

SAINT SILOUAN THE ATHONITE

When the soul by the Holy Spirit sees the Lord, how meek and lowly He is, she humbles herself thoroughly. And this is an especial humility. No one can describe it, and it is made known only through the Holy Spirit. And were men to understand through the Holy Spirit what a Lord is ours, all would be transformed – the rich would despise their riches, scholars their learning, and rulers their glory and power. Every man would humble himself and live in profound peace and love, and there would be great joy on earth.

and a cure of unification with God others and even oneself From his long experience as a priest and a theologian the author reveals the Trinitarian love guiding the living tradition of the Church a river of revelation and faith that has its foundation in the Scriptures and that transmits itself from heart to heart as from a spiritual father to his children He explores the links between hesychasm and the Eucharist solitary prayer and intercession for the world the spiritual life and theological reflection and fidelity to tradition and creative liberty By listening to the Word of the Spirit Bobrinskoy always returns to that same silence of the Father whose mercy is the eternal source of authentic love and true unity

Monasticism Archimandrite Zacharias Zacharou, 2021-10-17 The truly charismatic monk flees any honour as fire knowing that it will extinguish the flame of love for God burning in his heart and stop the current of the divine will from flowing through him and guiding him He would rather do everything to remain hidden from the eyes of this world so as not to be seen by men but to be under the gaze of God's eyes alone who seeth in secret and rewardeth openly Neither does he seek consolation or support from this world but puts his only hope in the Lord which hope he has as an anchor of his soul leading him into that which is within the veil

Alexandrian Legacy Mario Baghos, Doru Costache, Philip Kariatlis, 2015-09-04 This volume brings together contributions exploring a range of aspects of the Alexandrian patristic tradition from the second half of the second century to the first half of the fifth century a tradition whose complex and significant legacy is at times misunderstood and in some quarters wholly neglected With contributions by both Australian and international scholars the fourteen chapters here highlight that behind the complexity of this tradition one finds a vibrant Christian spirit granted one that has successfully put on the flesh of Hellenistic culture and a consistent striving towards the reformation and transformation of the human being according to the gospel Furthermore this volume contributes a nuanced voice to the scholarly choir which already hums a new song about Christian Alexandria and its representatives Indeed these contributions are interdisciplinary in approach combining methods pertaining to the fields of historiography theology and philosophy pastoral care hermeneutics hagiography and spirituality By way of this complex approach this book brings together areas which currently evolve in separate scholarly universes which is wholly befitting to the complexities entailed by the ever challenging Alexandrian legacy     The Practice of the Presence of God Martin Laird, Sheelah Treflé Hidden, 2016-11-29 Exploring the unity of the practice of prayer and the practice of theology this book draws together insights from world class theologians including Rowan Williams Andrew Louth Frances Young Margaret R Miles Sebastian Brock and Nichola Sakharov Offering glimpses of the prayer life and witness that undergirds theological endeavour some authors approach the topic in a deeply personal way while others express the unity of prayer and the theologian in a traditionally scholarly manner No matter what the denomination of the Christian theologian Greek or Russian Orthodox Roman Catholic Anglican Methodist authors demonstrate that the discipline of theology cannot properly be practiced apart from the prayer life of the theologian The prayer of the theologian shapes her or his approach to theology Whether it be preaching teaching writing or research the deep soundings of prayer inform and embrace all
