Against the Academicians Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 1957 New translations of two treatises by the fourth century Christian thinker dealing with the possibility and nature of knowledge. Intended specifically for philosophical readers and suitable as a text for a course in medieval philosophy. Augustine or church history. No subject index. Paper edition. Unseen 1295. Annotation copyright by Book News Inc. Portland OR. Saint Augustine Against the Academicians Saint Augustine (Bishop of Hippo.), 1957. Gottschalk and a Medieval Predestination Controversy Gottschalk (of Orbais), 2010 The question of predestination and its nature which drew strong protests from the monks of Provence in the early fifth century against the teaching of Augustine of Hippo was initially settled by the Council of Orange in 529. But in the Carolingian renaissance in the ninth century the Benedictine monk Gottschalk of Orbais brought the teachings of the late Augustine to the forefront of theological debate and greatly disturbed the clergy and faithful with his doctrine of double predestination of some to the joy of heaven and of others to the eternal punishment of hell a doctrine that he claimed was that of Augustine and the Catholic faith. The present volume provides for the first time an English translation of Gottschalk's key writings on predestination and various reactions and comments from leading theologians of the ninth century as well as a learned introduction to Gottschalk's life and controversies. Through a close engagement with untranslated primary texts Matava shows B ez's relevance to recent debates about middle knowledge. Finding the mutual critiques of B ez and Molina convincing Matava argues that common presuppositions led both parties into an insoluble dilemma. However Matava also challenges the informal consensus that Lonergan definitively resolved the controversy Developing a position independently advanced by several recent scholars Matava explains how the doctrine of creation entails a position that is more satisfactory both philosophically and as a reading of Aquinas The A to Z of Medieval Philosophy and Theology Stephen F.
