Dorothy Seymour Mills has studied and written about baseball's past. With this groundbreaking book she turns her attention to the historians, stat hounds, and many thousands of not so casual fans whose fascination with the game and its history like her own defies easy explanation. As Mills demonstrates, baseball elicits a passion and inspires a slightly off-kilter obsessive behavior that is only slightly less interesting than the people who indulge it. Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997

Religious Remembrancer, 1918. Ball Tales Michelle Nolan, 2014-11-26. This history of American sports fiction traces depictions of baseball, basketball, and football in works for all age levels from early dime novels through the 1960s. Chapters cover dime novel heroes Frank and Dick Merriwell, the explosion of sports novels before World War II and its influence on the authors who later wrote for baby boom readers, how sports novels persisted during the Great Depression, the rise and decline of sports pulps, why sports comics failed, postwar heroes Chip Hilton and Bronc Burnett, the lack of sports fiction for females, Duane Decker's Blue Sox books, and the classic John R. Tunis novels. Appendices list sports pulp titles and comic books featuring sports fiction. Religion Is Not Done with You Ilyse Morgenstern Fuerst, Megan Goodwin, 2024-11-05. A smart, irreverent, and accessible guide to thinking more deeply about how religion permeates and shapes the world around us and why you need to understand the work it's doing. Religion lurks in the floorboards of our daily lives, whether we want it to or not A departure from more traditional approaches to Religion 101 Religion Is Not Done with You gives thought provoking context to the basics of religious studies by challenging readers to consider the origins of their assumptions about religion and broaden their perspectives on what religion is and does Religion scholars and Keeping It 101 podcast duo Ilyse Morgenstein Fuerst and Megan Goodwin offer their straightforward plainspoken overviews of religious studies theory that religion is what people do not just beliefs or individual practices that people are complicated and messy and constantly changing which means religion is also complicated and messy and constantly changing that religion shapes what choices you get to make Choices like what you can learn in school how your government works what kind of options you have or increasingly don't have in caring for your own body Sure you have the choice to participate in religion or not But how you make that choice builds on your entire personal history your connection to communities and regions and the systems that surround you All of which have been shaped by religion Religion is systems and structures and assumptions we didn't create or choose and to be honest we might not even like or agree with You can feel however you want to feel about religion but religion is shaping your world whether you like it or not And if you don't like how religion is shaping our world This book might just be your first step in diagnosing the problems and agitating for positive change Even if you are done with religion religion is not done with you Transactions National Safety Council,1922
