Building Houses out of Chicken Legs Psyche A. Williams-Forsen,2006-12-08 Chicken both the bird and the food has played multiple roles in the lives of African American women from the slavery era to the present It has provided food and a source of income for their families shaped a distinctive culture and helped women define and exert themselves in racist and hostile environments Psyche A Williams Forsen examines the complexity of black women s legacies using food as a form of cultural work While acknowledging the negative interpretations of black culture associated with chicken imagery Williams Forsen focuses her analysis on the ways black women have forged their own self definitions and relationships to the gospel bird Exploring material ranging from personal interviews to the comedy of Chris Rock from commercial advertisements to the art of Kara Walker and from cookbooks to literature Williams Forsen considers how black women arrive at degrees of self definition and self reliance using certain foods She demonstrates how they defy conventional representations of blackness and exercise influence through food preparation and distribution Understanding these complex relationships clarifies how present associations of blacks and chicken are rooted in a past that is fraught with both racism and agency The traditions and practices of feminism Williams Forsen argues are inherent in the foods women prepare and serve

The World of Jim Crow America Steven A. Reich,2019-06-24 This two volume set is a thematically arranged encyclopedia covering the social political and material

Chefs, Restaurants, and Culinary Sustainability

Carole Counihan, Susanne Højlund, 2025-01-06 The centrality of food to the human experience always places it at the crux of global crises whether catastrophic climate change the collapse of biodiversity in our shared ecosystem the threat of pandemics or the poverty and suffering associated with resource scarcity The continual reality of these challenges has prompted professionals throughout the food industry to seek innovative solutions as chefs and restaurateurs adjust to customer demands and political imperatives for socially responsible civic action Chefs Restaurants and Culinary Sustainability explores how chefs around the world approach culinary sustainability in highly unstable times while working in myriad professional domains Building on empirical data collected from a wide range of cultural historical political and economic settings the contributors to this collection provide a sophisticated and engaging examination of how chefs in diverse culinary contexts tackle the increasingly urgent societal and environmental need for a more secure food future

Women Redefining the Experience of Food Insecurity Janet Page-Reeves, 2014-07-03 Women Redefining the Experience of Food Insecurity Life Off the Edge of the Table is about understanding the relationship between food insecurity and women's agency The contributors explore both the structural constraints that limit what and how much people eat and the myriad ways that women creatively and strategically re-structure their own fields of action in relation to food demonstrating that the nature of food insecurity is multi-dimensional The chapters portray how women develop strategies to make it possible to have food in the cupboard and on the table to be able to feed their families Exploring these themes this book offers a lens for thinking about the food system that incorporates women as agentive actors and links women's everyday food-related activities with ideas about food justice food sovereignty and food citizenship Taken together the chapters provide a unique perspective on how we can think broadly about the issue of food insecurity in relation to gender culture inequality poverty and health disparity By problematizing the mundane world of how women procure and prepare food in a context of scarcity this book reveals dynamics relationships and experiences that would otherwise go unremarked Normally under the radar these processes are embedded in power relations that demand analysis and demonstrate strategic individual action that requires recognition All of the chapters provide a counter to caricatured notions that the choices women make are irresponsible or ignorant or that the lives of women from low income low wealth communities are predicated on impotence and weakness Yet the authors do not romanticize women as uniformly resilient or consistently heroic Instead they explore the contradictions inherent in the ways that marginalized seemingly powerless women ignore resist embrace and challenge hegemonic patriarchal systems through their relationship with food
