Offerings at the Wall Thomas B. Allen, 1999-07 On Veterans Day 1982 a unique monument was dedicated in Wash DC with 140 black panels engraved with the names of the more than 58 000 Americans who died in Vietnam Now as much a shrine as a monument the Vietnam Wall has become a pilgrimage site a place where people leave votive offerings in a variety too wide to categorize All of them have been collected preserved cataloged by the National Park Service This volume presents a selection of the mementos left at the wall ranging from combat boots weapons to baseballs bubble gum wrappers to a family photograph taken from the body of a dead Vietnamese soldier Carried to the Wall Kristin Ann

Offerings at the Wall Thomas B. Allen, 1995 Shows artifacts left at the memorial including medals letters crosses combat paraphernalia and flags American Studies Janice A. Radway, Kevin Gaines, Barry Shank, Penny Von Eschen, 2009-03-09 American Studies is a vigorous bold account of the changes in the field of American Studies over the last thirty five years Through this set of carefully selected key essays by an editorial board of expert scholars the book demonstrates how changes in the field have produced new genealogies that tell different histories of both America and the study of America Charts the evolution of American Studies from the end of World War II to the present day by showcasing the best scholarship in this field An introductory essay by the distinguished editorial board highlights developments in the field and places each essay in its historical and theoretical context Explores topics such as American politics history culture race gender and working life Shows how changing perspectives have enabled older concepts to emerge in a different context Tangled Memories Marita Sturken, 1997-02-28 Analyzing the ways U S culture has been formed and transformed in the 80s and 90s by its response to the Vietnam War and the AIDS epidemic Marita Sturken argues that each has disrupted our conventional notions of community nation consensus and American culture She examines the relationship of camera images to the production of cultural memory the mixing of fantasy and reenactment in memory the role of trauma and survivors in creating cultural comfort and how discourses of healing can smooth over the tensions of political events Sturken s discussion encompasses a brilliant comparison of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial and the AIDS Quilt her profound reading of the Memorial as a national wailing wall one whose emphasis on the veterans and war dead has allowed the discourse of heroes sacrifice and honor to resurface at the same time that it is an implicit condemnation of war is particularly compelling The book also includes discussions of the Kennedy assassination the Persian Gulf War the Challenger explosion and the Rodney King beating While debunking the image of the United States as a culture of amnesia Sturken also shows how remembering itself is a form of forgetting and how exclusion is a vital part of memory formation The Vietnam War in American Memory Christian Goodwillie, Jane F. Crosthwaite, 2009 From the very beginning in the 1770s singing was an important part of the worship services of the Shakers formally known as the United Society of Believers in Christ s Second Appearing Yet until the early nineteenth century nearly all Shaker songs were wordless expressed in unknown tongues or as enthusiastic vocalizations Only when Shaker missionaries moved west into Ohio and Kentucky did they begin composing hymn texts chiefly as a means of conveying the sect s unconventional religious ideas to new converts In 1812 13 the Shakers published their first hymnal This venture titled Millennial Praises included the texts without music for one hundred and forty hymns and elucidated the radical and feminist theology of the Shakers neatly distilled in verse This scholarly edition of the hymnal joins the texts to original Shaker tunes for the first time One hundred and twenty six of the tunes preserved in the Society s manuscript hymnals have been transcribed from Shaker musical notation into modern standard notation thus opening this important religious and folk repertoire to modern scholars Many texts are presented with a wide range of variant tunes from Shaker communities in New England New York Ohio and Kentucky Introductory essays by volume editors Christian Goodwillie and Jane F Crosthwaite place Millennial Praises in the context of Shaker history and offer a thorough explication of the Society s theology They track the use of the hymnal from the point of publication up to the present day beginning with the use of the hymns by both Shaker missionaries and anti Shaker apostates and ending with the current use of the hymns by the last remaining Shaker family at Sabbathday Lake Maine The volume includes a CD of historical recordings of six Shaker songs by Brother Ricardo Belden the last member of the Society at Hancock Shaker Village

Documents That Changed the Way We Live Joseph Janes, 2017-05-26 Documents are milestones and markers of human activity part of who and what we are Our story can be told through the objects profound and trivial famous and forgotten by which we remember and are remembered Documents That Changed the Way We Live examines dozens of compelling stories that describe these documents their creation motivation influence importance historical and social context provenance and their connections to contemporary information objects technologies and trends These documents include the following Exaltation of Innana a Sumerian hymn composed c 2300 BCE by the high priestess Enheduanna likely the first known author of anything The We Can Do It poster everybody knows is Rosie the Riveter calling women to work in the factories in World War II Except it s not and she isn t Joseph McCarthy s list of Communists that ruined lives and careers because it was believed even though it never existed The He has waged cruel war passage on slavery deleted from the Declaration of Independence The poorly designed Palm Beach County butterfly ballot on which the 2000 U S presidential election may have hinged And the lesser known stories behind the Zapruder Film the Watergate tapes the Obama birth certificate airplane black boxes Thanksgiving IQ tests the Star Spangled Banner why Americans spell the way they do Nobel Prizes Wikipedia and how you re cooking dinner tonight     Letters on the Wall Michael Sofarelli, 2008-05-01     Memorials to Shattered Myths Harriet Senie, 2016 Memorials to Shattered Myths Vietnam to 9 11 traces the evolution and consequences of a new hybrid paradigm which grants a heroic status to victims of national tragedies and by extension to their families thereby creating a class of privileged participants in the permanent memorial process Harriet F Senie suggests that instead the victims families be able to determine the nature of an interim memorial one that addresses their needs in the critical time between the murder of their loved ones and the completion of the permanent memorial She also observes that the memorials discussed herein are inadvertently based on strategies of diversion and denial that direct our attention away from actual events and reframe tragedy as secular or religious triumph In doing so they camouflage history and seen as an aggregate they define a nation of victims exactly the concept they and their accompanying celebratory narratives were apparently created to obscure     Spontaneous Shrines and the Public Memorialization of Death J. Santino, 2016-04-30 This is an edited volume of approximately 17 essays that deal with various types of spontaneous shrines and other related public memorializations of death The articles address events such as New York after 9 11 roadside crosses and the use of Day of the Dead altars to bring attention to deceased undocumented immigrants     Memorials as Spaces of Engagement Quentin Stevens, Karen A. Franck, 2015-08-11 Memorials are more diverse in design and subject matter than ever before No longer limited to statues of heroes placed high on pedestals contemporary memorials engage visitors in new often surprising ways contributing to the liveliness of public space In Memorials as Spaces of Engagement Quentin Stevens and Karen A Franck explore how changes in memorial design and use have helped forge closer richer relationships between commemorative sites and their visitors The authors combine first hand analysis of key examples with material drawn from existing scholarship Examples from the US Canada Australia and Europe include official formally designed memorials and informal ones those created by the public without official sanction Memorials as Spaces of Engagement discusses important issues for the design management and planning of memorials and public space in general The book is organized around three topics how the physical design of memorial objects and spaces has evolved since the 19th century how people experience and

Beyond the Good Death James W. Green, 2012-03-15 In November 1998 millions of television viewers watched as Thomas Youk died Suffering from the late stages of Lou Gehrig's disease Youk had called upon infamous Michigan pathologist Dr Jack Kevorkian to help end his life on his own terms After delivering the videotape to 60 Minutes Kevorkian was arrested and convicted of manslaughter despite the fact that Youk's family firmly believed that the ending of his life qualified as a good death Death is political as the controversies surrounding Jack Kevorkian and more recently Terri Schiavo have shown While death is a natural event modern end of life experiences are shaped by new medical demographic and cultural trends People who are dying are kept alive sometimes against their will or the will of their family with powerful medications machines and heroic measures Current research on end of life issues is substantial involving many fields Beyond the Good Death takes an anthropological approach examining the changes in our concept of death over the last several decades As author James W Green determines the attitudes of today's baby boomers differ greatly from those of their parents and grandparents who spoke politely and in hushed voices of those who had passed away Dr Elisabeth Kubler-Ross in the 1960s gave the public a new language for speaking openly about death with her five steps of dying If we talked more about death she emphasized it would become less fearful for everyone The term good death reentered the public consciousness as narratives of AIDS cancer and other chronic diseases were featured on talk shows and in popular books such as the best selling Tuesdays with Morrie Green looks at a number of contemporary secular American death practices that are still informed by an ancient religious ethos Most important Beyond the Good Death provides an interpretation of the ways in which Americans react when death is at hand for themselves or for those they care about      Better Worlds Peter Roberts, John Freeman-Moir, 2013-02-21 Better Worlds Education Art and Utopia provides a fresh examination of utopia and education Adopting an interdisciplinary approach and drawing on literature and the visual arts as well as traditional non fiction sources the authors explore utopia not as a model of social perfection but as the active imaginative building of better worlds Utopian questions they argue lie at the heart of education and addressing such questions demands attention not just to matters of theoretical principle but to the particulars of everyday life and experience Taking utopia seriously in educational thought also involves a consideration of that which is dystopian Utopia this book suggests is not something that is fixed final or ever fully realized instead it must be constantly recreated and education as an ongoing process of reflection action and transformation has a central role to play in this process      The Uses of Art in Public Space Julia Lossau, Quentin Stevens, 2014-12-05 This book links two fields of interest which are too seldom considered together the production and critique of art in public space and social behaviour in the public realm Whilst most writing about public art has focused on the aesthetic cultural and political intentions and processes that shape its production this edited collection examines a variety of public artworks from the perspective of their actual everyday use Contributors are interested in the rich diversity of peoples engagements with public artworks across various spatial and temporal scales encounters which do not limit themselves to the representational aspects of the art and which are not necessarily as the artist curator or sponsor intended Case studies consider a broad range of public art including commissioned and unofficial artworks memorials street art street furniture performance art sound art and media installations
