Saint Johns In Pictures:

The Picture of St. John Bayard Taylor, 1867 St John Damascene on Holy Images Saint John of Damascus, 2023-10-28 In St John Damascene on Holy Images Saint John of Damascus articulates a profound theological defense of iconography within the context of the Byzantine tradition. Written during the height of the iconoclast controversy, this pivotal work employs a precise yet accessible literary style that merges theological insight with philosophical reasoning. The text delves into the nature of images and their significance in Orthodox Christianity, arguing for their spiritual utility in fostering a relationship with the divine. Through careful exegesis of Scripture and historical precedent, John of Damascus not only affirms the veneration of holy images but also establishes a nuanced understanding of their role in worship and as conduits of grace. Saint John of Damascus, a prominent theologian and philosopher of the 8th century, was deeply influenced by the rich traditions of Christian thought and the cultural milieu of the Umayyad Caliphate. Living in a time of significant theological strife, John's commitment to defending the faith against iconoclastic sentiments is reflected in his deep understanding of both Hellenistic philosophy and Christian doctrine. His works reveal a mind that synthesized various strands of thought to articulate a comprehensive vision of the Christian faith. This essential text is recommended for scholars, theologians, and anyone interested in the intersection of art and spirituality. Readers will find in it not only a defense of religious imagery but also an engaging philosophical discourse that resonates with contemporary discussions on the role of art in faith. St John Damascene on Holy Images is a foundational work that encourages a deeper appreciation of the visual aspect of religious experience.

In Search of St. John Maurice Liguore, 2019-03-21 Since at young age Justin was interested in religion and life of Jesus Christ. Now when he was retired from the engineering job he had enough time and money to travel. He wanted to find out what really happened to St John and would try find out where he hid. He was inspired by the information found in the Gospel that St John would remain alive until the second arrival of Jesus Christ to the earth. John Evangelist was Jesus's favorite apostle. Jesus Christ even entrusted him taking care of his mother Mary after he would die on the cross. He trusted him completely and knew that John Evangelist will keep his word. Now the dream of Justin's life became reality. He packed important things together for his exciting journey and would look for St John. We would follow him when he traveled to Greece, Turkey, and Israel. The travel was not easy. He would visit places where John Evangelist sojourned some time ago. On his way, he would visit monasteries, talk to old monks, and learn secrets which were not known for ages. His journey began in Warsaw and we would follow him to Asia Minor and Jerusalem, the Holy City, and we would travel with him in the desert.
