives We cannot afford to be on the sidelines because it's all about cultivating genuine care for God's creation and putting it into practice for the sake of
