Of Una Jeffers A Memoir:

Of Una Jeffers Edith Greenan, 1998 Una and Robinson Jeffers raised twin sons and built a house and granite tower which is now an historical landmark in Carmel California At the end of his book length poem Iris Mark Jarman describes that remarkable union and place as The house where pain and pleasure had turned to poetry and stone and a family had been happy Published in a small limited edition in 1939 and available only in private collections and rare book libraries until now this new edition of Of Una Jeffers A Memoir includes new photographs an index and a fascinating Introduction by the noted Jeffers scholar and author of Robinson Jeffers Poet of California James Karman The Collected Letters of Robinson Jeffers, with Selected Letters of Una Jeffers Robinson Jeffers, Una Jeffers, 2009 v 1 1890 1930 2009 The Collected Letters of Robinson Jeffers, with Selected Letters of Una Jeffers James Karman, 2011-10-12 The 1930s marked a turning point for the world Scientific and technological revolutions economic and social upheavals and the outbreak of war changed the course of history The 1930s also marked a turning point for Robinson Jeffers both in his career as a poet and in his private life The letters collected in this second volume of annotated correspondence document Jeffers rising fame as a poet his controversial response to the turmoil of his time his struggles as a writer the growth and maturation of his twin sons and the network of friends and acquaintances that surrounded him The letters also provide an intimate portrait of Jeffers relationship to his wife Una including a full account of the 1938 crisis at Mabel Dodge Luhan s home in Taos New Mexico that nearly destroyed their marriage Robinson Jeffers James Karman, 2015-08-05 A deeply informative biography situates the poet in his time and place tracing the effect of both contemporary history and wild nature on his work Edwin Cranston Harvard University The precipitous cliffs rolling headlands and rocky inlets of the California coast come alive in the poetry of John Robinson Jeffers an icon of the environmental movement In this concise and accessible biography Jeffers scholar James Karman reveals deep insights into this passionate and complex figure and establishes Jeffers as a leading American poet of prophetic vision In a move that would define his life s work Jeffers family relocated to California from Pennsylvania in 1903 when he was sixteen At the height of his popularity in the 1920s and 1930s Jeffers became one of the few poets ever featured on the cover of Time magazine and posthumously put on a U S postage stamp Writing by kerosene lamp in a granite tower that he had built himself his vivid and descriptive poetry of the coast evoked the difficulty and beauty of the wild and inspired photographers such as Edward Weston and Ansel Adams He was known for long narrative blank verse that shook up the national literary scene but in the 1940s his interest in the Greek classics led to several adaptations which were staged on Broadway to great success Inspiring later artists from Charles Bukowski to Czeslaw Milosz and even the Beach Boys Robinson Jeffers contribution to American letters is skillfully brought back out of the shadows of history in this compelling biography of a complex man of poetic genius who wrote so powerfully of the astonishing beauty of nature The Suppressed Memoirs of Mabel Dodge Luhan Lois Palken Rudnick, 2012-07-15 Internationally known as a writer hostess and patron of the arts of the twentieth century Mabel Dodge Luhan 1879 1962 is not known for her experiences with venereal disease unmentioned in her four volume published memoir Making the suppressed portions of Luhan s memoirs available for the first time well known biographer and cultural critic Lois Rudnick examines Luhan s life through the lenses of venereal disease psychoanalysis and sexology She shows us a mover and shaker of the modern world whose struggles with identity sexuality and manic depression speak to the lives of many women of her era Restricted at the behest of her family until the year 2000 Rudnick s edition of these remarkable documents represents the culmination of more than thirty five years of study of Luhan s life writings lovers friends and Luhan s social and cultural milieus in Italy New York and New Mexico They open up new pathways to understanding late Victorian and early modern American and European cultures in the person of a complex woman who led a life filled with immense passion and pain The Collected Works of Langston Hughes, Volume 14, Autobiography: "I Wonder As I Wander." Edited with an Introduction by Joseph McLaren , Golden Dreams Kevin Starr,2011-09-09 A narrative tour de force that combines wide ranging scholarship with captivating prose Kevin Starr s acclaimed multi volume Americans and the California Dream is an unparalleled work of cultural history In this volume Starr covers the crucial postwar period 1950 to 1963 when the California we know today first burst into prominence Starr brilliantly illuminates the dominant economic social and cultural forces in California in these pivotal years In a powerful blend of telling events colorful personalities and insightful analyses Starr examines such issues as the overnight creation of the postwar California suburb the rise of Los Angeles as Super City the reluctant emergence of San Diego as one of the largest cities in the nation and the decline of political centrism He explores the Silent Generation and the emergent Boomer youth cult the Beats and the Hollywood Rat Pack the pervasive influence of Zen Buddhism and other Asian traditions in art and design the rise of the University of California and the emergence of California itself as a utopia of higher education the cooling of West Coast jazz freeway and water projects of heroic magnitude outdoor life and the beginnings of the environmental movement More broadly he shows how California not only became the most populous state in the Union but in fact evolved into a mega state en route to becoming the global commonwealth it is today Golden Dreams continues an epic series that has been widely recognized for its signal contribution to the history of American culture in California It is a book that transcends its stated subject to offer a wealth of insight into the growth of the Sun Belt and the West and indeed the dramatic transformation of America itself in these pivotal years following the Second World War A Literary History of the American West Western Literature Association (U.S.),1987 Literary histories of course do not have a reason for being unless there exists the literature itself This volume perhaps more than others of its kind is an expression of appreciation for the talented and dedicated literary artists who ignored the odds avoided temptations to write for popularity or prestige and chose to write honestly about the American West believing that experiences long known to be of historical importance are also experiences that need and deserve a literature of importance Corresponding Lives Patricia R. Everett,2018-05-08 An influential New York salon host and perpetual seeker of meaning Mabel Dodge entered psychoanalysis in 1916 with A A Brill the first American psychoanalyst continuing until she moved to New Mexico in December 1917 In Taos she met Antonio Luhan the Pueblo Indian who became her fourth husband in 1923 a radical union that forever altered her turbulent life From the beginning of her analysis until 1944 Mabel wrote to Brill and he replied yielding 122 letters No other such extensive elaborate written conversations exist between patient and analyst This book presents a narrative organized around these letters featuring the turmoil in Mabel s relationships with others most notably D H Lawrence as well as her extraordinarily candid memoirs both published and unpublished inspired by Brill s fierce insistence upon constructive outlets In her correspondence as in life Mabel was despairing insightful insecure and talented reporting to Brill her emotional states seeking his advice With warmth and frankness he offered opinions affection and interpretations Transatlantic Intellectual Networks, 1914-1964 Hans Bak,Céline Mansanti,2019-11-13 The twelve essays in this book by scholars from the U S France Germany the Netherlands and the Czech Republic offer new transnational perspectives in transatlantic historical literary and cultural studies They explore the special role of American and European intellectuals as agents of transatlantic cultural transfer and examine the mechanisms and instruments through which artists writers and intellectuals communicated across oceans and national borders in the half century between 1914 and 1964 Their focus is on transatlantic networks and the instruments of culture through which such networks become operative as sites of cross cultural exchange circulation and interaction magazines caf s publishing houses book fairs agents translators and mediators and last but not least transatlantic personal friendships Contending that the dynamics of transatlantic cultural transfer need to be understood as reciprocal and multi directional they also exemplify the shift within transatlantic intellectual history from a traditional concern with European U S relations to a multidirectional triangular exploration of cultural political and intellectual relations between Europe the United States and Latin America Western American Literature ,1992 Judith Anderson Desley

Deacon,2019-11-01 Everyone knows Mrs Danvers as a byword for menace in Hitchcock s Rebecca and as a poster girl for lesbians in the movies But only dedicated fans know her brilliant creator This book tells Judith Anderson s life story for the first time It recovers her career as one of the great stars of stage and television and an important character actress in film Born in Adelaide Australia in 1897 brought up by a determined single mother she parlayed her rich velvety voice and ability to give reality to strong emotional roles into stardom on Broadway in the 1920s Not a conventional beauty she was alluring with her beautiful body perfect dress sense and striking volatile personality After playing glamorous roles she was recognised as a Leading Lady of the American Stage under the direction of Guthrie McClintic in Hamlet and co starring with Laurence Olivier and Maurice Evans in Macbeth Her reputation as a great actress was confirmed by her landmark performance in 1947 in the ancient Greek Medea adapted for her by her friend poet Robinson Jeffers In a long career she appeared in Medea again in 1982 at the age of 85 playing the Nurse to fellow Australian Zoe Caldwell s Medea Ambitious and driven Anderson toured extensively made numerous highly praised appearances on television and after her unforgettable role as Mrs Danvers was a sought after character actress in film playing her last role as Vulcan High Priestess in Star Trek III at the age of 87 She won many awards and was made a Dame Commander of the British Empire in 1960 and Companion of the Order of Australia just before her death in 1992 She had a stormy private life and two short marriages which she remarked were much too long

Reimagining Indians Sherry Lynn Smith, 2000 Reimagining Indians investigates a group of Anglo American writers whose books about Native Americans helped reshape Americans understanding of Indian peoples at the turn of the twentieth century Hailing from the Eastern United States these men and women traveled to the American West and discovered exotics in their midst Drawn to Indian cultures as alternatives to what they found distasteful about modern American culture these writers produced a body of work that celebrates Indian cultures religions artistry and simple humanity Although these writers were not academically trained ethnographers their books represent popular versions of ethnography In revealing their own doubts about the superiority of European American culture they sought to provide a favorable climate for Indian cultural survival in a world indisputably dominated by non Indians They also encouraged notions of cultural relativism pluralism and tolerance in American thought For the historian and general reader alike this volume speaks to broad themes of American cultural history Native American history and the history of the American West Una and Robin Mabel Dodge

Luhan, 1976 Explores the life and marriage of Robinson Jeffers poet of the central California coast and icon of the environmental movement Robinson Jeffers Newsletter, 1991 Nature's Writers Donald S. Clark, 2024-09-03 A photographic celebration of the landscapes that have influenced some of America's most important nature writers from John Muir to Terry Tempest Williams to Barbara Kingsolver Since 2019 Donald S Clark has documented the places that have been instrumental in influencing the lives and words of both historic and contemporary nature and environmental writers throughout the United States While we have always felt their passionate connection to their own environments no book has ever made this visual connection between writers and their land before the relationship between prose and place Featuring more than 40 of America's most important writers the content is as far reaching as America itself from sea to shining sea forest to prairie and mountain to coastline Accompanying each gallery of stunning photography is a selected excerpt by the writer about their land With the increasingly noticeable effects of climate change the significance of these writers and their personal connections to the environment is even more timely This unique and compelling story of the land and how it has inspired some of our greatest poets and authors will make a wonderful gift for budding environmentalists students of nature writing or anyone interested in conservation Mabel Dodge Luhan Lois Palken Rudnick, 1987-03-01 She was the most peculiar common denominator that society literature art and radical revolutionaries ever found in New York and Europe So claimed a Chicago newspaper reporter in the 1920s of Mabel Dodge Luhan who attracted leading literary and intellectual figures to her circle for over four decades Not only was she mistress of a grand salon an American Madame de Stael she was also a leading symbol of the New Woman sexually emancipated self determining and in control of her destiny In many ways her life is the story of America s emergence from the Victorian age Lois Rudnick has written a unique and definitive biography that examines all aspects of Mabel Dodge Luhan s real and imagined lives drawing on fictional portraits of Mabel including those by D H Lawrence Carl Van Vechten and Gertrude Stein as well as on Mabel s own voluminous memoirs letters and fiction Rudnick not only assesses Mabel as muse to men of genius but also considers her seriously as a writer activist and spirit of the age This biography will appeal not just to cultural historians but to any woman who has loved and lived with men who are artists and rebels Both as a liberated woman and as a legend Mabel Dodge Luhan embodies the cultural forces that shaped modern America St. James Guide to Biography Paul E. Schellinger,1991 Supplies bibliographical and critical analysis of available biographies in English Material Dreams Kevin Starr,1990-04-12 Kevin Starr is the foremost chronicler of the California dream and indeed one of the finest narrative historians writing today on any subject The first two installments of his monumental cultural history Americans and the California Dream have been hailed as mature well proportioned and marvelously diverse and diverting The New York Times Book Review and rich in details and alive with interesting and sometimes incredible people Los Angeles Times Now in Material Dreams Starr turns to one of the most vibrant decades in the Golden State s history the 1920s when some two million Americans migrated to California the vast majority settling in or around Los Angeles In a lively and eminently readable narrative Starr reveals how Los Angeles arose almost defiantly on a site lacking many of the advantages required for urban development creating itself out of sheer will the Great Gatsby of American cities He describes how William Ellsworth Smyth the Peter the Hermit of the Irrigation Crusade the self educated Irish engineer William Mulholland who built the main aquaducts to Los Angeles and George Chaffey who diverted the Colorado River transforming desert into the lush Imperial Valley brought life supporting water to the arid South He examines the discovery of oil the boosters and land developers the evangelists such as Bob Shuler the Methodist Savanarola of Los Angeles and Aimee Semple McPherson and countless other colorful figures of the period There are also fascinating sections on the city s architecture the impact of the automobile on city planning the Hollywood film community the L A literati and much more By the end of the decade Los Angeles had tripled in population and become the fifth largest city in the nation In Material Dreams Starr captures this explosive growth in a narrative tour de force that combines wide ranging scholarship with captivating prose Collected Books ALLEN OSB;AHEARN AHEARN (PATRICIA.),Patricia Ahearn,2013-02 An introduction to and advice on book collecting with a glossary of terms and tips on how to identify first editions and estimated values for over 20 000 collectible books published in English including translations over the last three centuries about half are literary titles in the broadest sense novels poetry plays mysteries science fiction and children s books and the other half are non fiction Americana travel and exploration finance cookbooks color plate medicine science photography Mormonism sports et al
