Of Our Soup Of Our People:

Of Our Soup, of Our People Donna Duesel De la Torriente, 1985-11-01 The People's Chef Ruth Brandon, 2009-05-26

During the first half of the 19th century Alexis Soyer became the most famous cook and man in London. In addition to his kitchen inventions and best selling cookbooks Soyer was part of many of the great events and social changes of his time. In her exciting biography of a culinary giant Ruth Brandon uses each phase of his legendary career to explore a different aspect of 19th century life including the destruction of the English peasantry the Irish potato famine and Britain's disastrous involvement in the Crimea. Born in France Soyer moved to England in his teens and rose to early fame as head chef at London's Reform Club where he designed a kitchen so innovative that it became a tourist attraction. He opened London's first French restaurant and was linked to some of the most famous actresses and dancers of the day. Yet for all his flamboyance Soyer's fame lies in the work he did for those in need. He wrote cookbooks for the poor and designed a model soup kitchen during the Irish famine. He traveled to the Crimea to manage the kitchens in Florence Nightingale's hospital and invented a battlefield cook stove that remained in use as recently as the Gulf War. Soyer's influence remains today with three of his books still in print. The People's Chef at long last pays tribute to this remarkable man who had such a profound effect on 19th century society.

As a Boy through the Hell of the Holocaust Zvi Helmut Steinitz, 2023-12-08

Zvi Helmut Steinitz Memoirs for eternal remembrance. For years I was preoccupied with the thought of documenting the tragic fate of my family members; all of them perished in the Holocaust. Yet for almost my whole life I tried to suppress the sorrowful past, wary of resurrecting the years of tears and suffering. I rarely spoke of the wartime atrocities. I never returned to the country where death resided where streams of Jewish blood saturated the earth. I couldn't bring myself to stand before the silent mass grave in Belzec where my parents, my brother and my aunt lie buried together with hundreds upon thousands of Jewish victims. I couldn't face the death of those I loved, couldn't look into their eyes. In my mind they live on. Many years later vivid images from the monstrous war years began to appear frequently, images that cast a shadow over my day to day life and burdened my mind. I gradually became aware of my age too. I was no longer young and already I felt under pressure to finally write down the story of my family. All my life I had been haunted by the question of how I had survived the war where I had drawn the mental and physical strength that helped me to survive those tortuous years. There is no explanation for my survival and yet I am certain that the upbringing that my parents gave me had a significant influence on my steadfastness and determination, particularly in critical situations. My parents brought my brother and me up with love and human values that I have carried with me through my life. In moments of deepest despair and deadly peril, hidden strengths awakened in me, strengths that sharpened my senses and saved my life. I strongly believe that the values installed in childhood will always stay with a person and develop into principles that a young person can take into independent life. Had I not possessed these principles, not even blind luck or sheer coincidence could have saved me. As the only surviving member of my family I felt a moral obligation to immortalise in writing the fate of my family and their lives before and during the war up until their tragic deaths I had the extraordinary fortune of surviving and I have enough mental strength today to enable me to address the horrors of that time and to tell the story of my family The Nazis will not succeed in their appalling attempt at erasing my family's existence from this earth My parents and brother have no personal graves and no gravestone The Presbyterian ,1910 Congressional Record United States.
