budgets in video and using interviews and stock footage rather than observation of uncontrolled behavior The quality was often good enough and interest was sufficiently intense that the films were shown in theaters and on television which provided legitimacy and visibility before they were released soon afterwards on DVD and VHS and marketed on the Internet The volume reviews such films as Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 9/11 two refutations of Moore's film Fahrenhype 9/11 and Celsius 41.11 Unprecedented The 2000 Presidential Election and George W Bush Faith in the White House films that experimented with a variety of angles and rhetorics from a mix of comic disparagement and earnest confrontation to various emulations of traditional news and documentary voices The Rhetoric of the New Political Documentary represents the continued transformation of American political discourse in a partisan and contentious time and showcases the independent voices and the political power brokers that struggled to find new ways to debate the status quo and employ surrogate independents to create a counterrhetoric

Modernism and Mourning Patricia Rae, 2007 The essays in Modernism and Mourning examine the work of mourning in modernist literature or more precisely its propensity for resisting this work Drawing from recent developments in the theory and cultural history of mourning its contributors explore the various ways in which modernist writers repudiate Freud's famous injunction to mourners to work through their grief endorsing instead a resistant or melancholic mourning that shapes both their themes and their radical experiments with form The emerging picture of the pervasive influence of melancholic mourning in modernist literature casts new light on longstanding critical arguments especially those about the politics of modernism It also makes clear the pertinence of this literature to the present day in which the catastrophic losses of 9/11 of retaliatory war of racially motivated genocide of the AIDS epidemic have made the work of mourning a subject of widespread interest and debate Patricia Rae is Head of the Department of English at Queen's University
