Bad Girls Jane Yolen, Heidi E. Y. Stemple, 2013-02-01 From Jezebel to Catherine the Great from Cleopatra to Mae West from Mata Hari to Bonnie Parker strong women have been a problem for historians storytellers and readers Strong females smack of the unfeminine They have been called wicked wanton and willful Sometimes that is a just designation but just as often it is not Well behaved women seldom make history is the frequently quoted statement by historian and feminist Laurel Thatcher Ulrich But what makes these misbehaving women bad Are we idolizing the wicked or salvaging the strong In BAD GIRLS readers meet twenty six of history's most notorious women each with a rotten reputation But authors Jane Yolen and Heidi Stemple remind us that there are two sides to every story Was Delilah a harlot or hero Was Catherine the Great a great ruler or just plain ruthless At the end of each chapter Yolen and Stemple appear as themselves in comic panels as they debate each girl's badness Heidi as the prosecution Jane for context This unique and sassy examination of famed female historical figures will engage readers with its unusual presentation of the subject matter Heidi and Jane's strong arguments for the innocence and guilt of each bad girl promotes the practice of critical thinking as well as the idea that history is subjective Rebecca Guay's detailed illustrations provide a rich stylized portrait of each woman while the inclusion of comic panels will resonate with fans of graphic novels

Doing History Linda S. Levstik, Keith C. Barton, 2015-01-30 Now in its fifth edition Doing History offers a unique perspective on teaching and learning history in the elementary and middle grades Through case studies of teachers and students in diverse classrooms and from diverse backgrounds it shows children engaging in authentic historical investigations often in the context of an integrated social studies curriculum The premise is that children can engage in valid forms of historical inquiry collecting and analyzing data examining the perspectives of people in the past considering multiple interpretations and creating evidence based historical accounts Grounded in contemporary sociocultural theory and research the text features vignettes in each chapter showing communities of teachers and students doing history in environments rich in literature art writing discussion and debate The authors explain how the teaching demonstrated in the vignettes reflects basic principles of contemporary learning theory Doing History emphasizes diversity of perspectives in two ways readers encounter students from a variety of backgrounds and students themselves look at history from multiple perspectives It provides clear guidance in using multiple forms of assessment to evaluate the specifically historical aspects of children s learning
