Cottino-Jones, 2010-02-15 Women Desire and Power in Italian Cinema offers for the first time in Italian Cinema criticism a contextual study of the representation of women in twentieth century Italian films Marga Cottino Jones argues that the ways women are depicted on screen reflects a subconscious sexual conservatism typical of an Italian society rooted within a patriarchal ideology The book then follows the slow but constant process of social awareness in the Italian society through women in film especially after the 1950s Comprehensive in scope this book analyzes the films of internationally known male and female directors such as Antonioni Fellini Rossellini Visconti Bertolucci Benigni Cavani Wertmuller Comencini and Archibugi Special consideration is given to the actresses and actors that have become the icons of Italian femininity and masculinity such as Sofia Loren Gina Lollobrigida Silvana Mangano Gian Carlo Giannini Marcello Mastroianni and Alberto Sordi Italian Film Marcia Landy, 2000-04-13 Examines the extraordinary cinematic tradition of Italy from the silent era

between the spheres of art business and politics at the national and international level By examining the roles of a wide range of stakeholders including film directors producers exhibitors the public and the critics as well as the system of funding and the influence of governments author Marina Nicoli demonstrates that the Italian film industry succeeded when all three spheres were aligned but suffered and ultimately failed when they each pursued contradictory objectives This in depth case study makes an important contribution to the long standing debate about promoting and protecting domestic cultures particularly in the face of culturally dominant and politically and economically powerful creative industries from the United States The Rise and Fall of the Italian Film Industry will be of particular interest to business and economic historians cinema historians media specialists and cultural economists
