Reforging the White Republic Edward J. Blum, 2007-02-01 During Reconstruction former abolitionists in the North had a golden opportunity to pursue true racial justice and permanent reform in America But why after the sacrifice made by thousands of Civil War patriots to arrive at this juncture did the moment slip away leaving many whites throughout the North and South more racist than before Edward J Blum takes a fresh look at this question in Reforging the White Republic Race Religion and American Nationalism 1865 1898 where he focuses on the vital role that religion played in reunifying northern and southern whites into a racially segregated society He tells the fascinating story of how northern Protestantism once the catalyst for racial egalitarianism promoted the image of a white republic that conflated whiteness godliness and nationalism A blend of history and social science Reforging the White Republic offers a surprising perspective on the forces of religion as well as nationalism and imperialism at a critical point in American history      Trans/Formations Marcella

Althaus-Reid, 2013-02-11 Trans formations is a new addition to SCM's Controversies in Contextual Theology series Like anything coming from Marcella Althaus Reid and Lisa Isherwood it is controversial and challenging as well as highly original The book will make visible a range of trans lived experience transgendered and transsexual offer theological reflection on these experiences create challenging theology from this experiential base and provide a resource for churches and theology students not to date available It includes an excellent range of contributors including Elizabeth Stuart and Virginia Ramey Mollenkott This is a valuable addition to reading lists of courses on religion gender and the body      Yours for Humanity

March 1851 when he was just past forty years of age until his death March 9 1874 If his career could have been predicted in his earliest childhood he could have had no better training for his great duties than that he in fact received He was one of the best scholars in the public Latin School in Boston He received the Franklin medal from the hands of Daniel Webster who told him that the state had a pledge of him His school life was followed by four years in Harvard College and a course at the Harvard Law School where he was the favorite pupil of Judge Story He was an eager student of the Greek and Roman classics But his special delight was in history and international law After his admission to the bar he was reporter of the decisions of his beloved master and edited twenty volumes of the equity reports of Vesey Jr which he enriched with copious and learned notes A little later when he was twenty six years old he spent a month in Washington tarrying a short time in New York on his way In that brief period he made life long friendships with some famous men including Chancellor Kent Judge Marshall and Francis Lieber He had a rare gift for making friendships with men especially with great men and with women With him in those days an acquaintance with any person worth knowing soon ripened into an indissoluble friendship A few years later he spent a little more than two years in Europe coming home when he was just past twenty nine years old That time was spent in attending courts lectures of eminent professors and in society No house which he desired to enter seems to have been closed to him Statesmen judges scholars beautiful women leaders of fashionable society welcomed to the closest intimacy this young American of humble birth with no passport other than his own character and attainment It is hardly too much to say that the youth of twenty nine had a larger and more brilliant circle of friendship than any other man on either continent The list of his friends and correspondents would fill many pages He says in a letter to Judge Story what would seem like boasting in other men but with him was modest and far within the truth I have a thousand things to say to you about the law circuit life and the English judges I have seen more of all than probably ever fell to the lot of a foreigner I have had the friendship and confidence of judges and of the leaders of the bar Not a day passes without my being five or six hours in company with men of this stamp My tour is no vulgar holiday affair merely to spend money and to get the fashions It is to see men institutions and laws and if it would not seem vain in me I would venture to say that I have not discredited my country I have called the attention of the judges and the profession to the state of the law in our country and have shown them by my conversation I will say this that I understand their jurisprudence
