Democracy in Modern Spain Richard Gunther, Professor Department of Political Science Richard Gunther, José R. Montero, José Ramón Montero Gibert, Juan Botella, Joan Botella Corral, 2004-01-01 Based on more than 500 hours of interviews with key political elites under both the Franco regime and the current democracy extensive analyses of public opinion and electoral behavior surveys and other original research the book sheds important new light on Spain's democratic regime and its key institutions BOOK JACKET Contemporary Spanish cinema and genre Jay Beck, Vicente Rodríguez Ortega, 2021-06-15 This volume is the first English language collection exclusively dedicated to the study of genre in relation to Spanish cinema Providing a variety of critical perspectives the collection gives the reader a thorough account of the relationship between

Spanish cinema and genre drawing on case studies of several of the most remarkable Spanish films in recent years The book analyses the significant changes in the aesthetics production and reception of Spanish film from 1990 onwards It brings together European and North American scholars to establish a critical dialogue on the topics under discussion while providing multiple perspectives on the concepts of national cinemas and genre theory In recent years film scholarship has attempted to negotiate the tension between the nationally specific and the internationally ubiquitous discussing how globalisation has influenced film making and surrounding cultural practice These broader social concerns have prompted scholars to emphasise a redefinition of national cinemas beyond strict national boundaries and to pay attention to the transnational character of any national site of film production and reception This collection provides a thorough investigation of contemporary Spanish cinema within a transnational framework by positing cinematic genres as the meeting spaces between a variety of diverse forces that necessarily operate within but also across territorial spaces Paying close attention to the specifics of the Spanish cinematic and social panorama the essays investigate the transnational economic cultural and aesthetic forces at play in shaping Spanish film genres today

Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,2005      Early Bourbon Spanish America ,2013-05-23 The years between the accession of the house of Bourbon to the Spanish throne in 1700 and the coronation of Carlos III in 1759 have often been bundled up and dismissed together with the later years of Habsburg rule Growing out of the first Anglophone academic workshop to focus exclusively on Early Bourbon Spanish America this collective volume gives prominence to the first half of the eighteenth century as a distinct historical period Discussing from different methodological and geographical perspectives the ways in which the Bourbon succession international competition over access to Spanish American resources and war affected the Indies the contributors examine some of the key changes experienced in Spanish America at the local provincial and imperial level

Spanish-Italian Relations and the Influence of the Major Powers, 1943-1957 Pablo Del Hierro Lecea,2014-12-03 Spanish Italian Relations and the Influence of the Major Powers examines complex relations between Spain and Italy beginning in 1943 and continuing until 1957 contending that the relationship cannot be examined in isolation and must be understood in its broader context      Gibraltar and the Spanish Civil War, 1936-39 Julio Ponce Alberca,2014-11-20 Incorporating local national and international dimensions of the conflict Gibraltar and the Spanish Civil War 1936 39 provides the first detailed account of the British enclave Gibraltar s role during and after the Spanish Civil War The neutral stance adopted by democratic powers upon the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War is well known The Non Intervention Committee played a key role in this strategy with Great Britain a key player in what became known as the London Committee British interests in the Iberian Peninsula however meant that events in Spain were of crucial importance to the Foreign Office and the victory of the Popular Front in February 1936 was deemed a potential threat that could drive the country towards instability This book explores how British authorities in Gibraltar ostensibly initiated a formal policy of neutrality when the uprising took place

only for the Gibraltarian authorities to provide real support for the Nationalists under the surface The book draws on a wealth of primary source material some of it little known before now to deliver a significant contribution to our knowledge of the part played by democratic powers in the 1930s confrontation between Communism and Fascism It is essential reading for anyone seeking a complete understanding of the Spanish Civil War      Towards 2030: Sustainable Development Goal 3:

Good Health and Wellbeing. A Sociological Perspective Sangeeta Chattoo,Chimaraoke Izugbara,Andrzej Klimczuk,Magdalena Klimczuk-Kochańska,Piotr Toczyski,Ashwani Kumar,Rubal Kanozia,Grzegorz Piotr Gawron,Ahmad Ozair,2025-08-26 Building on the Millennium Development Goals the UN Sustainable Development Goals are the cornerstone of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development billed by the UN as An Agenda of unprecedented scope and significance The seventeen ambitious goals which are intended to be reached by 2030 are conceived as integrated indivisible and as balancing the economic social and environmental dimensions of sustainable development They are organized around five core pillars People ending poverty and hunger and ensuring that all human beings can lead fulfilling lives in a healthy and dignified environment Planet protecting the environment while ensuring sustainable use and management of natural resources Prosperity ensuring environmentally sustainable economic growth mutual prosperity and decent work for all Peace building societies that are peaceful just and inclusive and in which human rights and gender equality are respected Partnership strengthening global solidarity to address inequalities within and between countries by focusing on the needs of the most vulnerable This Research Topic addresses third Sustainable Development Goal which is to ensure healthy lives and promote wellbeing for all at all ages Progress toward this goal is measured by a number of individual targets and indicators As highlighted in the UN s most recent SDG progress report the COVID 19 pandemic has heavily impacted progress toward this goal Prior to the pandemic there had been improvements in maternal child health immunization coverage suicide rates and reductions in the incidence of communicable diseases and mortality rates from non communicable diseases The pandemic threatens to reverse or stall much of this progress As of June 2021 the global death toll from COVID 19 stood at 3 7 million with manifold wider ramifications of the disease Ninety per cent of countries are still reporting one or more disruptions to essential health services and available data indicates that the pandemic has shortened life expectancy The pandemic has also severely impacted mental health and increased waiting times for elective health services At the same time it has exacerbated inequalities at the national and international levels including access to vaccines In emerging from the pandemic and mitigating its effects the UN has placed emphasis on expanding universal health coverage and multisectoral coordination for health emergency preparedness as well as improving demographic and epidemiological data This Research Topic will address the third Sustainable Development Goal from a sociological specific perspective It will focus on how social stratification geographical location and culture impact communities health but also on groups specific health problems availability understanding and reception of medications and treatment and the functioning of primary health care as a service aiming to influence and inform policymakers on the development of equal public health policies A specific focus will be dedicated to how disparities in gaining access to health care reproduce important social inequalities in wellbeing and quality of life Due to the COVID 19 pandemic unprecedented health economic and social challenges are threatening lives and livelihoods making the attainment of SDGs much more onerous This call invites contributions in the form of studies reviews and opinion articles from the experts to provide sustainable solutions to achieve SDGs This Research Topic welcomes papers that will provide both theoretical and empirical findings Potential issues include but are not limited to Transformations of social determinants of health including lifestyles and environments Health inequalities and interventions towards their reduction Development of demographic and epidemiological data collecting and processing Advances in the fields of health emergency preparedness and access to universal health coverage Good health and wellbeing through access to clean and green agriculture Improving crop productivity on limited land in the era of climate change and COVID 19 pandemic Application of sustainable practices in agriculture and food sectors Public health and health sector innovations during the pandemic and for the post pandemic period Tensions between national and international health policies in response to global health challenges Role of experts in making law and public policies related to the COVID 19 pandemic e g response and recovery plans programs strategies and funds Innovative co design co creation and co production schemes based on diversity of policy ideas in the environmental policy and health policy Disruptions and challenges for integrated public policies and programs on social environmental and health issues related to delivering social health and care services Opportunities criticism and ethical controversies related to digital social innovation e health plant based innovation food innovation AI ICT and 3D solutions social and service robotics smart environments gerontechnology and welfare technology

El Terrible: Life and Labor in Pueblonuevo, 1887-1939 Patricia A. Schechter, 2024-07-12 This book is a biography of Pueblonuevo del Terrible a mining town located in Andalusia Spain Based on previously unexamined sources the study paints a fresh portrait of industrial workers and their families in C rdoba province enriching our understanding of this mostly agricultural region Previous studies of laboring communities in Spain have identified radical workers miners among them as a destabilizing element due to their insurgent protest activity including lethal violence This study by contrast describes both worker activism and cross class organizing as constructive not destructive and aimed at integration into Spanish society Economically the mining zone was dominated by a French company in the Rothschild portfolio But by running their own city waging peaceful labor strikes raising a church building housing and honoring their dead residents turned a quasi colonial outpost into a pueblo worth defending and they rallied in defense of the Republic at the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War In the making of Pueblonuevo del Terrible Spanish men and women contended with the perils of mine work the jolts of industrial capitalism creeping fascism and civil war As such this book tells a village scale story of global events that defined the twentieth century

Unlawful Attacks in Combat Situations Héctor Olásolo, 2008 Death and destruction are unavoidable effects of war and combat situations The fact that people have been killed or injured or property has been destroyed should not encourage anyone to rush to the conclusion that war crimes have been committed On the contrary before reaching such a conclusion it is necessary to carefully analyze the conduct of the person causing death injury or damage in order to ascertain whether such conduct is consistent with international humanitarian law Technology law and public opinion on what is acceptable has greatly evolved since World War II The issue of civilian damage caused in combat operations has become an important topic in public opinion since Operation Desert Storm in 1991 Public pressure to limit incidental civilian damage has notably increased following the NATO aerial campaign in Kosovo in 1999 and the subsequent conflicts in Afghanistan in 2001 Iraq in 2003 and Lebanon 2006 Unlawful Attacks in Combat Situations focuses on the manner in which unlawful attacks launched during the conduct of hostilities have been dealt with in the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court the international treaty which to date deals most comprehensively with war crimes committed in international and non international armed conflicts and in the case law of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia the first international judicial body that has investigated and prosecuted crimes committed during the conduct of hostilities since World War II

History of Machines for Heritage and Engineering Development J. M. de la Portilla, Marco Ceccarelli, 2011-06-04 This volume contains a selection of papers whose content have been presented at the International conferences CIPHI on Cultural Heritage and History of Engineering at University of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria in the Canary Islands Spain in recent years The conference series is aimed at bringing together researchers scholars and students from a broad range of disciplines referring to the History of Engineering and Cultural Heritage in a unique multidisciplinary forum to stimulate collaboration among historians architects restaurateurs and engineers These papers illustrate by treating specific emblematic topics and problems technical developments in the historical evolution of engineering concerning cultural heritage Thus emphasis is given to a discussion of matters of cultural heritage with engineering history by reporting authors experiences and views Topics treated include reutilization of industrial heritage the unique example of the Royal Segovia Mint in Spain the image of factories Pedro Juan De Lastanosa and the twenty one books of devices and machines of Juanelo the historical development of paper mills and their machines in South Latium during 19th century a virtual reconstruction of a wave powered flour mill from 1801 3D modelling and animation study of the industrial heritage wonders a new model of the hydraulic machine known as el artificio de Juanelo and the mystery of one Havana portrait on the first steam machine in Cuba This work has been made possible thanks to the invited authors who have enthusiastically shared this initiative and who have spent time and effort in preparing the papers in much more detail than in the conference presentations Cinema of Contradiction Sally Faulkner, 2006-02-22

A key decade in world cinema the 1960s was also a crucial era of change in Spain A Cinema of Contradiction the first book to focus in depth on this period in Spain analyses six films that reflect and interpret these transformations The coexistence of traditional and modern values and the timid acceptance of limited change by Franco's authoritarian regime are symptoms of the uneven modernity that characterises the period Contradiction the unavoidable effect of that unevenness is the conceptual terrain explored by these six filmmakers One of the most significant movements of Spanish film history the New Spanish Cinema art films explore contradictions in their subject matter yet are themselves the contradictory products of the state's protection and promotion of films that were ideologically opposed to it A Cinema of Contradiction argues for a new reading of the movement as a compromised yet nonetheless effective cinema of critique It also demonstrates the possible contestatory value of popular films of the era suggesting that they may similarly explore contradictions This book therefore reveals the overlaps between art and popular film in the period and argues that we should see these as complementary rather than opposing areas of cinematic activity in Spain
