Off Centre Damon Knight, 2011-09-29 The room was quiet the man in front of the mirror was the only living things there and he was too horrified to utter a sound In the mirror five faces stared back at him one young and ruddy which was his own and four that did not belong in that place at all for they were wrinkled malevolent small as crabapples and blue as smoke So begins Damon Knight's Be My Guest a story of the human race possessed by things that were well not exactly demons but not exactly not demons either It's just one of the unpredictably imaginative tales in this fascinating collection by a modern master of science fiction
