Children are fascinated with sailing ships lighthouses whaling shipwrecks and mutinies and these 50 plus activities will provide them with a boatful of fun This activity guide shows kids what life was like for the greenhands old salts and captains on the high seas during the great age of sail in the 19th century aboard square riggers clippers whalers schooners and packet ships Life aboard ship was an exciting subculture of American life with its own language food music art and social structure Children will learn that many captains brought their wives and children aboard ship and that kids who learned how to walk at sea often found it difficult to walk on dry land The book begins with the China Tea trade in the late 18th century and ends with the last whaler leaving New Bedford in 1924 Kids will create scrimshaw using black ink and a bar of white soap make a model lighthouse using a bike reflector an oatmeal box and a plastic soda bottle and paint china with traditional designs using a blue paint pen and a basic white plate Included are additional simple activities requiring common household objects that are sure to please busy parents and teachers alike      Imagic Moments Lee Schweninger,2013-05-01 In Indigenous North American film Native Americans tell their own stories and thereby challenge a range of political and historical contradictions including egregious misrepresentations by Hollywood Although Indians in film have long been studied especially as characters in Hollywood westerns Indian film itself has received relatively little scholarly attention In Imagic Moments Lee Schweninger offers a much needed corrective examining films in which the major inspiration the source material and the acting are essentially Native Schweninger looks at a selection of mostly narrative fiction films from the United States and Canada and places them in historical and generic contexts Exploring films such as Powwow Highway Smoke Signals and Skins he argues that in and of themselves these films constitute and in fact emphatically demonstrate forms of resistance and stories of survival as they talk back to Hollywood Self representation itself can be seen as a valid form of resistance and as an aspect of a cinema of sovereignty in which the Indigenous peoples represented are the same people who engage in the filming and who control the camera Despite their low budgets and often nonprofessional acting Indigenous films succeed in being all the more engaging in their own right and are indicative of the complexity vibrancy and survival of myriad contemporary Native cultures

e criminoso como poucos o alto mar. Há poucas fronteiras ainda não exploradas em nosso planeta. Talvez a mais selvagem e quase desconhecida sejam os oceanos grandes demais para serem policiados e sem jurisdição internacional. Evidente nessas imensas regiões de águas traiçoeiras abrigam índices galopantes de criminalidade e exploram traficantes e contrabandistas, piratas e mercenários, ladrões de naufrágios, vigilantes, conservacionistas e caçadores, pessoas que realizam abortos em alto mar, despejadores ilegais de petróleo, escravos acorrentados e passageiros clandestinos deriva. O Brasil ganha destaque no capítulo que relata o embate entre companhias interessadas em perfurar o solo oceânico na costa do país e pesquisadores locais. Empresas que ganharam em 2013 concessão do governo para explorar a área em busca de petróleo, mas voltaram atrás depois que o Greenpeace auxiliou os cientistas na realização de um estudo que provava a existência de recifes de corais na área, um ecossistema vivo e rico que fornece proteção e alimenta a diversas formas de vida marinha.
