Two women at the Catholic Church launched the book drive. The Sisters fed and clothed the children and taught them with a caring that transcended creed and race, religion and politics. The only rule the Sisters gave their poor, suffering and orphaned, black girls was to be in the class. The program also let the girls learn something about the world as they made it their own classroom and playground.

beginnings as an uneducated impoverished farmhand to his ultimate fall at the hands of a murderous mob revealing how he forged a religious tradition that has resonated with millions of people in the United States and beyond Thomas Moran
