Bové, 2021-01-12 A case for literary critics and other humanists to stop wallowing in their aestheticized helplessness and instead turn to poetry comedy and love Literary criticism is an agent of despair and its poster child is Walter Benjamin Critics have spent decades stewing in his melancholy What if instead we dared to love poetry to choose comedy over Hamlet's tragedy or to pursue romance over Benjamin's suicide on the edge of France of Europe and of civilization itself Paul A Bov challenges young lit critters to throw away their shades and let the sun shine in Love's Shadow is his three step manifesto for a new literary criticism that risks sentimentality and melodrama and eschews self consciousness The first step is to choose poetry There has been since the time of Plato a battle between philosophy and poetry Philosophy has championed misogyny while poetry has championed women like Shakespeare's Rosalind Philosophy is ever so stringent try instead the sober cheerfulness of Wallace Stevens Bov's second step is to choose the essay He praises Benjamin's great friend and sometime antagonist Theodor Adorno who gloried in writing essays not dissertations and treatises The third step is to choose love If you want a Baroque hero make that hero Rembrandt who brought lovers to life in his paintings Putting aside passivity and cynicism would amount to a revolution in literary studies Bov seeks nothing less and he has a program for achieving it      Sun Sign Karma Bernie

Asunder By Heresies Distressed A Mighty Fortress and How Firm a Foundation The Church of God Awaiting s triumph over Charis was inevitable Despite its prosperity the Charis was a single small island realm It boasted less than two percent of the total population of Safehold How could it possibly resist total destruction The Church had every reason to be confident of a swift crushing victory an object lesson to other rebels But Charis had something far more powerful than simple numbers It had a king a crown prince and a navy prepared to die where they stood in its defense It had the Brethren of Saint Zherneau who knew the truth about Safehold s founding Who knew that the Church of God Awaiting was a monstrous lie And it had Merlin Athrawes last survivor of long vanished Earth Merlin the cybernetic avatar of a woman dead over a thousand years who was determined to break the Church s grip upon the human mind and soul So after eight years of war it is not Charis but the Church that stands upon the brink of defeat But the Church still commands immense resources and faced with the unthinkable it s decided that it too must embrace the forbidden technology which has carried Charis so far In the end it is simple for only one can survive The lines are drawn the navies and armies have been raised and all of Safehold is poised for the final battle between those who believe in freedom and those who would crush it forever Safehold Series 1 Off
